WIFE GETS DECREE OF DIVORCE FROM D. LE ROY DRESSER

Decree Granted To-Day on the Charge of Desertion in Sioux Falls, S. Dak., Where Mrs. Dresser Has Been Living for Six Months.

(Special to The Evening World.)
SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Aug. 10.—Mrs. Daniel Le Roy Dresser today obtained a decree of divorce from D. Le Roy Dresser, of New York, brother-in-law of George W. Vanderbilt and uncle of John Nicholas Brown, who in his infancy was known as the richest baby in the world.

Mrs. Dresser obtained her decree on the ground of desertion. She and Mr. Dresser separated about a year and a half ago. Mrs. Dresser has been a resident of Sioux Falls for the past six months.

(Special to The Evening World.)
SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Aug. 10.—Mrs. Daniel Le Roy Dresser today obtained a decree of divorce from D. Le Roy Dresser, of New York, brother-in-law of George W. Vanderbilt and uncle of John Nicholas Brown, who in his infancy was known as the richest baby in the world.

Mrs. Dresser obtained her decree on the ground of desertion. She and Mr. Dresser separated about a year and a half ago. Mrs. Dresser has been a resident of Sioux Falls for the past six months.

Mrs. Dresser was Miss Emma Louise Burnham, daughter of the late Douglas W. Burnham. She was married to Mr. Dresser on Nov. 20, 1889. Upon the death of her father she inherited a fortune of $100,000.

The domestic troubles of the Dressers followed swiftly upon the collapse of the husband's finances. He was head of the firm of Dresser & Co., commission merchants, but became heavily involved in the affairs of the Shipbuilding Trust.

Her Fortune Gone.
It was reported at the time that Mrs. Dresser's private fortune had been swallowed up with the fortune of her husband, and last May, when interviewed in Sioux City, Mrs. Dresser said she expected to have to earn her own living. She declared that she would enter a business college and learn shorthand.

In June, 1907, a firm of lawyers representing Mrs. Dresser gave notice that they would file a motion in his behalf for an order restraining Mrs. Dresser from taking her two children abroad. In connection with this proceeding it was learned that Mrs. Dresser had brought suit for a limited divorce in New York County. Mrs. Dresser was allowed to go away with her children and the separation suit was dropped. Upon her return from Europe she went to South Dakota to establish a residence.

Gave Fine Entertainments.
The son of Col. Dresser, U. S. A., Daniel Le Roy Dresser, as a young man, was launched in the inner circle of New York's most exclusive society. After his marriage he maintained an extensive country place near Oyster Bay in addition to a town house. They entertained on a princely scale. At the time Mr. Dresser got into financial difficulties it was thought that the Vanderbilts would come to his assistance, but he got no aid from that source.

Mrs. Dresser recently denied that her husband's failure in business had anything to do with their separation.

"The implication that I left Mr. Dresser because he failed in business is absolutely untrue," she said. "Mr. Dresser's failure occurred six years ago, and up to a year and a half ago I lived with him. It is a well-known fact in New York that he deserted me at that time. I have never been so prodigiously fond of society that I shall miss it."

SIXTY ARRESTS FOR ALABAMA TRAIN ATTACK.

Negroes and foreigners were arrested and many are being taken to the jail at Centerville, the county seat of Bibb County. Many citizens of Birmingham are asking the Governor to declare martial law in the mining district.

Robert Hayes, President of the Miners' Local Union at Blocton, was one of those placed under arrest.

WRIGHT STOPPED OFFICER WHO "SNAPPED" AEROPLANE

LE VANS, France, Aug. 10.—Wilbur Wright, of Dayton, Ohio, who made a successful flight with his aeroplane here last Saturday, spent today testing his aeroplane and trying to ward off the active army of photographers who were clamoring to take a picture of himself and his kite machine. The rights for which have already been contracted for. A French army captain snapped the plates he handed over to him or destroyed.

Mr. Wright may possibly attempt another flight this evening.

RACES IN AUTO FOR TRAIN, LEAPS AND IS MANGLED

Eager to See His Sweetheart, Staten Island Man Takes Daring Chances and Dies.

HURLED UNDER WHEELS

Jumps for Moving Train After Dash, Falls, Jumps and Misses a Second Time.

(Special to The Evening World.)
SARATOGA RACE TRACK, Aug. 10.—While trying to board a moving train at the Deal Beach station today Murray V. Arthur, twenty-two years old, a contractor, of Longan Hills, S. I., lost his hold and fell under the wheels. Both legs were so badly mangled from the knees down that they had to be amputated at the Monmouth Memorial Hospital. Arthur died a few hours later.

