

CORE IS GOING TO BE SUE BY PAPA GILMAN ASSERTS

Here from California and Avers Steel Trust Millionaire Has Stolen From Him the Love of His Daughter, the Former Actress.

Charles Henry Gilman, of San Francisco, to-day told an Evening World reporter that he would sue William Ellis Corey, the head of the Steel Trust, for alienating from him the affections of his daughter, Mabelle Gilman Corey.

She married the millionaire last spring at the Hotel Gotham under conditions so unusual that for hours no minister who would perform the ceremony could be found.

Last night Gilman was practically bedfast from the effects of a cold which on Friday afternoon, after he had vainly begged to be allowed to speak with his daughter.

After twelve hours of reflection on the humiliation he now bears an amazing story of domestic intrigue, of underground scheming, and of threats and counter-threats. He has dragged from the closet the skeleton of his early married life, declaring that for nearly three years he has shielded his child Mabelle from the truth, and that he would have gone on shielding her if she had not repudiated him in Paris and cast him off in New York.

By the father's accounting William Corey is using his vast fortune and his vast influence to discredit Mabelle and to keep him from putting his two younger daughters on the stage.

He thinks they should be permitted to follow in the footsteps of their grandmother, who now seeks in the privacy of her Jersey home to forget the days when she wore tights and carried a spear in the chorus. But Mr. Corey doesn't like the notion, it would seem.

The main trouble seems to be that the old man Gilman is going to bill seven-year-old Pearl and fourteen-year-old Mabelle as the sisters of Mabelle Gilman Corey.

Awakens Memories. Corey doesn't want people reminded by every billboard and every vaudeville programme they see of the man who laid aside the wife who stuck to him and looked for him and washed out his eyes and flannel sheets and reared his children when he was a day laborer in Pennsylvania's coke fields, so that he might marry the dimpled star of the Broadway stage.

Mr. Corey doesn't like the notion, it would seem. The main trouble seems to be that the old man Gilman is going to bill seven-year-old Pearl and fourteen-year-old Mabelle as the sisters of Mabelle Gilman Corey.

Awakens Memories. Corey doesn't want people reminded by every billboard and every vaudeville programme they see of the man who laid aside the wife who stuck to him and looked for him and washed out his eyes and flannel sheets and reared his children when he was a day laborer in Pennsylvania's coke fields, so that he might marry the dimpled star of the Broadway stage.

Mr. Corey doesn't like the notion, it would seem. The main trouble seems to be that the old man Gilman is going to bill seven-year-old Pearl and fourteen-year-old Mabelle as the sisters of Mabelle Gilman Corey.

Awakens Memories. Corey doesn't want people reminded by every billboard and every vaudeville programme they see of the man who laid aside the wife who stuck to him and looked for him and washed out his eyes and flannel sheets and reared his children when he was a day laborer in Pennsylvania's coke fields, so that he might marry the dimpled star of the Broadway stage.

Mr. Corey doesn't like the notion, it would seem. The main trouble seems to be that the old man Gilman is going to bill seven-year-old Pearl and fourteen-year-old Mabelle as the sisters of Mabelle Gilman Corey.

Awakens Memories. Corey doesn't want people reminded by every billboard and every vaudeville programme they see of the man who laid aside the wife who stuck to him and looked for him and washed out his eyes and flannel sheets and reared his children when he was a day laborer in Pennsylvania's coke fields, so that he might marry the dimpled star of the Broadway stage.

Mr. Corey doesn't like the notion, it would seem. The main trouble seems to be that the old man Gilman is going to bill seven-year-old Pearl and fourteen-year-old Mabelle as the sisters of Mabelle Gilman Corey.

Awakens Memories. Corey doesn't want people reminded by every billboard and every vaudeville programme they see of the man who laid aside the wife who stuck to him and looked for him and washed out his eyes and flannel sheets and reared his children when he was a day laborer in Pennsylvania's coke fields, so that he might marry the dimpled star of the Broadway stage.

Mr. Corey doesn't like the notion, it would seem. The main trouble seems to be that the old man Gilman is going to bill seven-year-old Pearl and fourteen-year-old Mabelle as the sisters of Mabelle Gilman Corey.

