

HEADLESS BOB IN MURDER CASE IS NOT MANO'S

Relatives Assert Supposed Victim Is Alive in California.

Two Greek Enemies of Mano, Held on Suspicion, Set Free To-Day.

The only clue on which the police were depending to solve the mystery of the headless and dismembered body of a man found at Thirty-sixth street and Eleventh avenue Sunday was shattered today when Assistant District Attorney Cardozo and Inspector McLaughlin received what they said was reliable information that John Mano was alive.

Mano in California.

Mr. Cardozo said to-day that Mano's uncle had assured him that Mano was alive in Los Angeles, Cal., where he had learned he would be prosecuted for selling a mortgaged candy store to two Greeks.

Failure to find the missing head of the butchered man has left the police without the most important clue, for they do not believe the dead man can be identified positively without it.

James Goddard, manager for Z. K. Banno, whose name was stamped on the gunnysack, is trying to trace to whom the bag was sold.

The police to-day started work on a new tack. Assuming that the burlap in which part of the body was wrapped is such as is used by upholsterers and paperhangers, they began a canvass of all such shops in the vicinity of the murder.

The police to-day started work on a new tack. Assuming that the burlap in which part of the body was wrapped is such as is used by upholsterers and paperhangers, they began a canvass of all such shops in the vicinity of the murder.

The police to-day started work on a new tack. Assuming that the burlap in which part of the body was wrapped is such as is used by upholsterers and paperhangers, they began a canvass of all such shops in the vicinity of the murder.

The police to-day started work on a new tack. Assuming that the burlap in which part of the body was wrapped is such as is used by upholsterers and paperhangers, they began a canvass of all such shops in the vicinity of the murder.

The police to-day started work on a new tack. Assuming that the burlap in which part of the body was wrapped is such as is used by upholsterers and paperhangers, they began a canvass of all such shops in the vicinity of the murder.

The police to-day started work on a new tack. Assuming that the burlap in which part of the body was wrapped is such as is used by upholsterers and paperhangers, they began a canvass of all such shops in the vicinity of the murder.

The police to-day started work on a new tack. Assuming that the burlap in which part of the body was wrapped is such as is used by upholsterers and paperhangers, they began a canvass of all such shops in the vicinity of the murder.

The police to-day started work on a new tack. Assuming that the burlap in which part of the body was wrapped is such as is used by upholsterers and paperhangers, they began a canvass of all such shops in the vicinity of the murder.

The police to-day started work on a new tack. Assuming that the burlap in which part of the body was wrapped is such as is used by upholsterers and paperhangers, they began a canvass of all such shops in the vicinity of the murder.

The police to-day started work on a new tack. Assuming that the burlap in which part of the body was wrapped is such as is used by upholsterers and paperhangers, they began a canvass of all such shops in the vicinity of the murder.

The police to-day started work on a new tack. Assuming that the burlap in which part of the body was wrapped is such as is used by upholsterers and paperhangers, they began a canvass of all such shops in the vicinity of the murder.

The police to-day started work on a new tack. Assuming that the burlap in which part of the body was wrapped is such as is used by upholsterers and paperhangers, they began a canvass of all such shops in the vicinity of the murder.

The police to-day started work on a new tack. Assuming that the burlap in which part of the body was wrapped is such as is used by upholsterers and paperhangers, they began a canvass of all such shops in the vicinity of the murder.

The police to-day started work on a new tack. Assuming that the burlap in which part of the body was wrapped is such as is used by upholsterers and paperhangers, they began a canvass of all such shops in the vicinity of the murder.

"I CAPTURED MY EIGHT HUSBANDS BY RESORTING TO BATTERY OF EVERY SORT."

Much Married Woman Gives Recipe for Landing Wooers.

Taffy Is Essential. Just Tell the Men Things You Don't Mean, but the Scheme Works.

By Nicola Greeley-Smith. Mrs. Mary J. Wakeman-Saunders-Powers-Godfrey-Lindley-Crowther has married again. At thirty-nine she has just added two more stories to her skyscraper name by taking unto herself an eighth husband, and Americanized Englishman named Le Page.

