F. PINNEY EARLE IN JAIL FOR BEATING "AFFINITY" WIFE

Pleads Guilty and Is Held for Grand Jury—His Wife, Who Was Julia Kuttner, Packs Up and Leaves His Home.

(Special to The Evening World.)
MIDDLETOWN, Aug. 25.—Ferdinand Pinney Earle is in jail on a charge of brutally beating his present wife, who as Julia Kuttner figured as his affinity when he sent his former wife back to her parents in France. The complainant against him is his wife's mother.

A big sensation was created at Middletown this forenoon on the arrival of an automobile containing Sheriff A. L. Decker, Under Sheriff Frank E. Hook and Deputy Sheriff William Leonard. They at once proceeded to Summering, the summer home of Ferdinand Pinney Earle, and arrested him. He was arraigned before Justice Carpenter, of Monroe, charged with assault in the second degree. The complaint cited that on or about Aug. 15 Earle had brutally beaten his wife (Julia Kuttner) with his fist and otherwise mistreated her.

Earle made no resistance to the arrest, although it had been expected that he would put up a fight.

When arraigned before Justice Carpenter he was smiling and refused to have anything to do with the proceedings, appearing to consider them beneath his dignity. Dignity did not go, however, and he was asked to plead to the charge of assault. He pleaded guilty and was held to await the action of the Grand Jury.

When asked if he wished to give bail Earle stated that he did not and that he would go to jail. He plainly thought that he was being badly treated.

Earle was at once brought to Goshen, where he was locked up in the county jail. As the Grand Jury does not meet until October, it is probable that he will get tired of his quarters in the jail and will be glad to be released on bail.

The complaint in the action was made by the mother of Mrs. Earle. It is claimed that Mrs. Earle has not been well for some time and that she and her infant son have been cruelly treated. At the time the Sheriff's auto departed with Earle, another machine was waiting in the driveway in front of the house. The officers had no sooner departed with the prisoner than Mrs. Earle, her baby, nurse and her brother, who acted as chauffeur, entered the auto and hurried away in the direction of Central Valley, where Mrs. Earle and her child will remain with friends for the present.

Mrs. Earle took with her only her clothing and such other articles as she had brought with her to the Earle home. It is not known whether she had left the place for good, but it is believed she has decided that she is through with Earle for all time.

DICK ROLLER AT ODDS OF 6 TO 1 DEFEATS FOOTPAD

Surprise Comes in Fourth Race at Yonkers When Favorite Is Beaten.

By VINCENT TREANOR.

(Special to The Evening World.)
EMPIRE CITY TRACK, YONKERS, Aug. 25.—Dick Roller, son of the mile record holder, Dick Welles, showed a lot of his daddy's class and speed in the Knickerbocker Handicap here this afternoon. The race was one of those "about six furlongs affairs," and the time—1:10.25—shows it was a ravelled at a lively clip. Dick Roller won very impressively, coming from behind the field under a hand ride. Ebert, which came back after a long let up, had a lot of speed and made all the race right up to the sixteenth pole, where he succumbed to the rush of the stunner. Footpad evidently couldn't give the weight but ran a fair race, finishing out good and game to beat Wise Mason for the show money.

Wise Mason, by the way, wasn't very well handled by the new star, Butler. After trailing the field Butler saved many lengths at the turn for home. Under the whip he forced his way to the front and then made a mistake. Butler evidently figured he had the race won here, and put up his whip to hand ride the colt out.

The second he did this time Royal Tourist was leading by five lengths. Footpad stopped short and was soon headed by Dick Roller. Ebert and Wise Mason were running well under the whip persuasion and had Butler continued it he might have won the race.

Nimbus Takes Another.

Nimbus won his third race of the meeting in the handicap, second on the card. He came from behind King Colbat at the head of the stretch and won in very handy fashion. King Colbat, which made the pace very fast, stopped badly as if he needed the race, and Don Enrique closing in his usual fashion, got up to be an easy second, in front of Frestone.

Royal Tourist Is Beaten.

The Squire made good at last in the third race by beating out Royal Tourist, the 1 to 2 favorite. He made the pace, which he did in, too, for he didn't get into a contending position until just before the stretch turn was reached. At this time Royal Tourist was leading by half a length, but he was soon headed by Nimbus, who ran all around the field in the back stretch. When it came to a drive in the stretch the Squire was the most speed and gameness and drew away handily. Nimbus, which finished third, ran a very good race, making most of the early pace to the first turn.

McDaniel Rides Poor Race.

Black Oak lost the fifth race by a head only because of the worse finish of the meeting put up by McDaniel. Black Oak led all the way and was running easily until McDaniel got a bad case of rattles as little Bergen ranged alongside of him with Cymbal. Even at this time Black Oak should have come on to win, but McDaniel went to the whip. He bobbed from side to side in the saddle and did everything but fall off. This and nothing else stopped Black Oak and left Cymbal up. The rest of the field never was dangerous. Milford, a hot up, got the third money.

