Positively Unprecedented Values in Girls' and Misses' Suits and Coats.

WE'D make a stronger statement expressive of the values if we possibly could, because we are confident of our ability to back up every assertion. No wonder we do the largest Girls' and Misses' Suit and Coat business in America. It's ours by right of unmatched values—ours by right of superior style—ours by your appreciation of the Simpson-Crawford Company's label.

A maker whose very name is synonymous with those smart, dressy, extremely stylish garments for Misses came to us and asked us to take off his hands two hundred suits which an exclusive house was unable to accept. We made him a proposition, the reluctant acceptance of which made these Friday values possible—made it possible for us to give you this bargain message:

Just 200 Misses' Suits—workmanship, material, style and finish warrant us in making the statement that these are $39.75 Suits. We could have said $40, but that would not have been so, for we have had the suits in regular stock at $37.50. The only unfortunate part of it is that we've only two hundred. A great quantity for some houses, but not many for us, and Saturday's price will make them sell fast. Shadow striped heavy-weight cheviot in all the new shades; Coats semi-fitted, lined with silk satin, also interlined, full pleated skirt, finished with fold.