Awakens Memories. Corey doesn't want people reminded by every billboard and every vaudeville programme they see of the man who laid aside the wife who stuck to him and looked for him and washed out his eyes and flannel sheets and reared his children when he was a day laborer in Pennsylvania's coke fields, so that he might marry the dimpled star of the Broadway stage.

Mr. Corey doesn't like the notion, it would seem. The main trouble seems to be that the old man Gilman is going to bill seven-year-old Pearl and fourteen-year-old Mabelle as the sisters of Mabelle Gilman Corey.

Awakens Memories. Corey doesn't want people reminded by every billboard and every vaudeville programme they see of the man who laid aside the wife who stuck to him and looked for him and washed out his eyes and flannel sheets and reared his children when he was a day laborer in Pennsylvania's coke fields, so that he might marry the dimpled star of the Broadway stage.

Mr. Corey doesn't like the notion, it would seem. The main trouble seems to be that the old man Gilman is going to bill seven-year-old Pearl and fourteen-year-old Mabelle as the sisters of Mabelle Gilman Corey.

Awakens Memories. Corey doesn't want people reminded by every billboard and every vaudeville programme they see of the man who laid aside the wife who stuck to him and looked for him and washed out his eyes and flannel sheets and reared his children when he was a day laborer in Pennsylvania's coke fields, so that he might marry the dimpled star of the Broadway stage.

Mr. Corey doesn't like the notion, it would seem. The main trouble seems to be that the old man Gilman is going to bill seven-year-old Pearl and fourteen-year-old Mabelle as the sisters of Mabelle Gilman Corey.

Awakens Memories. Corey doesn't want people reminded by every billboard and every vaudeville programme they see of the man who laid aside the wife who stuck to him and looked for him and washed out his eyes and flannel sheets and reared his children when he was a day laborer in Pennsylvania's coke fields, so that he might marry the dimpled star of the Broadway stage.

Mr. Corey doesn't like the notion, it would seem. The main trouble seems to be that the old man Gilman is going to bill seven-year-old Pearl and fourteen-year-old Mabelle as the sisters of Mabelle Gilman Corey.

Awakens Memories. Corey doesn't want people reminded by every billboard and every vaudeville programme they see of the man who laid aside the wife who stuck to him and looked for him and washed out his eyes and flannel sheets and reared his children when he was a day laborer in Pennsylvania's coke fields, so that he might marry the dimpled star of the Broadway stage.

Mr. Corey doesn't like the notion, it would seem. The main trouble seems to be that the old man Gilman is going to bill seven-year-old Pearl and fourteen-year-old Mabelle as the sisters of Mabelle Gilman Corey.

Awakens Memories. Corey doesn't want people reminded by every billboard and every vaudeville programme they see of the man who laid aside the wife who stuck to him and looked for him and washed out his eyes and flannel sheets and reared his children when he was a day laborer in Pennsylvania's coke fields, so that he might marry the dimpled star of the Broadway stage.

Mr. Corey doesn't like the notion, it would seem. The main trouble seems to be that the old man Gilman is going to bill seven-year-old Pearl and fourteen-year-old Mabelle as the sisters of Mabelle Gilman Corey.

Awakens Memories. Corey doesn't want people reminded by every billboard and every vaudeville programme they see of the man who laid aside the wife who stuck to him and looked for him and washed out his eyes and flannel sheets and reared his children when he was a day laborer in Pennsylvania's coke fields, so that he might marry the dimpled star of the Broadway stage.

Mr. Corey doesn't like the notion, it would seem. The main trouble seems to be that the old man Gilman is going to bill seven-year-old Pearl and fourteen-year-old Mabelle as the sisters of Mabelle Gilman Corey.

Awakens Memories. Corey doesn't want people reminded by every billboard and every vaudeville programme they see of the man who laid aside the wife who stuck to him and looked for him and washed out his eyes and flannel sheets and reared his children when he was a day laborer in Pennsylvania's coke fields, so that he might marry the dimpled star of the Broadway stage.

Mr. Corey doesn't like the notion, it would seem. The main trouble seems to be that the old man Gilman is going to bill seven-year-old Pearl and fourteen-year-old Mabelle as the sisters of Mabelle Gilman Corey.

