

KILLER SLAYER WILL SOON BE CAUGHT

Attorney Gibson, Who Attended to Legal Affairs of Slain Woman and Her Mother, Gives Police Valuable Clues.

CRIME NOT NECESSARILY DONE BY A STRONG MAN.

Lawyer Believes Mrs. Stenton Has Told All She Knows of Murder, and that Guilty Person Will Be in Jail by Monday.

On the eighth day after the brutal murder of Mrs. Alice Kinnan the mystery surrounding the identity of her assassin is no nearer solution than it was the morning succeeding the crime.

Burton W. Gibson, the lawyer who represented Mrs. Kinnan and her mother, Mrs. Stenton in the closing up of their affairs and the selling of the Stenton home, has worked unrelentingly on the case.

According to Mr. Gibson the person who killed Mrs. Kinnan was not necessarily a strong man. With a heavy weapon such as an axe or a hatchet the numerous fractures of the skull could have been inflicted by a person of poorly developed physique.

The autopsy showed that any of the blows was sufficient to render the victim powerless, so the first blow was effective in this respect and those following the influence of excitement or rage a weak person could have inflicted the injuries, according to Mr. Gibson.

Mrs. Stenton was in an angry mood to-day at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Miller, No. 241 Briggs avenue, to which she was removed by a combination of force and strategy from the Stenton house last night.

The old lady has told many stories, but there is no information in any of them.

"I have had very little rest for the past week," Mr. Gibson said to-day to a World reporter. "I have been assisting the police all day long, and I have not time to do all the work, so I have got others to assist me. I expect that something definite will be known one way or the other by Monday evening."

THE EVENING WORLD WILL PAY

$500 REWARD

For information which will lead to arrest and conviction of the person or persons who killed Mrs. ALICE KINNAN in her home at the old STENTON Mansion, at 189th St. and Washington Ave., in the Bronx. SUCH INFORMATION SHOULD BE SENT EITHER TO THE EVENING WORLD or to the Chief of the New York City Detective Bureau, Police Headquarters. If more than one person earns and claims the reward THE EVENING WORLD WILL PAY IT TO THE PERSON DESIGNATED BY THE COMMISSIONER OF POLICE.

TALLEST GIANT IS NOT ALLOWED TO LAND HERE

Sent to Ellis Island by Immigration Officials to Have Question of His Sanity Inquired Into.

Following an eventful voyage of twelve days from Hamburg to this port Peodor Machnow, the tallest giant in the world, was ordered from the steamship Pretoria to Ellis Island to-day for an examination as to his sanity.

Commissioner of Immigration Watchman decided to detain the human skyscraper as the result of an anonymous letter received from Newark-on-Tyne which said the man was not sound of mind and that he was being exhibited throughout the world for the profit of others.

Machnow was in an ugly mood when he learned of the decision of the authorities, and so was Morris Gost, who went to Europe to accompany the giant over.

"I never had so much trouble in all my life," declared Gost. "Machnow is the most obstinate man I ever met. When he reached the Pretoria at Hamburg, he suddenly decided he did not want to come to America, and it required forty longshoremen to get him aboard."

The first day of the voyage the giant complained of illness and said he could not eat much breakfast. However, he thought a little fruit might aid his appetite, and after devastating the dining table of fifteen oranges and eight bottles of lemonade he succeeded in surrounding five pounds of fish, fourteen eggs, three loaves of bread and about a gallon of tea.

Difficulty of finding a sleeping place for the giant was encountered. He was first placed in a double seawater bunk, but as this was not long enough he was put on the floor.

The passengers complained about the man's table manners, and after the first meal he was fed in a "gangway." He was not permitted to have all he wanted to eat, but with his returning appetite two waiters attended him at each meal until they got tired.

He was obtaining "fun" about the voyage and at times would do nothing until he felt like it.

SCHOOLBOYS IN ANNUAL GAMES

Youngsters Provide Fine Sport in Trials of Speed and Muscle.