Arthur's eagerness to board the train was due to the fact that he thought that Miss Janet Shanley, to whom he has been attentive, was on board. Miss Shanley is a daughter of J. F. Shanley, a wealthy contractor of Newark, who has a summer home at Allentown, Pa.

Arthur first tried to catch the train at the Allentown station. It was a special from Assury Park to New York. He drove in an automobile to the Allentown station, but just missed the train, and he made up his mind to try to catch it at the Deal Beach station, a mile and a half away.

He put on full speed and beat the train to Deal, but it was not scheduled to stop there. It slowed down as it approached the station, however, and Arthur sprang from his automobile and prepared to make the attempt to board it.

As it ran past the platform of the station he grasped at the hand rails of one of the cars, but failed to get a good hold and fell. He was not hurt, and quickly got up and made another effort to get hold of the train.

The last coach was passing and he got hold of the rails of the front platform, but again he failed to maintain his grasp and was hurled under the wheels.

EDISON FLYING MACHINE IS NOT EVEN A DREAM.

Wife of Wizard Promptly Takes All Interest Out of This Yarn.

A report was published this afternoon that Thomas A. Edison, the wizard of Llewellyn Park, had invented a flying machine that would jump right up in the air and fly. No pushing or shooting preliminary start was required for the Edison aeroplane, ran the yarn, and Henry Farman, the French aeroplane, was out in the Oranges looking over the plans.

Inquiry revealed that Mr. Edison was away from home on business. Mrs. Edison said, regarding the flying machine report: "Why, Mr. Edison never thought of such a thing unless in his dreams."

CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 10.—The Cincinnati club today turned catcher Dunn, purchased from Evansville (Ind.) team, over to the Brooklyn club. Dunn was the best backstop in the Central League.

FURTHER RECALLED. Aug. 10.—Results in the races here to-day were as follows:

SEACLIFF, OWNED BY H. P. WHITNEY, WINS HANDICAP

Goconda, at 5 to 1, First in Saranac Stake at Saratoga.

BAD FALL IN THE CHASE.

Steeplemaker, With Henry Up, Goes Down and Is Later Destroyed.

(Special to The Evening World.)
SARATOGA RACE TRACK, Aug. 10.—Racing has settled down in its stride here, and aside from the performance of the horses there was nothing of interest at the track to-day. The sun was scorchingly hot and those at the course buzzed the grand stand to keep out of its hot rays.

There is really nothing in the reported match of J. R. Keene's filly Maskette and John E. Madden's champion Sir Martin. Mr. Keene wanted the match to be run Thursday, but Sir Martin has a valuable engagement in the Hopeful Stakes and his owner didn't want to take any chances. It is possible, however, they may meet in the Flatbush after the Futurity.

Tips Are Plentiful.
Tips were numerous in the opening event, Variation was the hottest variety, but the best she could do was second behind the form horse Prudent, who took it into his head to stick it out today. Prudent was off flying, and in the run to the stretch turn opened a gap of six lengths. He was stopping fast, however, at the end, and just did win by a head from Variation, with Yankee Daughter, which ran next to last to second on the stretch turn. Chapman had some early speed, but stopped badly before the turn for home was reached.

St. Nick Wins Chase.

Jimmy Lane was scratched from the steeplechase and St. Nick, the other Campbell entry, was made a hot choice. The first break was a false one, and Canvan ran away six furlongs through the field before Davidson could muster in. When they finally got away Canvan was led until the runaway effort told on him, and then St. Nick went to the front and breezed home.

Steeplemaker, three Henry out to the horse's neck, while the women, mindful of Broodmare's death, shrieked in horror. Henry finally dismounted himself and fell to the ground. He was up in a jiffy and chased after Steeplemaker, but he was so tired that he never ran for last, stopped to rest in the backstretch. He was very lame and could not be remounted.

TRANSFERS TO BE ORDERED OVER 59TH ST. LINE

Public Service Commission Expected to Direct Old Plan Resumed.

Although nothing in the way of an official announcement could be obtained today, it is regarded as being almost certain that an order for transfers between the Belt Line and the Metropolitan lines will be adopted by the Public Service Commission tomorrow. The valuation of the properties has not been completed, but even without the data that such a valuation would give, the claim that a transfer order could be satisfactory was ridiculed today at the offices of the commission.

