

HUSKY DECKHANDS TIED NEAR-SUICIDE

Prevented Jump from Ferry-Boat and Turned Him Over to the Police.

Just before the ferry-boat Long Beach pulled out from Thirty-fourth Street for Long Island City at 2:30 o'clock this morning a well-dressed man came staggering aboard. A couple of seasoned deck hands took note of the look in his eye. There is an eye that goes with designs of jumping into the East River. This chap had it.

MAN SLASHED TO DEATH; WOMEN FATALLY STABBED

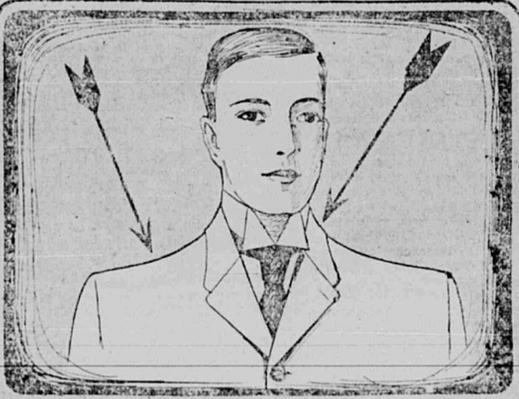

Quarrel on Way Home from a Dance Probably Will Result in the Death of Three Persons.

Two married women and a man were stabbed early today at Rogers and Erasmus avenues, Brooklyn, by a companion, who escaped. The man was killed and the women are probably mortally wounded in the Kings County Hospital.
