ROOSEVELT TOLD OF

BIG DEMONSTRATION, CONFERS WITH TAFT

President Is Expected to Send Message to Convention Touching on a Possible Stampede for His Renomination at Chicago.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—After word had been received at the White House that the cheering for President Roosevelt in the convention hall had continued forty-five minutes Secretary Taft came over to the White House, and with his usual good-natured smile hurriedly went into the President's office. Mr. Roosevelt had been carefully reading all the bulletins received direct at the White House, and both he and Mr. Taft were fully informed what was taking place in the convention hall.

One sentence in the President's bulletins impressed him very forcibly as indicating that the delegates were not all, in fact, carried away by the excitement. That was a statement that two-thirds of the delegates had retained their seats, but the conference between the President and Mr. Taft may result in some message to be sent to the convention direct from the White House in order to restore normal conditions there.

Secretary Taft was in communication with his managers in Chicago and kept pace with the situation as it developed from incident to incident. Reports of the committees to the convention, which had been forecasted in the early private advices, were received with satisfaction, both by the Secretary and by the President.

There were important exchanges between Mr. Taft and his Chicago friends as to the platform, especially as to the anti-injunction plank. The view here is that the plank will be retained in the platform as it was agreed upon tentatively.

A rumor was in circulation to-day that if the plank should be eliminated Secretary Taft, in the event of his nomination, might find later a way, probably in his speech of acceptance, to announce authoritatively his own views on the subject.

WILL HELP TAFT, SAYS HITCHCOCK.

CHICAGO, June 17.—Frank H. Hitchcock, manager for Taft, was on the convention floor during the demonstration for Roosevelt. He expressed pleasure at the uproar, and said: "It shows how popular the Administration is, particularly how President Roosevelt stands with the people. I am glad of this. It will help Taft, for he is President Roosevelt's choice as his successor."

WHITE BOX PARK, CHICAGO, June 17.—Garry Hermann day and the Highlanders as a joint attraction brought a big crowd out to the Coniskey ball yard this afternoon, and thousands were there who will say when they get home that they were in the Coliseum during the whole afternoon.

The preliminary ceremonies, including a parade by the white-hatted Blaine Club and a bustle of sorted music, made a great hit with the populace, and Garry Hermann made an other hit with his famous spallity, "Who is the Winner?" Distinguished guests filled the boxes, and Coniskey and Garry did their best to fill the distinguished guests. Grand combination and deserving of success.

Griffith came out with the look of a hunted man in his eye—that is, the way the books say a hunted lion looks. Most people said that Griff simply looked mad as he went through.