The reason is found in the fact that the Metropolitan carries passengers between the Harlem River and the Battery for five cents, with any number of transfers, if they use any of the Metropolitan cross-town lines. Yet between any two points from One Hundred and Sixteenth street to Thirty-fourth street a passenger on a Metropolitan line traveling to transfer across at Fifty-ninth street would have to pay five cents for the three rides.

It is argued that if it pays a profit to carry a passenger from One Hundred and Fifty-fifth street to the Battery for five cents, there must be a profit in taking him from any point between Thirty-fourth and One Hundred and Sixteenth streets to any other point in that zone.

The only real difficulty will lie in the adjustment of the relative portion of the five cents to go to each company.

As to any interference from the Federal courts, it is held that no such interference is to be expected unless State or local authorities undertake to adopt rules that would be discriminatory.

GIANTS DOWN CUBS ONCE MORE

(Special to The Evening World.)
POLO GROUNDS, Aug. 10.—Although outbathed, luck was with the Giants today, and they took the second game of the series from the Cubs.

Three runs came over the plate in the first inning through Herzog's remarkable base running. Bresnahan's hit and Evers' raw error. As the Cubs were mowed down in order the crowd howled itself hoarse.

The smashing of records on Saturday is a common occurrence, but the fans caught the management unawares today and completely overran the stands and the fields. They easily numbered 20,000, and it was the largest Monday gathering that baseball ever has known.

Thousands did not get in the grounds and took to the hills around the park. Spectators in the bleachers were treated to the novel sight of Coogan's Bluff literally covered with people who hung on the huge boulders like flies. The crowd which poured on to the grass was finally massed back of the foul lines, so that a ground rule on long hits would not be necessary. Larry Doyle, New York's second baseman, was accidentally spiked during practice and had to be carried to the club house, where his wound was dressed. It was necessary for Herzog to take his place at second base.

First Inning.

Mathewson tossed out Slagle. Sheppard and popped out to Herzog. Bellwalk threw out Chance. NO RUNS.

Tenney lined out to Slagle. Herzog walked. Bresnahan smashed a two-bagger to left field, and one of the special policemen picked up the ball and tossed it back to the infield. Herzog, who had crossed the plate, was sent back to third base. Overall got Donlin's bounder, but Herzog, by a great sprint to the plate, scored. Donlin was caught in a chase between second base and third, and Bresnahan started for home. Evers then threw to catch Bresnahan, but the ball went wild and Bresnahan scored, while Donlin took third base. Seymour flied out to Slagle and Donlin scored. Chance bled a wonderful one-hander, a catch of Overall's low-line drive over first base.

Second Inning.

Evers fouled out to Tenney. Steinfield struck out. Howard got the same dose. NO RUNS.

After a great run, Steinfield nabbed Barry's foul fly. Tinker threw out Bridwell. Evers tossed out Matty. NO RUNS.

Third Inning.

Tinker smashed a long single into left field. Kling followed with another to left field. Matty grabbed Overall's ball and threw to Devin in time to force out Tinker. Matty also threw out Slagle while the others advanced. Steinfield then retired the side with a long fly to Donlin. NO RUNS.

Tenney lined out to Overall. Herzog struck out. Chance, unassisted, Bresnahan was thrown out by Overall. NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning.

Chance hoisted a high fly to Barry. Evers fouled out to Slagle. Steinfield struck out. NO RUNS.

Donlin was out on a fly to Slagle and Seymour lined out to Sheppard in left field. Devin flied out to Slagle. NO RUNS.

Fifth Inning.

Howard struck out for the second time. Tinker singled over second base. Chance flied out to Donlin and Sheppard struck out. Bresnahan threw out Overall. NO RUNS.

Barry was out on a grounder. Chance fouled out to Donlin and Steinfield walked. Herzog popped out to Slagle. Tinker threw out Seymour. Devin flied out to Evers. NO RUNS.

Sixth Inning.

Devin tossed out Slagle. Sheppard beat out a slow one to second base. Chance flied out to Donlin and Sheppard was out stealing second base. Bresnahan to Bridwell. NO RUNS.

Steinfeld made a great running catch to Sheppard. Slagle was waiting for Bresnahan's fly to center field. NO RUNS.

Seventh Inning.

Bridwell threw out Evers. Steinfield flied out to Barry. Howard popped out to Herzog. NO RUNS.

Sheppard made a great catch of Donlin's long fly. Tinker threw out Seymour. Devin popped out to Evers. NO RUNS.

He was treated by a physician, but gradually became worse and this afternoon was taken to the hospital for an operation. He died as he was being carried into the hospital.

This is the second case of the kind that has been reported to the Brooklyn police within a month.
