

more libidinal when the news of today's satisfactory developments was borne to his cell in Borden's Row at the Tombs. He had been fearful that the District Attorney's threat to carry the matter before the higher court would drag out his trial for weeks. When his wife reached the prison on her daily visit the pair had a small celebration.

At yesterday was the second anniversary of her marriage, young Mrs. Shaw had a few intimate friends at the Hotel Lorraine as her guests last night. One party from Long Island were brought to the hotel from the Manhattan end of Brooklyn bridge in Josiah Thaw's new automobile.

Woman With Bouquet for Thaw. A smartly appointed cab drove up to the Tombs this afternoon and from it there got out a pretty, refined looking woman of about thirty. In a neat blue gown trimmed with gold braid and a handsome little hat of about six with long brown curls, the woman bore in her arms a little cluster of pink roses. Entering the main gate she went to her room at the Tombs. Her name was given as Mrs. Thaw. When he quoted to her the tale forbidding the receipt of flowers by prisoners the woman became greatly displeased. She begged the warden to make an exception in her case. He refused, but finally, after a long struggle and sending Thaw a sealed note.

She started away, still bearing her burden of roses. An Evening World reporter halted the stranger and asked her to give an account of her visit. "I would rather not give it," she said. "As a matter of fact I do not know anything about it. My sympathy for him has been greatly aroused. Some one else near and dear to me was once in the Tombs. Last night when I read that yesterday was the anniversary of his wedding day I felt an irresistible impulse to show him what my feelings were through a gift of flowers. I had no desire to see him or to tell him my name."

ROB WOMEN'S CLUB SEEKS TO DISPENSE WINE. "Old Colony" Members Are Said to Want a Liquor License. It is stated that the new and exclusive organization of society and professional women, the Colony Club, which opened its handsome home in Madison avenue near Thirtieth street a few days ago, is tentatively seeking a license to sell liquor to its members. On the heels of this interesting bit of news comes the equally interesting announcement that the ambition of a majority of the Colonists is to be able to have wine with their meals and the officers of the famous Madison Avenue Baptist Church.

FREE LODGING FOR MANY IN HOBOKEN. One Hundred Sleepers Caught in Quarantined Place and Forced to Stay There. The health authorities of Manhattan Borough notified the police of Hoboken today that a man who died in this city from smallpox yesterday had been living in a tenement house in Hoboken. The Newark House is a 10-cent lodging house, and the police and health officers immediately put it under quarantine and also the one hundred guests who were sleeping when the quarantine went into effect. To keep the guests from leaving the place, a squad of police had been sent to run in and out of the building.

POOL ROOM CASE FAILS, BUT PRISONERS FREE. Jerome's Assistant Admits in Court His Testimony Is Insufficient. HOLDS SECRET INQUIRY. All Consent to Answer Any Question Which Is Put to Them.

The District Attorney's pool-room syndicate sensation, which his young assistant, Mr. Vandiver, has been pursuing along so assiduously for the past week, blew up today with a loud report and considerable smoke. At the same time a pipe went out in the District Attorney's office and was fled away for use at some future time when the necessity for attracting the attention of the public to Mr. Jerome's department arises.

This was the day when the John Doe proceedings that were to uncover the secrets of the pool-room syndicate, revealed the identity of the "man higher up" under Thomas P. Grady's real name and electricity the community should have begun. But they didn't begin.

Wanted Reporters Excluded. The decision of the Court of Appeals in the Theatrical Trust case put a quietus on the John Doe method of extracting information from unwilling witnesses behind locked doors. Mr. Vandiver wanted the reporters excluded from the court room when the pool-room syndicate came up before Magistrate Barlow today, but the Magistrate said that he was holding an open, public session.

Daniel O'Reilly, appearing for Charles Kelly and E. A. Fisher, who were arrested at No. 112 Fulton street last Friday, and are the only two members of the alleged syndicate the District Attorney could reach, made a motion that the complaint charging them with maintaining a pool-room at the Fulton street address be dismissed. He claimed that there was no evidence to substantiate it.

Mr. Vandiver admitted that he had been unable to secure sufficient evidence to make a complaint stick. Magistrate Barlow promptly discharged Kelly and Fisher.

The Assistant District Attorney then proclaimed that he believed he had sufficient evidence to connect Fisher with the pool-room at No. 47 Broadway, which is the main branch of the syndicate. At his request, Magistrate Barlow swore out a complaint charging Fisher with running a pool-room at that address. Magistrate Barlow also swore out a complaint to allow him to dig up 1,000 cash and deposit it with the City Chamberlain.

ROBBED MERCHANT IS MURDERED AND FLUNG INTO HUDSON RIVER. Widow Believes He Was Lured Away by Bogus Contractors.

The police of the Bronx are convinced today that John Wehner, whose body was picked up in the Hudson River off Fort Lee on Wednesday, was not a suicide as was at first supposed. All of the circumstances now point clearly to murder. The Bronx Detective Bureau and half a score of men from Police Headquarters are searching for clues to the mysterious murder. During the examination that was made by the Coroner it was discovered that Wehner's skull was fractured.

Apparently he had been struck across the forehead with a heavy weapon. The Coroner's physician said that this fracture of the man's skull was such that his body had been thrown into the river. There was no water in the lungs, as would have been the case had he drowned.

That robbery was the motive for the murder there is ample evidence. Wehner was in the habit of carrying considerable sums of money in his pockets all the time. Wehner was a storekeeper at No. 1414 Brook avenue. He lived with his wife and two small children in rooms over his store. He was an early riser and frequently left his store at 4 A. M. Mr. Wehner says it was between four and five when he left his apartments on Tuesday morning. He told her she meant to take a short walk before beginning the day's business.