Sorrow for Gay.

William Gay, a hotel keeper, was No. 5, and he, according to court testimony, was all that his name implied; so once again the woman in search of the perfect husband was free.

John Lindley, manager of a hotel, was No. 4. He, too, was none too domestic, and the courts once more liberated the woman in the case. No. 7 at that time was in waiting. He was Thomas Crowther, a saloonkeeper, of "Hell's Kitchen."

Mr. Le Page, the present incumbent, is No. 8. The average woman finds out what her husband is going to be by counting the buttons on her gown, back or front, as fashion happens to place them.

"Rich man, poor man, beggar-man, thief, doctor, lawyer, merchant, chief," she murmurs, only hoping to get one of the seven. But Mrs. Wakeman-

HOW ONE WOMAN WON 8 HUSBANDS.

Mrs. Mary Le Page, who has just taken unto herself husband No. 8, five being dead and two divorced, gives the recipe for capturing hearts in the following words:

"A woman must make herself necessary to a man. She must contribute to his comfort, material and mental. She must be solicitous of him, and she needn't hide it, either. She must always be on the lookout for his advancement. She must be a helpmeet in every sense of the word. If she helps him before marriage, it is a promise that she will help him after. I wooed by battery of every sort. I have found that from a woman of thirty a man can stand any amount of it. All she must be careful about is to make it seem sincere."

Saunders-Powers-Godfrey-Lindley-Crowther, Jr., has had one more husband than the rhyme allows for. But, although she is a button shy in this respect, the most careful survey of her philosophy of marriage as outlined by her for publication, shows that she is a man-angler of unusual sagacity and skill.

She Made the Recipe. "At thirty-three I decided a woman must make herself necessary to a man. She must contribute to his comfort, material and mental. She must be solicitous of him, and she needn't hide it from him, either. She must always be on the lookout for his advancement. She must be a helpmeet in every sense of the word. If she helps him before marriage it is a promise that she will help him after."

"At thirty-one I decided to do the wooing, and I did it so well that I had the pleasure of leading Thomas Crowther to the altar in short order. I had wooed him by battery of every sort, and I have found that from a woman of thirty a man can stand any amount of it. All that she must be careful about is to make it seem sincere."

"How does she do it?" he said at the time of their cross suits for divorce. "Well, I don't know, and I don't believe any of the other six could have told. She has a sweet and fascinating way with her before she's not tied, but afterward, oh my! She's anything but sweet and fascinating then."

"It may be she's a hypnotist, or just possessed of the devil, but anyway she's a winner. I'm her seventh husband, and I've no doubt she will get seven more. Two of 'em are dead, poor fellows—she was too much for them—and four are divorced."

The only hypnotic passes she ever made, at the time she was married, were made with beer glasses, and she nearly ripped my nose off once that was just waiting for the divorce from No. 6 to marry her. But six months is enough for me, and—mose, too."

MANY ENTRIES IN FAMILY BIBLE.

These were the eight husbands of the present Mrs. Mary J. Le Page: 1—Edward Wakeman, Danbury, Conn.; marriage annulled by girl's parents.

2—Henry Saunders, wealthy New York contractor, died.

3—Joseph Powers, railroad engineer; killed by train.

4—John Godfrey, wholesale grocer, Jersey City; divorced.

5—William Gay, hotel proprietor, Bridgeport, Conn.; divorced.

6—James H. Lindley, boarding-house keeper; divorced.

7—Thomas Crowther, Hell's Kitchen saloon-keeper; divorced.

8—William Le Page, wealthy Essex husband.

It will be seen that Mrs. Wakeman-Saunders-Powers-Godfrey-Lindley-Crowther-Le Page is in perfect accord with Isaac Walton's prescription for fish-baiting: "Put your bait through a worm's mouth and out at his gills, and in so doing use him as though you loved him."

"Use him as though you loved him," is her motto. Consequently, it is a worm in the bait, must feed on other damsels, cheeks than hers, which she considers may be used more efficaciously by judicious placing on the shoulder of the husband-to-be. And judged by results, the much-hypnotized lady must be right.

