

BAKER BEQUEATHS TO NATALIE HURD $1,000,000 OF PROPERTY

Mrs. Helen B. Hurd, N.F. Baker, Mrs. Young. MAN BROTHER THINKS WAS MURDERED; TWO WOMEN WHOSE FRIEND HE WAS.

Baker's Will Found To-Day Also Gives the Little One's Mother, Mrs. Hurd, $2,000, and Mrs. George W. Young $5,000.

The will of Walter Farnsworth Baker, the Boston clubman, who died on Oct. 26 under circumstances which have driven his relatives to assert that he was murdered by poison for the sake of his property, has been found.

Baker leaves $5,000 of the big estate which he inherited from his mother to Mrs. George W. Young, the pretty New York woman to whom he was so attentive.

To the sister of Mrs. Young, Mrs. Frank H. Hurd, he leaves $2,000. To his brother, Edward F. Baker, who is now so vigorously declaring that the young man met a foul end, he leaves $10,000.

To various acquaintances of the New York Tenderloin—men as well as women—he leaves small bequests totalling $2,000.

The remainder of his property, valued at more than $1,000,000, he gives to Natalie Hurd, the four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hurd, at whose home in Bogota, N. J., he died without medical attention, having been removed there from Brown's chop house on Broadway in a dying condition, after pleading that he was poisoned.

It is learned upon unimpeachable authority that the Boston brother, Edward F. Baker, discovered the will to-day in the safe deposit vault and the will is now in his possession.

Watching Suspects of Both Sexes. To an Evening-World reporter District Attorney Ernest Koester, of Bergen County, N. J., made this statement this afternoon:

"I am prepared to act as soon as information which would warrant arrests for murder or for any other crime is laid before me. The Pinkerton men who have been employed by Walter F. Baker's relatives are making reports to me which I am following up as close as possible.

"I am not informed that the supposed will of Walter Baker has been found in any other city. I understand that the writing and the language of this document are such as to indicate that Baker was laboring under undue excitement and possibly was under undue influences at the time he made this will.

"As yet I have nothing tangible that would allow of definite action, but the detectives tell me that they will soon be able to supply me with sufficient evidence to justify me in ordering the Sheriff of this county to take into custody more than one person.

"I will tell you this much—there are suspects of both sexes and those suspects are now being watched."

Mr. Koester left Hackensack this afternoon after a conference with several detectives. He did not give his destination. On the advice of their lawyer, Malcolm Lawrence, of this city, the Hurds had declined to admit persons who persisted in visiting them at their home near Bogota. Pinkertons could be seen scattered through the neighborhood.

Mrs. George W. Young, of whom Walter Baker was fond, has not been interviewed since she suddenly gave up her apartments in the Nottingham on West Thirtieth street, night before last. At the Nottingham the clerk said yesterday Mrs. Young told him she was going to Bogota, but Mrs. Hurd de-will in which he believed his brother had bequeathed his estate to other members of the Baker family, he—Edward Baker—would be prepared to make formal charges of murder. He has found the will. Pinkertons are said to have promised him that by to-morrow they will tell him where Frank Baker spent his time on the evening of Oct. 26, before the fatal seizure came upon the dissipated young millionaire.

Frank N. Nay, a Boston lawyer, who has been here investigating the death of young Baker went back last night. "This theory the detectives think they

TO PRETENDERS. A Wholesome Word for Guidance. Just a word to you, "Collier's" and other glaring examples of Modern Yellow Journalism and Cigarettes.

Environment gives you a view point from which it is difficult to understand that some people even nowadays act from motives of old fashioned honesty.

There are honest makers of foods and healthful beverages and there are honest people who use them. Perhaps you are trained to believe there is no honesty in this world. There is, although you may not be of a kind to understand it.

Some of you have been trained in a sorry class of pretenders, but your training does not taint the old fashioned person trained without knowledge of pretense and deceit.

These pretenses come to us absolutely without solicitation. We have a great many thousand from people who have been helped or entirely healed by following the suggestions to quit the food or drink which may be causing the physical complaints and change to Postum Coffee or Grape-Nuts food.

You are not intelligent enough to know the technical reasons why the change makes a change in the cells of the body. Your knowledge, or lack of knowledge, makes not the slightest difference in the facts.

You can print from old and worn plates all the cheap books your press will produce and sell them as best you can, but such acts and your "learned" editorials are but commercial, and seek only "dollars" and much by pretenses.

When you branch out into food values you become only ridiculous. Stick to what you know. The field may be small but it is safe.

This first letter is from the President of the "Christian Nation," a worthy Christian paper of New York, New York, Oct. 5, 1907. Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich.

Dear Sirs: I am, this morning, in receipt of the enclosed mighty good letter from one of my subscribers, which I forward to you, and which I am sure you will be glad to use. I am personally acquainted with this lady, and know that she has no object in writing other than to do good.

Cordially, John W. Pritchard, Pres. Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 1, 1907. Noticing Postum Food Coffee advertised each week in your reliable paper, I concluded to try it, and feeling it a duty towards those who may have suffered as I have from indigestion, desire to state what wonderful benefit I have received from Postum although using only a short time, and not do I alone realize and appreciate its good effects, but friends remark, "How much I have improved and how well I look," and I tell the facts about Postum every time, for since using it I have not had one attack of indigestion. It is invigorating, healthful; does not affect the nerves as ordinary coffee, and if properly made, a most delicious drink. Although I have not had much faith in general advertising, yet, finding Postum has done so much better for me than I expected I am more inclined to "Prove all things, hold fast that which is good." I am so thankful for good health that I want it known what a blessing Postum has been to me. You may use these few lines as an ad. if you so desire and my name also.

Very truly yours, Mrs. M. S. Reeves. 275 McDonough St., Brooklyn. Coffee hurt her, she quit and used Postum. She didn't attempt to analyze but she enjoyed the results. Un-derneath it all "There's a Reason." POSTUM CEREAL CO. LTD.

Man Who Was with Baker. In their efforts to find every person who took part in the events of the night of Baker's death, the detectives were informed that George W. Birmingham accompanied Frank H. Hurd when the latter was summoned to Brown's chop house to care for Baker. Birmingham, the detectives were told, was in the Hotel Nottingham when Hurd was summoned from Mrs. George W. Young's apartment. After Baker's arrival at the Hotel home in Bogota, an account was found in the automobile and was later identified, the detectives say, as Birmingham's. Birmingham is understood to be a friend of the Hurds and of Mrs. Young. He went to Boston to be present at the funeral, but departed before it was held, the day being carried by the order of Edward Baker that a chemical analysis be made. Birmingham is said to be employed by

His Closest Friends. Probably Walter Baker's closest friends were Mr. and Mrs. Hurd, who have a country place at Bogota, N. J., and Mrs. Hurd's sister, Mrs. George W. Young, whose husband was the friend of the widow's Trust Company. Birmingham had a long conference with Supt. Dougherty, of the Pinkerton agency in the Nassau street office of the Windsor Trust Company yesterday afternoon. At the conclusion of the conference, Mr. Young, if the conference has to do with the investigation of Mr. Baker's death. "I know nothing about the case, and I have absolutely nothing to say concerning it," he replied. Supt. Dougherty was likewise uncommunicative. Mr. and Mrs. Hurd and Mrs. Young dined with Baker on the night of Oct. 26, when he died. He left them in a restaurant near Broadway to join another party of friends who subsequently went to Brown's chop house, where he was stricken and when he was taken in an automobile to the Hurd home.