(Special to The Evening World.) CELTIC PARK, N. Y., June 15.—The annual meet of the Public Schools Athletic League and the elementary schools was held at Celtic Park this afternoon. The bad weather was responsible for a small crowd.

The schoolboys were subdivided into four different weight classes, 50, 55, 110 and heavy weight classes. Comment on the reading of the young athletes was in evidence. A philosopher truly remarked "You can weigh more but no scientist can ever discover or invent a nerve and a half inch tall."

EDDY DIDN'T WANT TO BE ELIJAH, BUT DOWIE HAD TO

Fought Against Conviction Until Forced to Give In.

CHICAGO, June 16.—John Alexander Dowie, on the witness stand to-day before Judge Landis in the United States District Court in the Zion City controversy, was asked during cross-examination: "Are you Elijah the Restorer?"

"I have always been," "When did you first become conscious of the fact?"

"It gradually grew. I resented the revelation as it were, and for years was grieved and angry if any one suggested that I was Elijah. I am not a visionary man. The first time it came to my attention was in Melbourne, or Sydney, Australia, while at the head of a Bible society.

"One night I was asked to preach a sermon. I went to supper and ordered two meals, which I forgot to eat. I had been thinking over my subject and could not get beyond Elijah. I was thinking of his remarkable career and my supper got cold.

"One of my deacons told me I had a message from God. I laughed and said, 'You go away and let me alone! I said 'I want to tell you, you are Elijah.' He said that three times and walked away.

"I was much distressed, for he could not have known I had been thinking of Elijah for an hour. I spoke, and my last idea was that I was Elijah.

"But as God is my judge, the thought that I was the second embodiment never entered my head.

"After the sermon one member said to me, 'I feel like saying you are Elijah.' I said, 'I am not; don't get that idea in your homes.' For years I would not think of it, but in after years I had to come to it. They were all right. The first open revelation was that night."

A number of aliens were in attendance at court while Dowie was on the stand.

NAVAHOE AHEAD IN EMPEROR'S CUP

DOVER, England, June 16.—Six yachts started to-day in the annual Dover-Heligoland race for Emperor William's Cup. With a fair easterly breeze blowing the boats got off in the following order:

The American-built yawl Navahoe, owned by George W. Watjen of Bremen.

The British cutter Alisa, owned by Mrs. A. H. Lewis-Hill, of Southampton. The British-built schooner yacht Clara, owned by Max Von Guillaume, of Cologne.

The British schooner yacht Sunshina, owned by Arthur H. Solomon, of Glasgow.

The German yawl Armand, owned by C. A. Von Brocken and G. Zeebeck, of Travemunde.

The British yawl Betty, owned by Ian Hamilton Benn, of Cowes. The Navahoe allows the Alisa forty-five minutes, the Clara two hours and seven minutes, the Armand two hours and forty minutes, the Sunshina five hours and fifteen minutes and the Betty three hours and forty-five minutes.

PADRONES HOLD ITALIANS SLAVES

Immigrants and Laborers Are Practically Kidnapped into Bondage.

That Italian immigrants and other laborers sent to the South and West by New York padrones are the victims of cruel treatment and oppression is one of the statements made by License Commissioner John N. Bogert in the annual report on the work of his office which he submitted to-day to Mayor McEllison. In that portion of his report which deals with the business of the padrones, he says:

"The Italian immigrants are too generally victims of the padrone. The Italian immigrant looks with suspicion upon everybody but his countryman, and in him he puts a confidence almost incredible.

"The padrone has practically instituted the slave system among his countrymen. He hires the immigrants by the hundred, and sends them out of the city to work on contracts, and obtains from the employing corporation emissary privileges; he furnishes the workmen with food and lodging, deducting the cost from their wages.

"In Darkest Slavery. "As the padrone is the sole arbiter of the cost of necessities, it can be imagined how much the ignorant immigrant obtains as the net result of his labor. Care is usually taken, when he is sent a distance out of the city to work, perhaps in some malarial swamp or disease-ridden locality, that he never obtains enough money to pay his transportation back until the job is completed. Sometimes the location of the place is concealed from him.

