

CAN YOU GUESS
WHAT THIS MAN CAN HAVE FOUND?

Advertises It as "Something," and That Gives Fancy a Chance.

A man walked into The Evening World's uptown office last night, and in a somewhat impressive way laid a sheet of paper on the counter on which was written:

FOUND something, give description. How much does it cost to print that in "The World?" he asked.

A clerk named the amount, the man paid it, and with a satisfied expression on his face started to go forth into Broadway.

"Isn't that 'a little vague?'" ventured the clerk.

"I don't think so," replied the man.

"You see there are lots of persons who advertise they have lost something—very few who find it. I bet I'll get a good many answers to my ad." And he was lost in the throng on the Great White Way.

CALVE WILL NOT RETIRE.

SEATTLE, Nov. 23.—Mrs. Calve is not to retire from the stage, as has been reported. She cabled to-day from Milan to her manager, John Cort, of Seattle, stating that even though married she will tour under his direction next season.

Mr. Cort has planned to present Mrs. Calve in concert in the principal cities of America, beginning next September.

STARVING RUSSIANS SELL THEIR DAUGHTERS.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 23.—The peasantry in the Government of Kazan have been driven to desperation by famine and are selling their daughters into slavery to the Mohammedans of the Caucasus. The ages of the girls sold range from twelve to seventeen, and the prices realized are from $50 to $100.

A form of reported famine, which has been attributed to the Russian Revolution, has broken out in Kazan and is raging epidemically.