Men marry the women who make love to them much more freely than the women they love. The former class is composed of women who have either been seduced or kidnapped into matrimony, or who have been seduced on the head with a club, and when she comes to be married.

The Taffy Route. But the more subtle man-angler lures him along the matrimonial route. He does not use force, but rather the soft power of taffy.

But the more subtle man-angler lures him along the matrimonial route. He does not use force, but rather the soft power of taffy.

But the more subtle man-angler lures him along the matrimonial route. He does not use force, but rather the soft power of taffy.

But the more subtle man-angler lures him along the matrimonial route. He does not use force, but rather the soft power of taffy.

But the more subtle man-angler lures him along the matrimonial route. He does not use force, but rather the soft power of taffy.

But the more subtle man-angler lures him along the matrimonial route. He does not use force, but rather the soft power of taffy.

But the more subtle man-angler lures him along the matrimonial route. He does not use force, but rather the soft power of taffy.

But the more subtle man-angler lures him along the matrimonial route. He does not use force, but rather the soft power of taffy.

But the more subtle man-angler lures him along the matrimonial route. He does not use force, but rather the soft power of taffy.

But the more subtle man-angler lures him along the matrimonial route. He does not use force, but rather the soft power of taffy.

But the more subtle man-angler lures him along the matrimonial route. He does not use force, but rather the soft power of taffy.

But the more subtle man-angler lures him along the matrimonial route. He does not use force, but rather the soft power of taffy.

STENSLAND IS RUSHED TO TRIAL AND SENTENCED

Bank Wrecker Railroaded to Jail Few Hours after Arrival in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—Within a few hours after Paul O. Stensland, fugitive President and member of the Milwaukee Avenue State Bank, had arrived in Chicago to-day, he was a convicted criminal and on his way to serve a long term in the State Prison at Joliet. To-night he will be wearing the stripes of a convict.

Stensland reached this city on the Twentieth Century Limited train from New York at 8:30 A. M. in custody, was rushed direct to the Criminal Court Building, where he was given a private examination by the State Attorney. Next he was hurried to the Criminal Court, where he pleaded guilty to embezzlement and was immediately sentenced to an indeterminate period in prison.

Later in the day Stensland appeared before Judge Keeton, in the Criminal Court, pleaded guilty to charges of forgery and embezzlement.

Just as Stensland uttered the word "guilty" a flash-photograph was taken of the scene in the court-room. Stensland was greatly agitated and taking a weak, unsteady gait, he fell on the floor of the court.

Judge Keeton sentenced him to an indeterminate period in Joliet penitentiary.

Stensland left the train under heavy guard of police detectives. Many persons were awaiting the arrival of the train but their hopes of catching a sight of Stensland were dashed by the police. The party left the Lake Shore station at the rear of the train shed, where carriages were waiting, and drove rapidly to the Criminal Court building.

Three carriages conveyed the party. In the first being Assistant State Attorney Glenn D. Tabor, and in the second being the State Attorney, who was accompanied by a number of stenographers.

The carriages were closed and those inside remained in their seats until a number of policemen had been ordered to surround the carriages and to enter the penitentiary.

Stensland was accompanied by a number of stenographers, who were summoned and the examination of the documents and notes which were found on Stensland's person at the time of his capture in Tangier was then begun by representatives of the State.

Theodore Stensland, who accompanied his father to Chicago, did not go with the party to the Criminal Court, but went directly home.

The subject of the conference in the State Attorney's office was not definitely known, but the impression prevailed that Stensland was inclined to plead guilty to some of the counts, and the indictments found against him in order to commence service as soon as possible in the penitentiary.

CONDENSED NEWS

FOUR-YEAR-OLD BOY KILLS HIS BROTHER. CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—Angered because his brother Henry, two years his senior, refused to share a penny's worth of candy with him, Fred Parker, aged four, hurled a large stone at the former, striking him in the right temple and inflicting injuries from which he died last night.

FEDERAL JUDGE THREATENED WITH BLINDNESS. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—Judge W. W. Morrow, of the United States Circuit Court, has been ordered by his physicians to refrain from all work and wear dark glasses for the next three or four months, under the penalty of rebel conspiracy in Ecuador.