BEARS, BOBCATS, WOLVES AND DEER FOR ROOSEVELT

To Say Nothing of Cougar, Declares Master of the Hunt McIlhenny.

ALL IN THE CANEBRAKE. They Are Sacred Game Just Now, Hunting Being Forbidden in Louisiana Swamp.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—"I never told the President that he was sure of bagging a bear in Louisiana, but I have said to him that I consider the prospects excellent, and so I say to you," said Chief McIlhenny, master of the hunt, who will be the President's hunter on his forthcoming hunting expedition among the canebrakes of the lower Mississippi Valley, to-day. Continuing, Mr. McIlhenny said:

"The President's camp will be pitched in Texas Parish, but just at what point I cannot say; that will depend upon the presence of the game. It is a famous bear country, and if the President's party does not secure one or more specimens it will be out of luck."

"I recently have had the region explored by Jake Collier, a famous hunter and guide in this section, and who was with the President on his last hunt in Mississippi a few years ago. He was hunting in Texas Parish recently for only half a day with a pair of dogs, and located no fewer than six bear trails. Other reports are equally encouraging."

"There is also an abundance of timber wolves, bob cats and Virginia deer, to say nothing of cougar."

"The hunting party will consist of President Roosevelt, Mr. McIlhenny, John M. Parker, a Louisiana cotton planter, who has been associated with Mr. McIlhenny in preparation for the hunt, Dr. Alexander Lambier, Surgeon-General of the State of Louisiana, and a party of hunters and guides of Louisiana. The hunting will be done on horseback and fifteen or twenty horses will be used. The party will have a pack of about fifty well-trained hounds, and in addition to the Collier, the President will command the services of Brutus Jackson, another bear hunter of Louisiana, who has been charged by Mr. McIlhenny's kennel."

Mr. McIlhenny will be captain of the hunt. The party will start camp on Oct. 7 and strike it on Oct. 21.

Highlanders Are Beaten in Ninth Inning.

Gill threw out Keeler. Ball popped out to McGill.

Fourth Inning. Pickering singled and was forced by Wallace's grounder. Moriarty to Williams. Yeager doubled to left, scoring Wallace. Yeager to Jones. Keeler singled to left, scoring Moriarty.

Chase doubled and stole third. Wallace threw out Moriarty. Laporte singled, scoring Chase. Bell popped a fly to Jones. Laporte was forced out by Williams. THREE RUNS.

Fifth Inning. Hemphill struck out. Stone singled. Pickering fled to Laporte. Wallace walked. Yeager to Moriarty. Moriarty unassisted. NO RUNS.

Blair walked and advanced on Newton. Blair to Laporte, scoring Moriarty. Spencer singled and took second on a passed ball. Jones walked. McGill threw to Chase. Spencer taking third base. Spencer advanced. Hemphill was thrown out by Williams. ONE RUN.

Sixth Inning. Spencer singled and took second on a passed ball. Jones walked. McGill threw to Chase. Spencer taking third base. Spencer advanced. Hemphill was thrown out by Williams. ONE RUN.

Seventh Inning. Stone died to Bell. Pickering walked. Wallace struck out. Keeler fled to McGill. NO RUNS.

Eighth Inning. Spencer doubled and took third on Jones's single. Jones was forced by McGill. Spencer advanced. Williams and Spencer scored. Niles forced McGill on a grounder to Bell, unassisted. Jones walked. McGill struck out. Niles took second. Hemphill forced Niles. Williams to Moriarty. ONE RUN.

Ninth Inning. Stone singled and took third on Pickering's double. Both scored on Wallace's single. Yeager sacrificed. Newton to Chase. Spencer advanced, scoring Wallace. Newton was taken out of the box and Doyle took his place. Jones walked. McGill struck out. Doyle threw out Niles. THREE RUNS.

Blair was thrown out by Niles. Elberfeld batted for Elberfeld. Keeler singled, sending Doyle to third. McGill was taken out of the box and Dineen took his place. Blair forced Keeler at third. Wallace to Niles. Louden scored. Chase singled, scoring Blair. Pickering walked. Niles to Doyle. ONE RUN.

MINIATURE RAILROAD RUN BY WIRELESS TELEGRAPH.

