PALMA READY TO QUIT, THAW MOVES FOR REBELS WEAKENING A SPEEDY TRIAL

Cuban Insurgents Repeat Offer to Lay Down Their Arms if Uncle Sam Will Guarantee Them Fair Treatment.

ALL FIGHTING STOPPED PENDING NEGOTIATIONS.

President Roosevelt and Members of His Cabinet in Conference To-Day Over the Situation at His Home in Oyster Bay.

HAVANA, Sept. 14.

Rumors to the effect that President Palma purposes to resign continue to be circulated. They are given some color by the fact that Gen. Rafael Montalvo, Secretary of Public Works, does not approve of the landing of the American sailors from the Denver and the fact that the American officers talked with messengers from Alfredo Zayas.

Gen. Montalvo declines to speak of the situation, and the rumor of the President's resignation cannot be confirmed in Government quarters.

The extraordinary persistence of Alfredo Zayar, President of the Liberty Party, and Gen. Del Costillo, commander of the insurgent forces in Havana Province, in their desire to surrender to the American naval commander was shown again to-day when an automobile containing Felipe Romero, a prominent and wealthy resident of Havana, and a Cuban companion, invaded the scene of a bustle incident to the re-embarkation of the bluejackets to the Denver.

Senor Romero came officially to present the compliments of the insurgent commanders outside of Havana, and to announce that they were ready to march in and surrender this afternoon on board the Denver to the commander of the cruiser on the conditions named last night—namely, that the United States guarantee them fair judicial trials. Commander Colwell replied that he was entirely precluded from intermeddling in the matter, but he went to the palace and reported the occurrence to President Palma, and suggested again that he would be glad to act if the Washington Government so ordered, but not otherwise.

President Palma accordingly communicated this new offer to Washington. The two emissaries then started on their return trip to report the failure, thus far, of their mission.

The officers and men of the Denver who were on shore last night regret their return to the ship. They are ill-tempered to discuss what they term the drawing of "fine lines of distinction" in the matter of the landing. They hold that they were sent on shore purely for the protection of American interests and incidentally to exert a quieting influence on the situation with that end in view.

Mr. Sleeper, the American Charge d'Affaires, has received a cablegram from the State Department at Washington directing him to request the withdrawal of the Denver sailors. This he did in a note to Commander Colwell at 9:30 o'clock. Commander Colwell landed and after calling at the legation went to the palace, where he conferred with President Palma. As a result the IMPORTANT NOTICE.

THE recent rush of advertisements to The World has so far exceeded all experience or expectations that The World is compelled, in justice to its readers, to fix a limit both as to time and space.

Two Rules Taking Effect Immediately:

- 1. Advertisements received at the main office of The World after 10 o'clock P. M. will be accepted only upon condition that their insertion in the next issue of The World is not guaranteed. 2. After 110 columns of advertisements have been received for publication in any week-day issue of The World—which limit has been twice exceeded in the past week—no more advertisements will be received except upon the understanding that they may be held over one day if necessary.

The World—printing as it does a larger edition than any other morning newspaper in the world—cannot print the news or be issued promptly on time, with the present wholly unprecedented volume of advertising, without enforcing the foregoing rules.

COMMANDER COLWELL'S REPORT OF THE LANDING OF U. S. SAILORS IN THREATENED CITY OF HAVANA

"I have landed a force, after consultation with those best advised as to the situation, and especially on the request of President Palma himself, who informed Mr. Steeper and myself that he gravely doubted the ability of the Cuban Government to protect American property and persons. "Force encamped in Plaza de Armas, which is best strategic point and commands two principal business streets of Havana. Am in readiness and in best position to protect American business and interests. Have offered asylum on board the Denver to all Americans."

HIGHWAYMAN MAKES BIG HAUL ON EAST SIDE

Follow Man From Bank and Rob Him—Two Arrested.

Two young fellows were caught late this afternoon, immediately following the boldest daylight highway robbery the east side has known in recent years. A third man escaped with a roll of $120, which the victim, Louis Schmeeman, of No. 104 Second avenue, had just drawn from a bank to pay his employees. The robbery occurred in the hallway of the big double-decked tenement at No. 121 Chrystie street. This is in the heart of a tenement district, and hundreds of persons gathered during the assault and robbery, but the thugs continued unafraid until the arrival of the police. Schmeeman had been to the bank for his pay-roll and the police believe he was seen drawing out the money and being hurried through Chrystie street he was seized from behind and pushed into the open door of the hallway at No. 121 by the three men. He was choked and beaten into insensibility. One of the men seized the money and ran. The attack attracted a crowd of women and children whose cries brought men to the scene. Three policemen—Sawitz, Groszki and Quinan—came running up. As they arrived two men started out of the hallway and the policeman grabbed them. The man who had taken the money had escaped and Schmeeman was insensible in the hallway. The policemen carried him upstairs to the office of Dr. Gutman where, after fifteen minutes he was revived. His left arm had been broken during the fight. The two men captured gave their names as Joseph Arnold, nineteen years, of No. 226 Chrystie street, and Tony Botch, seventeen years old, of No. 137 Chrystie street.

SHEEPSHEAD BAY RACE TRACK.

Sept. 14.—Proper won the Omnium Handicap in surprising style at Sheepshead Bay this afternoon. Usually a slow beginner and coming from behind, he went to the front, made all the favorite and won easily. Neva Lee, running and won easily. Neva Lee, through incompetent handling. Good Luck showed surprising improvement and ran a corking good race. Proper was well backed and there was a plunge on Coy Maid, who, however, was never prominent.

Counsel Asks that Case Be Transferred from the Docket of Special Sessions to the Criminal Branch of the Supreme Court.

HARTRIDGE OBJECTS TO JEROME'S POSTPONEMENTS

John H. Iselin, of Iselin & Gans, Former Assistant District-Attorney, One of the Latest Recruits to Prisoner's Counsel.

Clifford W. Hartridge, chief counsel for Harry K. Thaw, charged with the murder of Stanford White on the roof of Madison Square Garden, served notice this afternoon on Assistant District-Attorney Garvan that on Sept. 24 he would apply to the Justice sitting in Part I. of the Supreme Court to have the trial of Thaw taken from the docket of the Court of General Sessions and transferred to the Criminal Branch of the Supreme Court for an immediate trial.

In serving this notice Mr. Hartridge accompanied it with an affidavit by himself and one by his associate counsel, John B. Gleason. In his affidavit Mr. Hartridge says that "because of the great notoriety given to the case it is desirable to try it forthwith and before a learned Justice." District-Attorney Jerome informed him that the docket of the Court of General Sessions was so crowded that the Thaw case could not be reached until the middle of November.

In the first place, they are his counsel in a criminal libel suit he has instituted against William Randolph Hearst for $50,000. Mr. Iselin is also the District Attorney's counsel in the proceedings against Justice Deuel and appeared in that capacity at the hearing before Referee Stover yesterday. Mr. Gans acted as treasurer of the Hearst campaign fund in both his campaigns. Mr. Iselin and Mr. Gans retired from the District At-
