SANDBAGGED AND ROBBED AT DOOR OF HIS FACTORY

Clothier Nearly Killed by Three Foot-pads, Who Boldly Attack Him on His Own Threshold in Broad Daylight.

Bond street, a hundred feet from Broadway and with both thoroughfares thronged with people, was the scene of the most daring hold-up and highway robbery in many years at 5.05 o'clock this afternoon.

The victim was Bernard Cohen, of Barnett & Cohen, manufacturing tailors at No. 9 Bond street.

The firm has the fifth floor of the building and employs sixty-five men. Mr. Cohen had just collected $800 in payment of a bill of goods by Galland & Co., Broadway and Twelfth street, and was hurrying back to the factory with the money, which was largely to be used in paying off the employees.

Broadway was jammed with people, and a marching army of working people was passing through Bond street from factory to their homes. Mr. Cohen had slipped into the hallway leading to his factory when three men who had evidently been shadowing him all afternoon, pounced upon him from behind.

They dragged him, beat him, kicked him until he was a mass of cuts and bruises and covered with blood before they were able to wrest the money from him.

Cohen, who is a young and vigorous man, put up a hard fight and yelled for help with all his might. But the crowd passed on unheeding, only a block away.

His own employees were the first to come to the rescue, rushing downstairs pell mell.

Robbers Escaped Safely. The robbers had disappeared with the cash. The men left carried Cohen to Police Headquarters, only a block away, and there he told his story to Deputy Commissioner Woods and Lieut. Burke of the new Detective Bureau.

He could give but a meagre description of his assailants, but all the available detectives were hurried out on the case.

Taft Has a Day of Talk in Missouri. JOPLIN, Mo., Aug. 26.—Secretary Taft delivered three speeches in Joplin and vicinity to-day. His first was here, when he was heard by a big throng on the trusts and rate legislation. The city was crowded with visitors, who had come from various parts of Missouri and from across the line in Kansas.

Later Secretary Taft was escorted to Webb City, a nearby mining town, where, after luncheon, he delivered his second speech. Along the trolley line between the two cities he was besieged by wood-sawed crowds made up in part of zinc miners.

Early in the afternoon the party started for Carthage, Mo., the county seat of Jasper County, where Secretary Taft spoke a third time. He returned late to-day, and to-night will depart for Springfield, Mo.

Cardinal Falconio, who has been visiting the Maresa Institute, had a narrow escape from drowning this afternoon while on a pleasure trip on the Sound.

MORGAN WANTS THE ENTIRE BOND ISSUE OF CITY

Banking Firm Reported to Have Offered to Take the Whole $40,000,000.

NEW RATE 4 1/2 PER CENT

Acting Comptroller and Bankers Refuse to Discuss the Report.

A report was current in financial circles late this afternoon that J. P. Morgan has organized a syndicate to relieve the city of its mammoth issue of bonds $40,000,000 worth—that has been unable to find any market, notwithstanding the tempting rate of interest offered. The Morgan syndicate will receive 4 1/2 per cent interest on the $40,000,000 worth of bonds, but the interest for bonds. The interest will aggregate $1,800,000 a year.

At the office of Deputy Collector Cooney no confirmation could be obtained of the offer by the Morgan syndicate, nor would any one in the Mayor's office say it is absolutely true. A letter was observed in the J. P. Morgan financial household. Nevertheless, it is pretty certain that when the bonds are offered for public sale on Sept. 10 this syndicate will take over the entire issue. Unlike in the case of the Cleveland bond issue in 1906, the great financier is now playing the role of good samaritan to the city, as the public has refused to buy in big or little lots.

Sale Absolutely Necessary.

It is admitted by the financial authorities of the city that a sale of bonds at this time is absolutely necessary in order to provide funds for the city's needs and pending improvements, and the large issue advertised can all be utilized. If entirely disposed of it will put the city in good financial condition until next spring.