REBEL CONSPIRACY IN ECUADOR. GUAYAQUIL, Ecuador, Sept. 25.—The Government has discovered a conspiracy to overthrow President Alfaro and proclaim Miguel Seminario President. It is reported that the rebels have captured the city of Guaranda, but this is officially denied.

YANKEE CRUISERS AT NAPLES. NAPLES, Sept. 25.—Rear-Admiral Brownson, commander of the armored cruisers West Virginia and Pennsylvania, have arrived here.

BEN FRANKLIN BOWLERS TO OPEN THE SEASON OCT. 1

There will be big doings at the Grand Central alleys, Washington street, Oct. 1, when the Ben Franklin League will organize the bowling season for that organization, the combined teams made up from the various newspaper employees. For the opening games the schedule brings together the Evening Telegram, Evening Sun and Tribune teams, and a hot series of games is expected. The Telegram team won the tournament last season, the Sun being second. A feature of the programme for the evening will be the presentation of a silver cup, which will be given to the team which will win the tournament.

Frank Samuels is negotiating with Willie Mack of Newark, as manager for the Harwich team, which starts at the Universal alleys, Brooklyn, Monday night. Bushwick, Bedford, Philadelphia, Emuote State and Bravura will be in the opening series, with Coates as umpire. The schedule runs until March 31.

Opening games in the Foresters' League will be played at the Universal alleys, Brooklyn, Wednesday evening, Oct. 3, when the U. S. Grant, Fort Greene No. 1 and Fort Greene No. 2 will meet on the alleys.

The seventh tournament of the Custom House League will open at the Universal alleys, Brooklyn, Sept. 29. There are nineteen teams. Tournament officers are as follows: President, A. J. McCarthy; Vice-President, J. J. Viole; Treasurer, Edward C. Bush; Secretary, William Critchley; C. P. O. Lombard is Chairman of the Executive Committee.

Grand Rapids Wins Pennant. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 25.—The Central Baseball League closed the season of 1906 yesterday. Grand Rapids won the pennant, with Springfield second and Canton third. Dayton, Wheeling, Evansville, South Bend and Terre Haute finished in the order named.

Killian Reinstated and Fined. CINCINNATI, Sept. 25.—Player Killian, suspended by the Detroit American League Club, was reinstated by the National Baseball Commission on condition he pay a fine of $50. After his suspension he played with an independent club in Chicago, which fact is given as the reason for the fine, there being extenuating circumstances in connection with the suspension.

To Sail on Connecticut. WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—President Roosevelt will use the battleship Connecticut for his visit to Panama. The vessel will be put in commission at the New York Navy-Yard Friday or Saturday, Capt. William Swift has been ordered to command the battleship. The President will start for Panama immediately after Election Day.

15,000 TROOPS READY TO LAND. WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Active preparations for landing forces in Cuba

NO GOVERNMENT IN CUBA; UNITED STATES MUST ACT

(Continued from First Page.)

There are already 2,500 marines and 4,000 bluejackets in Cuban waters, and when the marines and the ships now under orders to sail reach Cuba there will be about 7,000 bluejackets and 2,500 marines available for land service.

The battle-ship Indiana and Kentucky sailed for Cuba with 500 marines at 7 o'clock last night. The battle-ship Kearsarge, Illinois, Alabama, Kentucky and Rhode Island and the cruiser Brooklyn will follow immediately. A Morgan liner has been chartered to pick up marines along the coast and transport them to Havana.

Gen. Bell, chief of staff at army headquarters, said to-day that no direct orders for the movement of troops had been received, but everything was in readiness, and 15,000 soldiers can be landed in Cuba within three or four days. Gen. Funston, who reaches Havana to-day, will be in charge of the army in the field.

The troops likely to be sent on the first expedition are the Fourth, Fifth, Twelfth and Twenty-third Infantry, from the Department of the East, and the Seventh Infantry, from the Department of the Gulf, with headquarters at Atlanta.

CONNECTICUT TO JOIN CUBAN FLEET?