LYONS, France, Sept. 27.—Very little information is obtainable regarding the reported invention here of a method of transmitting electrical energy long distances without the use of wires. The experiments in this connection with the aid of a wireless telegraph have been successfully operated under the supervision of the late Count de Chateau-Amplieux.

Application has been made for patents in this connection, with this state. The invention is expected at the end of next month.

EVENING WORLD RACE CHART ELEVENTH DAY AT GRAVESEND. AUTUMN MEETING.

SEPT. 27 CLOUDY. TRACK GOOD.

Table with columns: Race, Time, Post, etc. Includes 976 FIRST RACE, 977 SECOND RACE, 978 THIRD RACE, 979 FOURTH RACE.

Table with columns: Race, Time, Post, etc. Includes 980 FIFTH RACE, 981 SIXTH RACE.

Table with columns: Race, Time, Post, etc. Includes 982 SEVENTH RACE, 983 EIGHTH RACE.

Table with columns: Race, Time, Post, etc. Includes 984 NINTH RACE, 985 TENTH RACE.

Table with columns: Race, Time, Post, etc. Includes 986 ELEVENTH RACE, 987 TWELFTH RACE.

Table with columns: Race, Time, Post, etc. Includes 988 THIRTEENTH RACE, 989 FOURTEENTH RACE.

Table with columns: Race, Time, Post, etc. Includes 990 FIFTEENTH RACE, 991 SIXTEENTH RACE.

Table with columns: Race, Time, Post, etc. Includes 992 SEVENTEENTH RACE, 993 EIGHTEENTH RACE.

Table with columns: Race, Time, Post, etc. Includes 994 NINETEENTH RACE, 995 TWENTIETH RACE.

Table with columns: Race, Time, Post, etc. Includes 996 TWENTY-FIRST RACE, 997 TWENTY-SECOND RACE.

Table with columns: Race, Time, Post, etc. Includes 998 TWENTY-THIRD RACE, 999 TWENTY-FOURTH RACE.

Table with columns: Race, Time, Post, etc. Includes 1000 TWENTY-FIFTH RACE, 1001 TWENTY-SIXTH RACE.

Table with columns: Race, Time, Post, etc. Includes 1002 TWENTY-SEVENTH RACE, 1003 TWENTY-EIGHTH RACE.

Table with columns: Race, Time, Post, etc. Includes 1004 TWENTY-NINTH RACE, 1005 THIRTIETH RACE.

Table with columns: Race, Time, Post, etc. Includes 1006 THIRTY-FIRST RACE, 1007 THIRTY-SECOND RACE.

Table with columns: Race, Time, Post, etc. Includes 1008 THIRTY-THIRD RACE, 1009 THIRTY-FOURTH RACE.

THIEF GRABBED $3 PACKAGE, NOT THE $7,000 ONE

Didn't Get Far With That, for Detectives Saw Him Take It.

LED CROWD IN A CHASE. Sleuths Caught the Thief and He Was Held for Trial.

Detective Lieuts. Cassarea and McKenna, walking at noon in Warren street, near Broadway, saw a man snatch one of two packages on the seat of a United States Express wagon.

The sleuths gave chase, joined by a great string of lunch-hour loiterers, and nabbed the man with the stolen package under his arm. He was taken at once to the Centre Street Police Court, where he gave his name as George H. Murphy. The detectives said that he had just left Sing Sing.

The driver of the express wagon was William Crummeur. He made a charge of petty larceny, the package the man grabbed containing $3 worth of books consigned to Harry T. Head, of No. 250 Broadway. Murphy thought he was playing hard-boiled until he was told that the other package—the one he just seized—contained $7,000 worth of jewelry consigned to a local firm. Had he grabbed that he would have been arrested on a grand larceny charge.

Magistrate Finn sent Murphy to the Tombs to await trial in Special Sessions.

LAUREL CUT-UPS HERE, DOWN THE TOWN, BY GOSH!

An' They Got Their Silver Cornet Band from York, Pa., With 'Em, Too.

Laurel Hose Company, of York, Pa., is in town stopping up to the Albany Hotel on Main street, at the corner of Forty-first, and if you think the boys ain't cuttin' up some in the Tenderloin you're off your nozzie, by gosh! Them Laurels certainly ain't afraid of the cars.