This issue of $40,000,000 bonds is larger by $2,000,000 than any previous one. The last two sales—the one for $20,000,000 and the other for $18,000,000—failed. The rate offered was only 4 per cent. To relieve the stringency of the Sinking Fund Commission raised the rate to 4 1/2 per cent. It is expected that the higher rate will tempt buyers.

While the rate of a half a cent looks on its face to be small, the fact that it extends over a period of fifty years for the most of the bonds, means that the increased rate will cost the city in the fifty years the enormous sum of $10,000,000 extra for the added interest.

TWO WOMEN CLAIM ONE MAN AS HUSBAND.

Second Wife Brings the First Into Court to Confront Heffler.

Confronted by two young women who claimed that he had married them both, Frederick Heffler, thirty-two years old, an ironworker, who says his last address was No. 115 Avenue C, was this morning arraigned before Magistrate Justice in the Municipal Court, and was held in $1,000 bail for examination on Wednesday, charged with bigamy.

The warrant for his arrest was obtained by Mrs. Kate Heffler, who alleges that she married Heffler Sept. 15, 1906, not knowing that he was already married. She showed her allegations by producing in court another woman, who said she was Maggie Krieger before she married Heffler in September, 1905.

Heffler said he had not seen his first wife for six years, but she claimed to have passed him in the street several times recently. A hearing into the matter will be given on Wednesday.

MRS. MARSHALL FIELD HAS CHAUFFEUR'S CASE HURRIED.

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Mrs. Marshall Field, of Chicago, attired in a rich gown and looking much out of place amid the usual Monday crowd of petty violators of the law, was jostled about in the corridor of the Municipal Court to-day for an hour until the case against her chauffeur, Willet Dewey, could be settled by the Court.

The case was assigned for Tuesday, but Mrs. Field sent her card to the clerk and asked for a speedy hearing, as she wished to leave immediately for Chicago. She was conducted into the court and after spending an uncomfortable hour paid Dewey's fine of $10, thanked the Judge and departed.

REDMOND DROPS TENANT BILL ON BIRRELL'S TALK.

LONDON, Aug. 26.—The Chief Secretary for Ireland, Mr. Birrell, announced in the Commons this afternoon that the Government was prepared to accept some, but not all the amendments of the House of Lords to the Irish Land Bill, whereupon John Redmond, Chairman of the Irish Parliamentary Party, said he declined to accept any further part in the discussion of the measure.

BALLOONIST IS HURLED ABOUT BY A HIGH WIND

Man Cut Strands and He Plunges Through Improvised Life Net.

UNABLE TO GET DOWN.

Man Cut Strands and He Plunges Through Improvised Life Net.

R. F. Ackerman made a balloon ascension with trimmings at Bayonne, N. J., to-day. He didn't get far from the ground, but his effort was every bit as thrilling as though he had dropped with his parachute, as he originally intended.

Ackerman went up from Melville Park. A strong streak of wind caught the balloon and whirled it along at express train speed.

Ackerman was hanging from a trapeze at the end of a rope rising. He was little more than clear of the ground when he was slapped against the top of a telegraph pole. The jar caused him to lose his hold on the trapeze bar and he fell across the wires.

He was stunned, not able to move, and he thrashed about in an aimless effort to free himself. The wires upon which he reeled are forty feet from the ground.

Crowd Shouted Warnings.

A crowd gathered in the street and shouted to Ackerman to keep still. He was unable to understand them and made frequent convulsive jerks with his legs and arms. Each move he made threatened to shake him from the wires and drop him to the street.

Ackerman's assistants saw the accident from the park and hastened to his aid. One of them got a ladder, but it was found to be several feet too short to reach to the wires. Half a dozen men essayed to climb the pole, but none was able to get more than ten feet from the ground.

