

MRS. CARTER IS ON THE OUTS WITH DAVID BELASCO

Manager Is Likely to Drop Her as His Favorite Star.

HER SON STILL DENIES.

Insists That He Is Not Engaged to Norma Munroe, His Mother's Friend.

Indications point to a break between Mrs. Leslie Carter and her manager, David Belasco...

Business as well as personal considerations may be back of the break between the manager and the star whose successes have been so closely interwoven.

Now that her name is legally Mrs. William L. Payne she cannot put up the same defenses.

Friends Admit Break.

That there has been a serious break between Mrs. Carter and Mr. Belasco is admitted by friends of both.

Miss Norma Munroe, who is the daughter of Mrs. Carter's mother, is said to be engaged to Mr. Belasco.

HELD FOR SAVING CHILD FROM DOG

Michael Masso Hurling Snapping Mongrel Out of a Window.

COURT SAYS HE WAS JUSTIFIED, BUT LAW COMPELLED HIM TO FIX BAIL.

Because he acted promptly in saving his daughter from a small dog named Masso, Michael Masso was today held in $500 bail for trial.

The dog, according to Masso, came in through a window after it had seen the hand of Mary Masso, the prisoner's fourteen-year-old daughter.

The complaint was made by Charles Matthews, a real estate man of Bronxwood Park, Williamsbridge, Matthews testified today that he was sitting on his front porch last evening with some of his friends.

GRAND DUKE'S TRAIN WRECKED BY TERRORISTS

Vladimir, Warned of Death, Escapes Plotters' Attempt in Prussia.

TIES HEAPED ON TRACKS

Travelled Ordinary to Dodge Would-Be Assassins, but His Plans Known.

TRIER, Prussia, July 17.—Grand Duke Vladimir of Russia, after a month at Homburg, returned to Paris last night by way of Trier and Coblenz.

The Grand Duke took an ordinary train from here instead of the express, which left later.

Little damage was done, however, as a track walker found the obstruction just in time to signal the express, which was unable to stop before it struck the obstructing pile.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 17.—The daily budget of revolutionary outrages was again increased today.

At Natchatkin, in Amursk Province, the town hall was set on fire yesterday and the entire village, consisting of 200 houses, was consumed.

Throughout Poland systematic pillaging of the government spirit shops is in progress.

At Lublin, Russia, Poland, revolutionists yesterday executed a workman who was suspected of being a spy.

At Nihil Novgorod and Tashky the cashiers of the spirit monopoly were robbed and killed.

At Tiflis an Armenian locomotive engineer was shot in his cab by an assassin concealed in the neighborhood.

At Pilsnorsk a Tartar woman who was baptised in the Orthodox church was murdered, and at Yaroslavl bombs were exploded at the residence of the chief of police and an officer of the gendarmerie.

Texas Authoress Who Broke Her Leg Skating.

Miss Elizabeth Uwona Dodge

AUTHORESS BROKE HER LEG ON SKATES

Miss Dodge, of Texas, Accomplished in Many Ways, but Not on Rollers.

MISHAP IN THE GARDEN. Is a Cousin of Mary Anderson Navarro and Is Writing a Play About New York.

Miss Elizabeth Uwona Dodge, a playwright and authoress of San Antonio, Tex., will be confined to her apartments at the Hamilton Hotel on East Twenty-third Street for several weeks as a result of a peculiar accident at the Madison Square skating rink yesterday.

Miss Dodge, who has been in New York for several months studying its social and political life with a view to writing a play, was enjoying the floor of the rink alone after the crowd had left, as she is learning to skate.

As she slipped, her right foot became loose and as she attempted to adjust it, the weight of her body broke the large toe in her left leg above the ankle.

Miss Dodge expected to go to Chicago the latter part of the week to have done the production of her play, "Alamo," which is to be put on there.

Down in Texas she invented a contrivance for breaking horses which is in general use on the ranches.

Miss Dodge says she is also a great friend of George Washington.

WIFE VICTIM OF DOUBLE BUNCO

Hungry and Exhausted, She Walked Miles with Baby After Swindle.

HUSBAND THE MARK. Tailor Fell Into Wiretappers' Hands and Told Woman of a "Cloth" Game.

Hungry and exhausted, a pretty young Austrian woman, staggering under the weight of a young baby, called at Police Headquarters today with a tale of robbery and poverty.

"My husband keeps a little tailor shop at No. 21 West One Hundredth street," Mrs. Pauline Glass told the police.

"I was hard to get along, but we saved all we could. Last Wednesday a man wearing a gray coat and vest and blue trousers came to the store and gave to my husband."

"The next day the man came back with a new serge coat and vest. He would get the cloth."

"My husband went down. He saw many men at desks and some rolls of cloth. But he would not buy."

"I said go and buy quick. It is a bargain. I have $300 in the bank and your brother Morris has $500 more in my name in the bank. I will take it all out. I did not tell Morris, for he was going to marry Tulla Zimmerman on Saturday."

"My husband went back to Forty-fourth street and on every desk he saw money. He never saw so much money before. He gave the man the money and was to get the cloth at 1 o'clock."

"Yes, he told me. He is honest in bed. He has been very sick ever since," said Mrs. Glass.

"I should think so," said Clay. "Do you know that your husband didn't lose his money in a cloth deal, but in a wire tapping game? He played the race."

Detective Clay visited the West Forty-fourth street house. It was a furnished room place. The landlady said she had rented the lower floor to some literary gentlemen, who left town hurriedly.

Baron de Hirsch Society, at No. 6 Broadway, said she was absolutely convinced that her brother-in-law, Morris Glass, was not very well. His marriage has been postponed indefinitely.

BROKER SUICIDE ON VESSEL OF NAVAL RESERVE

Rufus Sherwood Case Shoots Himself in His Bunk.

WAS ILL WITH GASTRITIS

Lived on Ship and Was Rated as Boatswain's Mate in State's Sea Service.

The army of acute gastritis is believed to have been the cause for the suicide of Rufus Sherwood Case in his bunk on the Naval Reserve's ship Grandt River today.

Case was thirty-eight years old and an insurance broker at No. 75 William street, but for the past five years he had lived on the ship, where he ranked as "bo'sun's mate."

Case was found in his berth early today, dead, with a bullet hole in his right temple and a revolver clutched in his hand.

Case was ill last night and was attended by Dr. Henry Forbes, the ship's surgeon. Dr. Forbes knew of his affliction, and said today that his latest attack of gastritis was extremely painful.
