

NEWS MASSACRED IN THE STREETS OF CASABLANCA

Moors Still Attacking, While Many Lie Dead in Town Bombaraded.

MORE TROOPS LANDED. Tribesmen Defiant While Guns of Foreign Ships Sweep the Coast.

TANGIER, Aug. 8.—The French warships have landed 2,000 additional men at Casablanca, where street fighting apparently continues, judging from the desultory firing heard day and night by those on board the ships anchored off the town. The Jewish quarter of Casablanca has been sacked.

Many persons were massacred in the streets, the city is said to be full of dead Moors and the Moorish quarter is in ruins, having been set on fire by the shells from the big guns of the cruisers. All the stores are closed and much hunger and distress prevail among the poor. The foreign consuls have ordered the stores to be reopened and have established a special tariff for foodstuffs designed to mitigate the sufferings of the poor.

The Europeans, who are all safe either on board ships or at the consulates, are guarded by bluejackets. The warships continue to drop occasional shells into the groups of Kasabyles on the beach in order to prevent them from approaching the town.

Advices from Rabat say that the Kasabyles have given the Governor a fortnight in which to withdraw the French Controller of Customs. Otherwise they say they will attack the town.

Activity among the Andjers tribesmen in the vicinity of Tangier is creating some apprehension that a surprise attack made by the Moors on the city.

PARIS, Aug. 8.—In spite of the firm position of the French Government to keep within the terms of the Algeiras Convention in its dealings with Morocco the French press clearly foresees that France, unless the situation rapidly improves, has entered upon a long and heavy task.

The newspapers express the opinion that France, while the chief burden in restoring security in the disturbed country will fall, may be forced to occupy in turn all the Moroccan ports and then probably be compelled to undertake a punitive expedition to the interior, which it would be impossible to withdraw, as in the case with the British in Egypt.

As the British bombardment of Alexandria enhanced the prestige of Great Britain in Egypt, so, it is argued, the French bombardment of Casablanca will have a similar effect in Morocco. An expedition to Fez, the newspapers point out, would, like the British victory at Tel-el-Kahir, complete the triumph.

The Petit Parisien to-day prints an interesting interview with a "high personage" at the German Foreign Office, who indicates that Germany recognizes the logic of the situation and is prepared to acquiesce in France's "incontestable predominance" in Morocco, provided France is prepared to give a solid pro quo in the shape of the admission of German Government and German industrial securities into the French market.

ALGERIA, Aug. 8.—The steamer Oasis, having 300 sharpshooters and two mountain batteries on board, sailed for Morocco to-day. Capt. De Rignon, commander of the Oasis, who has been designated for duty with the International Moroccan police, were on board the vessel.

Help Wanted To-Day! As advertised for in The Morning World's Want Directory.
