

ODDITIES IN NEWS FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD

Short Stories of Unusual Happenings and Singular Experiences Picked Out of the Chronicles of To-Day.

The town of Peabody, Mass., is called upon to defend a suit filed by a woman who claims the town will not permit her to take a bath.

She is Mrs. Helen M. Marsh, of Lynn, and she bought a summer place on the shores of Lake Sautaug, which is near Peabody.

Every day last summer she took a morning plunge in the cool, clear water.

When she returned this spring she found that Peabody had decided to use the lake for its drinking supply, and had put up signs forbidding bathing.

She has prepared her papers and will sue for damages.

NO FLAT FEET GO IN THE U. S. ARMY.

Flat feet don't go any more in the United States Army. Recruiting officers are not taking on men unless they can show an aristocratic arch.

Flat-footed men cannot march well. They may be physically "O. K." otherwise, but this one drawback keeps them always behind.

At Springfield, Mass., a number of fine specimens of New England manhood have been rejected because of their solid track.

FALSE TEETH SAVE A MAN FROM PRISON.

When Joseph Lowe was arrested in Chicago the intelligent sergeant had him searched and looked up his false teeth in the pocket of his coat.

When arraigned, Lowe couldn't talk, and was headed for the workhouse when the teeth were given to him.

He then explained in a fine voice, and with great cleverness, that the police, impossible as it might seem, had made a mistake in arresting him.

He was discharged.

TASTE FOR ART IS TURNING TO SOCKS.

The higher the young man's trousers are turned, the fewer brains he has.

say Superintendent of Instruction Ellison of Cleveland.

"Sometimes I think the throat for color runs in socks, instead of canvas. When are our budding painters?"

"Parading around with Remy socks, I suppose. Fancy vests and gaudy ties appear to satisfy the taste of the youth for art."

RIVALS FIGHT AS THE GIRL ELOPES.

Soon after Barney Miller met and married C. C. Bond with a razor at New Market, Md., because he thought Bond had eloped with a girl whose hand both sought, he learned with surprise that the damsel had found a new sweetheart and run away with him.

Miller is now apologizing to Bond, and hopes their mutual loss will arouse sympathy between them so that Bond won't prosecute him for the cutting.

$11,500 BULLIS BOUGHT BY RYAN.

Thomas F. Ryan's agent has bought a bull at Allentown, Pa., paying for it the world's record price, $11,500.

William H. Rockefeller's representative bid against Ryan's man and offered $11,000.

The bull is a Jersey, imported, called Stockwell, four years old.

100,000 MILES IS BOY TRAMP'S RECORD

Francis Hames, boy tramp, has travelled 100,000 miles in the last four years. He is now in Chicago, where he was picked up by the police.

He told Municipal Judge Walker his home was "anywhere, so, earth, that he was nineteen years old and willing to work if he had a job."

"I've kept a diary since I started out at fifteen," he said. "Some day I will write up my travels and publish a book." The Judge set him free.

CHICAGO NO MORE A GOOD COW PASTURE.

Seven cow-catchers, employed by the city of Chicago at a salary of $70 a year each succeeded within the last twelve months in catching one old horse.

Mayor Busse announces that this is too much to pay and the cowboys' jobs are slipping away.

There are no cows in Chicago's streets now, and stray horses are scarce. Chicago's day as a pasture lot is at an end.
