WOMEN IN PANIC RESCUED BY HEROIC FIREMEN AT FERCE BLAZE IN HARLEM

Where the Battles Rage for the Control of the Primaries.

Shoppers in the Uptown District Startled by Rush of Engines, Watch Narrow Escape from Death of Many of Their Fellows.

WARNED IN TIME, BUT HELD ON TOO LONG.

Patient in a Dental Parlor Left Half Her Teeth Behind—Child Suffering from Meningitis Taken Safely Across an Airshaft to a Place of Security.

A two-alarm fire in the basement of Kaufmann's hat store, No. 260 West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, in the heart of Harlem, late to-day was accompanied by numerous rescues of women who remained in danger after being warned in time.

The fire was discovered about 4 o'clock, when an excited man rushed into the Pabst place shouting: "That guinea did it." The alarm was immediately followed by a volume of smoke bursting up from the basement.

Above the hat store is the Park Paintless Dental Parlor, run by Mrs. Gallagher and her daughter. There were several women patients being attended at the time the fire was discovered.

When the women employees and patrons of the dental parlor and other stores heard of the fire they hurried to the place. By the time Truck 14 came racing up from East One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street the front windows of those places were filled with women screaming loudly that they would jump to the street.

GIRL'S DEATH A MYSTERY FOR BUFFALO POLICE

Miss Edith Pinner, of Hoboken, Named, but Statements Conflict.

BUFFALO, Sept. 13.—Superintendent of Police Regan is investigating the death of Miss Edith Pinner in the hospital of Dr. W. W. Turner at No. 101 Niagara street. The body is said to have been shipped to Hoboken on Sunday night. The certificate stated that the young woman died of childbirth.

From further statements that the police are investigating, it appears that the young woman was well connected. A local undertaker embalmed the body on a death certificate signed by Dr. Turner in which the cause of death was given as above.

Supt. Regan has wired the Chief of Police of Hoboken to trace the body to the burial place and to examine it in order to learn if foul play was committed. He has also wired for information concerning Miss Pinner and a Miss Knight.

The latter name was found in letters and the addresses on envelopes found in a trunk at Dr. Turner's hospital. It is the theory of the police that Miss Pinner and Miss Knight are the same.

Dr. Gram, Registrar of Vital Statistics, states that he granted an application on Saturday night for the burial of the body of Miss Pinner.

Doctor Under Arrest. Dr. Turner is being held at Police Headquarters on an open charge. The police, when they were looking for a woman or a woman's body upon whom an operation is alleged to have been performed.

Bedding and several packages of absorbent cotton soaked with blood, said to have been found as the result of an investigation entered upon by the police to learn the cause of a disturbance in the doctor's house early yesterday morning, when a number of windows were broken, and furniture overturned. The police also have an employee of a private hospital conducted by the doctor, whom they are holding as a witness, and another woman is under surveillance.

CUBAN REBELS IN RAID ON AMERICANS

While United States Warships Are Anchored Off the Island Ready for Fight, Insurgents Make Seizures in Santa Clara Province.

CIENFUEGOS, Cuba, Sept. 13.—Rebels are seizing American property at Manicaragua, Santa Clara Province. After destroying the bridge on the line of the Cuban Central, near Las Lajas, the insurgents have captured a train, burned a railroad station and destroyed the telegraph instruments.

At Cruces they have raided the municipal treasury and seized all the cash in the vaults.

HAVANA, Sept. 13.—The rebellion looms stronger to-day than ever. All the smaller towns in Santa Clara Province appear to be absolutely in the control of the insurgents. Cienfuegos is in a state of alarm. Railroad, river and steamboat communication has been stopped. The rebels outside of Cienfuegos continue to receive reinforcements.

Things are more normal at Santa Clara City. Trains over the lines of the United Companies are running without interruption, except occasional hold-ups. Both Santa Clara and Cienfuegos are prepared to resist invasion, but the number of rebels before these cities is vastly superior to the Government forces.

Marching on Havana. Reports that the force under Pino Guerra is marching toward Havana, coupled with the very much increased concentration of rebels outside the city, is causing uneasiness here. Deposits in the banks are extremely heavy, but money is tight. All the troops which can possibly be spared from duty in Havana Province are being brought into the city proper.

Depredations along the lines of the Western and Cuban Central Railroads continue. Trains on other lines are not molested, other than to be fired upon by small bands of rebels.

Feliciano Prieto, who has the reputation of being a strike leader, has been arrested. There is reason to believe that the Liberals attempted to complicate matters by causing a strike in Havana. Their efforts, however, were futile.

The steamer Maria Herrera, with arms and ammunition aboard for the Government, arrived here from New York without incident. The Government's supplies of arms and ammunition are fairly plentiful, but there is little doing in the way of enlistments.

Strike To Help Rebels. According to the best information to be obtained the rebel force under Pino Guerra is moving to the eastward along the southern edge of the Pinar del Rio Mountains, and other bands, which constantly receive additions from the localities through which they pass, are committing depredations along the line of the railroad. All indications point to the concentration outside of Havana city of the rebel forces in Pinar del Rio and Havana provinces.

It was persistently rumored to-day that the managers of the insurance companies are seeking to foment a general strike in Havana, and that an entrance to the city will be attempted coincident with the outbreak of internal disorders. This

SHE PROMISES NOT TO KILL FOR A WEEK

Mrs. Paul Had Sworn to Shoot Husband and Her Rival.

Vowing she would kill her husband and another woman of whom he is fond, Mrs. Nellie Paul, a woman of refinement and education, was in the West Side Court to-day on complaint of her husband, William, who asked that she be put under bonds to keep the peace.