Saw Him Start Away. Early every morning, before opening his store, it was Wehner's custom to go to a saloon at Webster avenue and Ansonia place, a short distance from his home. Charles H. Jackson, who lives just across the street from Wehner's place, saw him start on his fatal walk on Tuesday morning. He told the police that Wehner first went into his place, saw him start on his fatal walk, and then came out, locking the door after him. Wehner did not turn up at the saloon.

"ALL UNTRUE," SAYS PENROSE TO ROOSEVELT. (Continued from First Page.) said today there were not any additional details of the affair to be given out, but he emphasized the belief which he expressed yesterday, that the publicity which had been made of the intrigues against the interests of the President would "nip the whole scheme in the bud" before the campaign of 1908 is fully on.

LINCOLN, Neb., April 5.—The Nebraska State Senate today adopted a resolution endorsing the position of President Roosevelt in his controversy with E. H. Harriman, and declaring the confidence of the Senate in the President's motives.

SMATHERS SAYS LOU DILLON DRUGGED. Gives Complete Denial on Stand of Charges Made in Memphis. Would Like Nothing Better Than to Fight Again. No Water to Fight the Fire and Destruction of the Place Feared.

On the witness stand and under oath, Elmer E. Smathers, owner and driver of Major Delmar in the race for the Memphis cup on Oct. 19-1904, denied that he had taken part in a conspiracy to make the Billings mare, Lou Dillon, unfit to trot in that contest.

This testimony was given before Judge Greenbaum and a jury this afternoon. Suit was brought by the Memphis Trotting Association, represented by former Judge Hatch, to relieve the cup from Smathers on the ground that it was won because the Billings mare had been drugged to make her unfit.

Mr. Smathers declared he had never talked with Ed Sanders, the man who first made the charge as to the drugging of the mare. He said he did not see Sanders because he started on his trip to the race, he reached the track at 10 o'clock.

"Can't Foo Me," Says Roosevelt. WASHINGTON, April 5.—In political and official Washington there are but two explanations for President Roosevelt's extraordinary statements of yesterday—the most extraordinary perhaps that ever emanated from a President. One is the belief that Mr. Roosevelt, realizing that serious diseases require radical cures, has adopted a new and amazing policy in order to divert public attention from the man whom he has embroiled with a dramatic gesture and said:

ARMED ROBBERS HUNG UP TO DEAR BUFFALO. Cover Engineer and Conductor With Pistols as They Loot Car. BUFFALO, N. Y., April 5.—Three train robbers held up an east-bound West Shore freight train a short distance east of Buffalo, N. Y., last night and while two of them hid the conductor and engineer at the points of revolvers the third man broke open a car and added a "big haul" of packages of merchandise. The engineer was ordered to proceed.

PILOT DEAD AT WHEEL, BOAT HEADED FOR ROCKS. PITTSBURGH, April 5.—With the spoke of the pilot wheel clutched in a death grip and a hand extended toward the bell-rope, George W. Conant was being led in the pilot-house of the packer boat, the East Liverpool, O., on an early hour today.

W GOVERN, OUT OF SANITARIUM, DECLARED CURED. BINGHAM WILL LOSE HIS JOB, SAYS JUDGE. WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., April 5.—If certain policemen are ordered to be in the Supreme Court here next Monday and they fail to appear because of counter orders from Police Commissioner Bingham, of New York City, the Commissioner will "lose his job," according to Supreme Court Justice Morchaut.

STAMFORD, Conn., April 5.—Terry McGovern, looking hale and hearty and weighing 145 pounds, leaves Dr. Amos J. Givens' sanitarium this afternoon. Dr. Givens says that, judging from the vast improvement in the Britte fighter during the four months it is quite possible that he may be able to enter the ring again. Terry himself is elated at the prospect of getting back to his friends in New York, although he says he won't stay there long. He is going to spend the summer on a farm, and "I feel able to have a try at any of them again," said Terry this morning in the reception-room of the sanitarium.

"I've led a pretty strenuous life and now I think I can afford to take a vacation and spend the summer on a farm with my wife and children. However, if I continue to improve as I have for the past four months I don't believe any one can keep me out of the ring for good. I have some plans for starting in business, but I will have to talk these over with Sam Harris before I come to any decision. Terry McGovern said today that Terry did not have paretic, as was reported last winter. When Terry recovered he was admitted to the sanitarium, said Dr. Givens. It was recognized that he was suffering from the malady known as American nervousness, a great physical exhaustion of the system, and the result of overwork, strain, worry, great physical exertion or dissipation. The athletic training and strict dieting, followed by great exhaustion of energy, were followed by the inevitable reaction of indolence in stimulants, the great cause of the malady.

SLEEP BROKEN BY ITCHING ECZEMA. Skin of Whole Body Covered for a Year—Awful Itching Kept Sufferer Awake Half the Night—Tried All Kinds of Remedies but They Had No Effect.

"I wish to let you know that I have one cake of Cuticura Remedy, one box of Cuticura, but two vials of Cuticura Resolvent. Pills— which cost me a dollar and twenty-five cents in all. I had an itching all over my body, and when I would retire for the night it would keep me awake half the night, torturing, disgusting humors of the skin and scalp, including loss of hair, yet compounded, in proof of which a single anointing with Cuticura Ointment, preceded by a hot bath with Cuticura Soap, and followed in the severer cases by a dose of Cuticura Resolvent (Liquid or Pills), is often sufficient to afford immediate relief.