"In recent cases it was shown that hundreds of Italian immigrants who believed they were going to Philadelphia or Pittsburg were really landed in the swamps of Florida and the wilds of North Carolina, where they were kept on railroad construction work under the surveillance of armed guards, until they became too sick to be of value, when they were turned loose to make their way back to New York as best they could."

Commissioner Bogert tells the Mayor that the immorality which existed on the east side in connection with the "leader" system as it was carried on in a certain class of employment agencies frequented by immigrant girls is now practically suppressed. His report says on this subject:

"There are still abuses in existence which careful watching will from time to time uncover. The unparalleled and growing immigration sends to this city thousands of untutored foreigners, upon whom the less scrupulous employment agencies prey with impunity. Girls, ignorant of the language of the country as well as of its laws, are looked upon as fair game by the employment agents.

"To deceive them is not a difficult task; to swindle them is easy enough, and to take their trunks if they have not a satisfactory amount of money, is sometimes a matter of course."

NEW MASSACRE OF JEWS; RUSSIAN RIOT SPREADING.

Attempts to continue the sittings indefinitely. In other words, they will try to seize the reins of power.

Dictatorship Threatened. If this crisis is reached a dictatorship will be proclaimed by the Government is inevitable. The Emperor must swear to abide by the Constitution as Louis XVI did or proclaim a dictatorship. The latter step is sure to be the precursor of a bloody revolution, which perhaps the former will only delay.

The House Gazette prints a special dispatch from Grodno declaring that the Governor of that city has expressed himself to the effect that there is no hope of stopping the butchery of Jews at Bialystok for two or three days.

He is quoted as adding that mobs are awaiting the trains passing through Bialystok and are dragging out and killing passengers. The Jews who escaped from Bialystok are wandering, starving in the fields or woods.

ODESSA, June 15.—The Jews at Kishineff are in a state of panic in view of reports that a Jewish massacre is threatened. They hastily closed and barricaded all their houses and stores and many fled to the city.

Messages from Yelisabetch and Kremenchug report that anti-Jewish excesses are also apprehended there. Instructions have been issued to the effect that all the infantry regiments and army reserve men in the Southern and Southwestern Provinces are to be temporarily placed on a "home war footing" in view of the possibility of the peasants rising against the nobles.

The Cossacks are to be mobilized into flying brigades. It is stated that similar instructions have been issued to the provincial commanders-in-chief in Central and Northern Russia.

BERLIN, June 15.—A P. M.—A dispatch to the Tageblatt from Bialystok dated Saturday, 2:40 P. M., says: "Pillaging and murdering continue. The garrison here and from several neighboring places is in possession of the city, which is on fire. Further blood is continually being shed. The situation is frightful. A few Jews through high positions have been allowed to escape."

WEATHER DELAYS LARCHMONT RACE

Forty Yachts Entered in Spring Regatta Remain Close to Breakwater.

LARCHMONT, N. Y., June 15.—Not an anchor was lifted nor sail hoisted on the big fleet of racing yachts in this harbor to-day. A stiff easterly wind, accompanied by a drizzling rain with little promise of moderating at any time made the prospect of starting on time for the forty yachts entered on the spring regatta of the Larchmont Yacht Club, extremely doubtful.

Whitecaps and there was an ugly squalling, which would make racing dangerous for some of the smaller craft.

Cornelius Vanderbilt's 75-footer Rainbow and her crew, owned by Harry Maxwell, were both at anchor in the harbor, but ready to race if the committee decided to start them. So also were the schooners Emirra and Corona, and the 65-footers Weston and Nevada, moored at the smaller craft were anchored under the lee of the breakwater. The committee announced that if the wind cleared the race would be started.

FISH BONE KILLED HER. Mrs. Adeline Timmer, of No. 18 West One Hundred and Eighteenth street, felt a pain in her abdomen after eating fish last Friday. She was removed to Mount Sinai Hospital, where an operation disclosed that she had swallowed a fish bone, which had pierced her intestines. She died this afternoon.