The boys got their uniforms with 'em, and they wear 'em, too—red shirts and blue pants and blue caps, an' they ain't afraid of work neither. They ain't afraid of work neither. They ain't afraid of work neither.

George Kroll, the foreman, and George Grumbough, the assistant foreman, are steering the Laurels as their band around an 'they ain't overlookin' anything. You see, the Laurels boys have made their way into the Tenderloin, and they are followed by crowds whenever they leave the hotel. Down in York nobody pays any attention to 'em.

The boys got in yesterday afternoon, and they ain't overlookin' anything. You see, the Laurels boys have made their way into the Tenderloin, and they are followed by crowds whenever they leave the hotel. Down in York nobody pays any attention to 'em.

The boys got in yesterday afternoon, and they ain't overlookin' anything. You see, the Laurels boys have made their way into the Tenderloin, and they are followed by crowds whenever they leave the hotel. Down in York nobody pays any attention to 'em.

The boys got in yesterday afternoon, and they ain't overlookin' anything. You see, the Laurels boys have made their way into the Tenderloin, and they are followed by crowds whenever they leave the hotel. Down in York nobody pays any attention to 'em.

The boys got in yesterday afternoon, and they ain't overlookin' anything. You see, the Laurels boys have made their way into the Tenderloin, and they are followed by crowds whenever they leave the hotel. Down in York nobody pays any attention to 'em.

The boys got in yesterday afternoon, and they ain't overlookin' anything. You see, the Laurels boys have made their way into the Tenderloin, and they are followed by crowds whenever they leave the hotel. Down in York nobody pays any attention to 'em.

The boys got in yesterday afternoon, and they ain't overlookin' anything. You see, the Laurels boys have made their way into the Tenderloin, and they are followed by crowds whenever they leave the hotel. Down in York nobody pays any attention to 'em.

The boys got in yesterday afternoon, and they ain't overlookin' anything. You see, the Laurels boys have made their way into the Tenderloin, and they are followed by crowds whenever they leave the hotel. Down in York nobody pays any attention to 'em.

The boys got in yesterday afternoon, and they ain't overlookin' anything. You see, the Laurels boys have made their way into the Tenderloin, and they are followed by crowds whenever they leave the hotel. Down in York nobody pays any attention to 'em.

The boys got in yesterday afternoon, and they ain't overlookin' anything. You see, the Laurels boys have made their way into the Tenderloin, and they are followed by crowds whenever they leave the hotel. Down in York nobody pays any attention to 'em.

The boys got in yesterday afternoon, and they ain't overlookin' anything. You see, the Laurels boys have made their way into the Tenderloin, and they are followed by crowds whenever they leave the hotel. Down in York nobody pays any attention to 'em.

The boys got in yesterday afternoon, and they ain't overlookin' anything. You see, the Laurels boys have made their way into the Tenderloin, and they are followed by crowds whenever they leave the hotel. Down in York nobody pays any attention to 'em.

The boys got in yesterday afternoon, and they ain't overlookin' anything. You see, the Laurels boys have made their way into the Tenderloin, and they are followed by crowds whenever they leave the hotel. Down in York nobody pays any attention to 'em.

The boys got in yesterday afternoon, and they ain't overlookin' anything. You see, the Laurels boys have made their way into the Tenderloin, and they are followed by crowds whenever they leave the hotel. Down in York nobody pays any attention to 'em.

The boys got in yesterday afternoon, and they ain't overlookin' anything. You see, the Laurels boys have made their way into the Tenderloin, and they are followed by crowds whenever they leave the hotel. Down in York nobody pays any attention to 'em.

The boys got in yesterday afternoon, and they ain't overlookin' anything. You see, the Laurels boys have made their way into the Tenderloin, and they are followed by crowds whenever they leave the hotel. Down in York nobody pays any attention to 'em.

The boys got in yesterday afternoon, and they ain't overlookin' anything. You see, the Laurels boys have made their way into the Tenderloin, and they are followed by crowds whenever they leave the hotel. Down in York nobody pays any attention to 'em.

The boys got in yesterday afternoon, and they ain't overlookin' anything. You see, the Laurels boys have made their way into the Tenderloin, and they are followed by crowds whenever they leave the hotel. Down in York nobody pays any attention to 'em.