A wiry little Italian man happened along and took in the situation. He said he could climb the pole, but as there was no ladder within reaching distance and no ropes with which the aeronaut might be lowered the problem was to get him to the ground. The Italian furnished the solution. He produced a pair of nippers from a pocket of his overalls and started up the pole. Acting under his instructions, the bystanders secured a sheet from a nearby dwelling to be used as a net.

As many men as could crowd about the edges of the sheet caught hold of it and held it under Ackerman. Dropped Into Improved Net. Reaching the top of the pole the Italian quickly severed half a dozen strategic telegraph wires. Their support being withdrawn Ackerman dropped head-first.

He landed on the sheet all right, but the sheet was not strong enough to hold him. He went through, striking the ground on his head. However, the interruption afforded by the sheet served to break the force of the fall.

The aeronaut carried him to a hotel in the park where he was attended by Dr. Brook. He has concussion of the brain and many bruises, but his injuries will not prove fatal.

FOUNDLING IN REAR YARD.

Salvation of Her Life.

Alois Behre heard cries in the rear of his home, No. 312 East One Hundred and Twenty-first street to-day, and on investigating found a month old baby lying on the ground. He took the baby to the East One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street station, where she was treated in a small hot bottle.

Officer Gallagher hustled the child down to Bellevue Hospital, blushing under the audible criticisms of women passengers on the Third Avenue "L."

TRIED TO END HIS LIFE WITH A PISTOL BULLET.

Balsam Market, fifty-five years old, of No. 103A Cooper avenue, Evergreen, L. I., employed as a watchman by the National Co-operative Company, at Covert and Wyckoff avenues, Ridgewood Heights, shot himself while in the office of the company early to-day. He was taken to the German Hospital, Brooklyn, in a critical condition. No cause for his act is known.

EMPIRE CITY RACE TRACK, Aug. 26.—Little Jockey Lycurgus, who has ridden some good races at the Empire City track, was seriously injured in a fall from the track to-day. Coming around the upper turn, Teeta H. ridden by Ott, crossed her legs and went down in a heap. Lycurgus on his side, and Lee on New Garter, immediately behind Teeta H., fell over her, the last horse trampling on Lycurgus, who was carried from the track unconscious. It is possible that he sustained internal injuries.

There was a long delay at the post. Almar was largely responsible. Almar was left. When at last they got going Teeta H. led the second division, when she fell just as Lycurgus was beginning to make his run. Lee and Ott were momentarily stunned but sustained no injuries other than a shaking up.

The three horses which went down would probably not have affected the result. The winner got away well, went to the front before a sixteenth had been run, and won easily by three lengths in slow time. Ingraham was always second. N'importe, after the fall, succeeded in getting up for third money.

Favorite Took Second.

There was little enthusiasm when Miss Alert, the favorite, was returned an easy winner of the second race. Waterspeed, a big upstanding daughter of Watercolor, after a poor exhibition by Marshall, was piloted into the place. La Veita, which is getting entirely too much racing, was beaten out only a head for second money. So-called second money was $100.

Easy Race for Hollow.

Any lingering doubts that Hollow is a pretty good two-year-old were settled by his easy victory in the third race. To a good start Priceless Jewel broke in front and led in suzerainty for the first three-eighths, where Hollow went up to her and ran away with the purse. Aristotele finished a fair second, and Miss Mazzoni, coming from behind in the last few jumps, beat out Emma G. Good race, despite the handicap.

Old Honesty Was Best.

Old Honesty had to be pounded the best horse to land the Tarrytown Handicap at a mile and one hundred yards. Lee rode him all over the track, but him shut off and finally the horse was ground out. The handicap of seven pounds was a good thing, never for a moment threatened to get into the race. After the first few jumps Lee's chances could not pack the weight.

Cloisteress Wins Again.

Cloisteress justified the confidence of her backers by landing the fifth, hard always to stall off Diamond, on which Preston rode a poor race. Jennie Weiss played to run third, got that end of the company early to-day. He was taken to the German Hospital, Brooklyn, in a critical condition. No cause for his act is known.