AMERICAN LEAGUE PARK, Aug. 25.

The Highlanders and the St. Louis Browns came together again this afternoon in the fourth and final game of their series. It was a trifle cool for baseball, but as the fans in this vicinity are all worked up over the showing of Johnny McGraw's Giants in Pittsburg just now, they consequently took advantage of the incentive of witnessing a ball game and also seeing the score board and came here in good numbers.

Manager Elberfeld was anxious to carry off today's game, and selected Manning to do the twirling for his team. Harry Howell, the ex-Highlander twirler, who has often beaten the local side he left them, asked Manager McAleer to let him go in the box against his old teammates, and McAleer granted his request.

First Inning.

Stone led off by smacking a long fly to deep center, which Hemphill collared after a run. Hartsell then walloped a ball to left for a base. Hartsell was nailed trying to steal second on Kleinow's perfect throw to Bell. Heldrick hit over Manning's head, but Laporte made a fast pick-up and threw to Chase, retiring the batter by a few inches. NO RUNS.

Second Inning.

Conroy laced the ball to center for a base, but Smith snipping him by a pretty throw to Wallace. McIlveen banged out a fly which Stone grabbed on the run near the foul line. Chase drove a fast grounder to Wallace, who got the ball to Jones in plenty of time to retire him. NO RUNS.

Third Inning.

Ferris made a safe hit to the infield, a slow roller to Bell. Wallace fanned out, and on Chase's muff of Kleinow's throw to catch Ferris, Manning the batter got to second. Williams fired a single to the infield which Laporte got under. Smith drove a bounder to Bell and the visitors took the field. NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning.

Hemphill made a pretty hit to right for a base. Ferris sacrificed, Smith sacrificed, and Williams fired a single to the infield which Laporte got under. Smith drove a bounder to Bell and the visitors took the field. NO RUNS.

Fifth Inning.

Jones contributed a single to center.

EXPOSITION PARK, PITTSBURG, Aug. 25.

The Giants are firmly entrenched in first place for the invasion of Chicago after they get through with the Pirates here to-morrow. The decisive victory to-day has taken the heart—all that was left in-out of the Pittsburg team, and they will not out much more figure as a championship possibility this season.

It's Chicago that the Giants have to fear now, but they don't. The Cubs have been fairly easy picking all season long for the McGraw bunch and they will keep it up on this trip. At least McGraw and every player on the team agree. "After we get through here to-morrow we will go to Chicago and give the Cubs the same kind of a dose that we gave the Pirates."

As another great crowd filed into Pittsburg Park this afternoon the Pirates and their legion of followers were still staggering under the awful beating they received at the hands of the Giants in the opening double-header which knocked them out of the lead of the National League. The players had lost much of their spirit and the cocky bearing of the crowd so much in evidence on the opening day was gone. They were willing to bet if they had to, but they want almost impossible odds.

McGraw and his men were never so happy in their lives. They romped on the field like a crowd of schoolboys, and they made no attempt to conceal their feelings of exultation from the hostile crowd.

White Pittsburg is still baseball mad the feeling of the fans is really palpable. They go moping around the streets and still wonder how it all happened. Since yesterday morning nothing has been discussed in this town but baseball. Local fans express the belief that Pittsburg will win this afternoon, and they were informed this morning that Maddox was going to pitch. They all have great confidence in Maddox. He is the star pitcher of the year for the Pirates.

The Giants are not so full of enthusiasm that they have forgotten to be cautious. They realize that they have no easy task before them and they also know that it will be necessary to win another game or two here so as to go to Chicago well fortified for a hard night.

First Inning.

First Half—New York up; Tenney up; strike one; ball one; swing away; Doyle up; foul; strike one; ball one; Doyle strikes to right. Bresnahan up; foul; strike one. Doyle caught napping in baseball. Local fans express the belief that Pittsburg will win this afternoon, and they were informed this morning that Maddox was going to pitch. They all have great confidence in Maddox. He is the star pitcher of the year for the Pirates.

Second Inning.

Second Half—Bresnahan was put out of the game for kicking. Needham is now catching for New York. Clarke up; McGraw is put off the ground for kicking; strike one; ball one; Clarke out; Doyle to Tenney; Wagner up; ball one; Wagner out; Devin to Tenney; Abby up; strike one; ball one; Abby strikes to left; Stone up; ball one; strike one; Stone out; Doyle to Tenney. Score end of third inning—New York, 1; Pittsburg, 2.

Third Inning.

First Half—New York up; Tenney up; strike one; ball one; swing away; Doyle strikes to right. Bresnahan up; foul; strike one. Doyle caught napping in baseball. Local fans express the belief that Pittsburg will win this afternoon, and they were informed this morning that Maddox was going to pitch. They all have great confidence in Maddox.