The boys got in yesterday afternoon, and they ain't overlookin' anything. You see, the Laurels boys have made their way into the Tenderloin, and they are followed by crowds whenever they leave the hotel. Down in York nobody pays any attention to 'em.

The boys got in yesterday afternoon, and they ain't overlookin' anything. You see, the Laurels boys have made their way into the Tenderloin, and they are followed by crowds whenever they leave the hotel. Down in York nobody pays any attention to 'em.

The boys got in yesterday afternoon, and they ain't overlookin' anything. You see, the Laurels boys have made their way into the Tenderloin, and they are followed by crowds whenever they leave the hotel. Down in York nobody pays any attention to 'em.

The boys got in yesterday afternoon, and they ain't overlookin' anything. You see, the Laurels boys have made their way into the Tenderloin, and they are followed by crowds whenever they leave the hotel. Down in York nobody pays any attention to 'em.

The boys got in yesterday afternoon, and they ain't overlookin' anything. You see, the Laurels boys have made their way into the Tenderloin, and they are followed by crowds whenever they leave the hotel. Down in York nobody pays any attention to 'em.

The boys got in yesterday afternoon, and they ain't overlookin' anything. You see, the Laurels boys have made their way into the Tenderloin, and they are followed by crowds whenever they leave the hotel. Down in York nobody pays any attention to 'em.

The boys got in yesterday afternoon, and they ain't overlookin' anything. You see, the Laurels boys have made their way into the Tenderloin, and they are followed by crowds whenever they leave the hotel. Down in York nobody pays any attention to 'em.

The boys got in yesterday afternoon, and they ain't overlookin' anything. You see, the Laurels boys have made their way into the Tenderloin, and they are followed by crowds whenever they leave the hotel. Down in York nobody pays any attention to 'em.

1002 GIRLS COME ON LINER BALTIC TO FIND HUSBANDS

Army of Invaders all Blooming, Fresh and Willing—Scandinavian Blonde Alone of Her Race to Prospect Minneapolis.

In the steers of the White Star liner Baltic, which arrived to-day, were 1,002 marriageable young women, all pretty and fresh and blooming—and willing a few of them are working girls who have been abroad, spending their savings at their old homes, but fully 50 are right from the country districts of Ireland, England, Scotland and Wales. There was a lone Scandinavian, a young girl, named Jansen, a dazzling blonde, and it is about 19 to 1 that her name won't be Jansen long after she invades Minneapolis.

About half the aggregation of new arrivals is scheduled to remain in New York. The others will scatter all over the country. A large office specializing in looking out for the crowd, estimated that they represent an eventual increase in the population of the United States of considerable proportions.

Boarding Folk Spruced Up. News of their coming had been cabled from Liverpool and there was extraordinary interest in their arrival. The boarding officers at Quarantine wore their newest uniforms, the revenue officers and reporters who went down on the cutter were resplendent in dazzling autumn attire, and the male attendants at Ellis Island were spruced up in an amazing way.

The up-to-date American girls in the contingent had prepared their alien sisters for the arrival in New York. As the 1,002 lined up at the rail of the ship at Quarantine, a majority waved small American flags. As soon as the reporters boarded the ship they made a rush for the third cabin quarters.

Blondes and brunettes were about equally divided. Here and there was a red-haired young Hebe. One in particular, Nova O'Brien, from Limerick, has a crown of burnished gold that makes her Leslie Carter a look like a collection of faded rope. A certain young girl was waiting for her at Ellis Island, Nora Condon.

When told that they had been heralded as a consignment forwarded to the United States by Cupids, the young women exhibited every mark of pleasure in a few minutes the keenest interest in their exchange of good-bored reports with their visitors.

She Heads for Pittsburg. "The name," said Miss Thompson, from Loch Carr, Tipperary, "that there was no man in Pittsburg but that I am going there and my soon I'll be bringin' in my own carriage, I suppose."

"I am going to a stunning brunette from Galway, was the only one of the lot found for Kansas. She has relatives in the State. Curiously enough, a Kansas farmer, reading in his paper the other day of the departure from England of the 1,002 marriageable lassies, wrote to the White Star Line, setting forth his wish to become the husband of one of the girls."

He said he was a widower, with two small daughters, a white house with green shutters, a rubber-dirt buggy, many horses, and money in the bank. Miss Donohue was told of the Kansas man.