Paul, a milliner dealer at No. 234 Broadway, told Magistrate Wahl that he and his wife had signed an agreement to live apart and that in consideration of $10 a week she had promised not to molest him, not to visit places where business might call him or in any manner to interfere with him in his daily pursuits.

But she saw him walking through Eighty-third street last week with another woman. She pulled a big horse whip from the folds of her dress and attacked his companion, showing how after blow upon her head and tearing her clothes. She then tried to get at him, but he ran away.

"I Mean to Kill Them." When the Magistrate asked Mrs. Paul, who said she lived at No. 174 East Ninety-sixth street, if the charges were true, she said they were.

"And you intend to carry out your threat to murder them?" Magistrate Wahl was apparently interested in the woman's story, and asked a clerk to show her into his private chambers. He finished his work at the bench and then, calling the husband into one private room, the three had a long talk.

Mrs. Paul, the Magistrate finally said, "you will do yourself the greater harm by killing these people. It would be a shame on society to have you send you to prison. If I were you I would simply look at the matter in a more womanly light and let it pass from my memory."

Mrs. Paul meditated a few moments and then said: "I will agree not to molest them for a week." This was not satisfactory to the husband, but the Magistrate said: "I will parole you then until Sept. 20. Now go home, think the matter over and come back then and tell me you have changed your mind."

Will Not Seek Divorce. When seen at her home later Mrs. Paul said she had not decided as to her ultimate course on her husband or the woman.

"Do you think he could be elected if he were nominated?" Mrs. Paul said that for years after her husband she enjoyed an income from his business, but when he was elected she was forced to leave him. "I would never live with him again," she said. "He always made an excellent salary when he worked," she went on, "but would never live with him means. I and he appreciated it as long as I had money. The very minute it gave out, though, he became a changed man and seldom even saw me. I offered to take him back, but my son said if his father returned to the house he would leave."

HIGHLANDERS BEGIN THE LAST SWING 'ROUND

Open at Washington in Final Heat for Pennant.

New York. Conroy, H. Keeler, F. Elberfeld, M. Williams, J. Laporte, J. Hoffman, G. Chesbro, p.

Washington. Schaffly, J. Jones, G. Hickman, R. L. Cross, E. Williams, J. Laporte, A. Altizer, A. Schalk, J. Hughes, p.

Special to The Evening World. BAIL GROUNDS, WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—The Highlanders arrived here to-day to begin their final swing around for the American League championship. They are the largest party of ball players that ever took a long trip, registering twenty-eight at the Arlington, including five newspaper men and the mascot, Little Willie Newsome.

Charges are made here that the Washington Club throws games to the New Yorkers so as to bring the pennant series to a finish.

Outside of Deitchman and Kleinow the New York Club is in excellent condition. The former is suffering from malaria, while the star catcher of the Highlanders has a "chamber horn" and is unable to go very strong on the run. The Highlanders are out to win every game on this trip.

First Inning. Conroy smashed to Falkenberg and was thrown out. Keeler struck out for the fourth time this season. Elberfeld beat his slow hit. Elberfeld out, stealing second. NO RUNS.

Williams threw out Altizer. Schalk singled, but Jones forced at second. Cross thrown out by Laporte. NO RUNS.

Second Inning. Altizer threw out Chase. Williams out on strikes. Laporte ditto. NO RUNS.

Hickman failed to find the ball, but the third strike got by Kleinow, and he reached first. Anderson's drive to Elberfeld forced Hickman at second. Stahl singled and Anderson went to third. Warner singled, and Anderson scored. Falkenberg struck out. Laporte threw out Altizer. ONE RUN.

FLIGHT STAKE PROVES GIFT TO FLEET ROSEBEN

SECOND RACE—Cottontown (1 to 2), 1, Fish Hawk (9 to 10 for place), 2, Water Grass 3.

THIRD RACE—Jennie McCabe (15 to 1), Our Sister (6 to 6 for place), 2, Sonoma Belle 3.

FOURTH RACE—Roseben (1 to 2), 1, Sanfara (even for place), 2, Deutschland 3.

FIFTH RACE—Phantom (6 to 5), 1, Pete Daley (12 to 1 for place), 2, Callie 3.

SIXTH RACE—Knight of Ivanhoe (12 to 1), 1, James Crawford (8 to 5 for place), 2, Gild 3.

SEVENTH RACE—Outcome (1 to 2), 1, Orly (3 to 1 for place), 2, Entree 3.

BY FRANK W. THORP. SHEEPSHEAD BAY RACE TRACK. Sept. 13.—Roseben won the Flight Stake at Sheepshead to-day, galloping home to such leisurely fashion as to indicate that he could have gone much farther. The race was a procession all the way, Roseben leading, Sanfara second and Deutschland third. Prince Hamburg ran a bad race.

ODELL AGAIN TAKES UP HUGHES FOR GOVERNOR

Speaks Well of Root and Wilcox, but Gives Higgins Another Slap.

Former Governor Odell said enough to an Evening World reporter to-day to show that he has tinkered up a working agreement with Senator Platt and that he is again putting forward Hughes in a tentative, timid sort of fashion for the Republican nomination for Governor.

"After the primaries next Wednesday I will make a formal statement of my position," said the head of the State machine, "but until then I expect to say very little."

"What do you think of the proposition to make Elihu Root the candidate for Governor?" asked the reporter.

"Well, Mr. Root is a splendid man. He would make a good Governor and a good President. Two years ago I was for him for the Governorship. Had he been elected then and re-elected this year. But two years ago is not now. There has been a change in the situation."

"What of Postmaster Wilcox, who has been mentioned?" "He is an excellent man. I would heartily support him if he were nominated."

"Speaking of behemoths and other things pertaining to natural history, how about Gov. Higgins?" "Oh, Higgins is an impossibility, as I have said before," replied Gov. Odell, emphatically.