That Cuban intervention is apparently assured was emphasized to-day by rush orders to put the new battleship Connecticut into commission at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, and to rush marines and sailors from the yard to League Island, where the Brooklyn will receive them and get ready for sea.

The Connecticut will be turned over to the Government builders and the Connecticut will be the most powerful battleship in the United States navy, and is destined to be the flagship of Admiral Evans.

The Connecticut was built by the Government at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, while her sister ship, the Louisiana, was built under contract. There has been considerable rivalry between the Government builders and the contract builders as to who would deliver their ship first.

Commandant Reader, of the Brooklyn Navy-Yard, said to-day that the Connecticut is ready much sooner than the Louisiana and will be fully armed and ready to go to sea long before the Louisiana can be accepted by the Government.

The complement of men sent to League Island consists of 150 bluejackets despatched yesterday, and 275 marines now packing their kits preparatory to embarking to-night.

Commandant Reader to-day denied that any order had been received requiring the Connecticut to be in readiness to take the President to Panama, but he declined to discuss her next destination or the date of her trial, and when she will be turned over to Admiral Evans as his flagship and as a component part of his fleet.

COL. WALLER OFF TO ORGANIZE MARINES.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Col. Littleton W. T. Waller, of the Marine Corps, who is to direct the movement of all marines in Cuba, was ordered to-day to proceed to Cuba from Norfolk, Va., and make preparations for the direction of the movement of marines ordered to Cuba.

Several changes have been made in the plan for making every possible effort to complete arrangements for sailing to-morrow, and it is expected that they will leave Boston and Norfolk respectively not later than to-morrow evening.

The marines from the Atlantic fleet were organized and sailed last night under orders direct from Rear-Admiral Evans.

All the marines and officers ordered to Cuba are expected to be at the port from which they are to sail by this evening. The Privateers (N. H.), Boston and Newport (R. I.) men are to sail on the Prairie from Boston. The New York and Annapolis marines will sail on the steamer from the League Island, and those of Norfolk, Washington and Charleston, S. C., will go on the Texas from Norfolk.

KU KLUX BAND FOUND IN AUGUSTA.

Police Break Up Organization Whose Plans Included Attack Upon Negro Preacher.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Sept. 25.—The police have discovered a secret organization of Ku-Klux here, and have broken it up. Detectives found, in a printing office, literature privately marked for the organization, and that a tailoring establishment had made gowns and other regalia for the band. The literature and gowns were confiscated, the former being destroyed.

A number of young men connected with the organization were arrested and placed under peace bonds. It was the purpose of the Ku-Klux to make their first appearance last night on White, the negro preacher-editor, who left the city yesterday.

So concentrated that the stoppered bottle placed in a drawer will perfume the entire contents.

So exquisitely delicate and refined that its elusive fragrance seems rather to follow than to cling to you. The greatest creation of Kerkoff

Djer-Kiss (Dear Kiss) For sale everywhere.

DR. KERRICK, SMITH, FRANCIS, ALFRED H. SMITH CO. Sole Agents New York

TOPPLING CAUSE IN

One Woman Senseless, tried to

One woman school, seven and great ever. One Hundred to-day when a foundation. It affair at No. 100 base it barred No. 111a Pandoorff, store for her falling pots and Miss Annie McWilliam Strower, was dragged during the incident the police was finally shifted to the police went to the accident's No. 81. They adjoining house.

IMPORTED SUBJECT

Attorney-General Secretary of War

WASHINGTON has been reached Justice (re-emancipatory) apply to foreign into this country. The question of foreign men. The Department that the law and permits ment of Agriculture, especially as a domestic meat products, however, was ment of Justice, prepared several to Attorney-General, it is prepared by

Uptown Grand R

LUT BAU & BUY F

as you would know a plethora of on the market. Also, buy choice—when exactly suited. Buy here

Cash or OPEN SAT

FIVE Re

Arc at the to examine charge or TWO FACTORY manufacture Eyeglasses One Doll

Quiet broke with j. E. N

223 Sixth Av 350 Sixth 1274 Bro 217

The Green THE E Contains THE day.