"Indeed," she remarked, "it's no interest to me. There's a boy in Topeka waiting for me to arrive there."

The White Star Line officers agreed that to-day's consignment was the finest bunch of girls who ever carried to the United States. All preparations have been made to hurry them through Ellis Island and start them out to flutter susceptible masculine hearts.

DETROIT TIGERS WIN HARD GAME FROM ATHLETICS

(Continued from First Page.)

throw a Schaefer double, scoring Donovan on Nichols. Davis, Reisterer, out. Nichols to Davis. NO RUNS.

Davis and Murphy both fanned. Coughlin doubled. O'Driscoll to Donovan on Rossman. NO RUNS.

Ninth Inning. Donovan popped to Murphy. Jones out. Nichols to Davis. Reisterer out. Nichols to Davis. NO RUNS.

Davis and Murphy both fanned. Coughlin doubled. O'Driscoll to Donovan on Rossman. NO RUNS.

Ninth Inning. Donovan popped to Murphy. Jones out. Nichols to Davis. Reisterer out. Nichols to Davis. NO RUNS.

Davis and Murphy both fanned. Coughlin doubled. O'Driscoll to Donovan on Rossman. NO RUNS.

Ninth Inning. Donovan popped to Murphy. Jones out. Nichols to Davis. Reisterer out. Nichols to Davis. NO RUNS.

Davis and Murphy both fanned. Coughlin doubled. O'Driscoll to Donovan on Rossman. NO RUNS.

Ninth Inning. Donovan popped to Murphy. Jones out. Nichols to Davis. Reisterer out. Nichols to Davis. NO RUNS.

Davis and Murphy both fanned. Coughlin doubled. O'Driscoll to Donovan on Rossman. NO RUNS.

Ninth Inning. Donovan popped to Murphy. Jones out. Nichols to Davis. Reisterer out. Nichols to Davis. NO RUNS.

Davis and Murphy both fanned. Coughlin doubled. O'Driscoll to Donovan on Rossman. NO RUNS.

Ninth Inning. Donovan popped to Murphy. Jones out. Nichols to Davis. Reisterer out. Nichols to Davis. NO RUNS.

Davis and Murphy both fanned. Coughlin doubled. O'Driscoll to Donovan on Rossman. NO RUNS.

Ninth Inning. Donovan popped to Murphy. Jones out. Nichols to Davis. Reisterer out. Nichols to Davis. NO RUNS.

Davis and Murphy both fanned. Coughlin doubled. O'Driscoll to Donovan on Rossman. NO RUNS.

Ninth Inning. Donovan popped to Murphy. Jones out. Nichols to Davis. Reisterer out. Nichols to Davis. NO RUNS.

Davis and Murphy both fanned. Coughlin doubled. O'Driscoll to Donovan on Rossman. NO RUNS.

Ninth Inning. Donovan popped to Murphy. Jones out. Nichols to Davis. Reisterer out. Nichols to Davis. NO RUNS.

Davis and Murphy both fanned. Coughlin doubled. O'Driscoll to Donovan on Rossman. NO RUNS.

Ninth Inning. Donovan popped to Murphy. Jones out. Nichols to Davis. Reisterer out. Nichols to Davis. NO RUNS.

Help Wanted To-Day! advertised for in The Morning World's Want Directory. List of various jobs and services available.

SEIZED GIRL HE LOVED ON STREET AND DASHED AWAY. AMERICANS IN AUTO SMASH AND PEASANT KILLED.

BLAZE AT TUNNEL DRIVES WORKERS OUT. BURNING TAR BARREL ALSO SCARES PARK AVENUE HOTEL GUESTS.

BELLEVUE DOCTOR TO MARRY PATIENT. He is Dr. Henry Pearson and She Mrs. S. M. Macartney, of Gallian, Ala.

200 CLERKS STRIKE ON SIX RAILROADS.

RENOVIATION FOR GAYNOR. Justice William J. Gaynor was unanimously renominated for Justice of the Supreme Court for the Second Judicial District at a convention of the Independent Order of Foresters held in the Hotel Iroquois.

MINIATURE RAILROAD RUN BY WIRELESS TELEGRAPH.