

"BILL" MONROE, SHOT BY POSSE, BEGS FOR HELP

Fugitive Who Attacked Deyo Family Up the State Trapped at Greenwood Lake. HAS TWO BAD WOUNDS. Weak from Loss of Blood He Is Cared for and Sheriff at Goshen Jail Notified.

(Special to The Evening World) MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Aug. 26.—Weak from loss of blood and in a starving condition "Bill" Monroe, the desperado who murderously assaulted six members of the Deyo family and burned a barn at New Paltz on Friday afternoon, was trapped at Greenwood Lake today. Monroe was bleeding from pistol wounds in his side and was in a weak condition. He went to several residences along the lake trying to get assistance and was finally taken into a house as he fainted away while begging for help. The residents were suspicious that the man was Monroe, having read the accounts of his crime and escape. When taken into the house the fugitive was put to bed and a physician called. Examination disclosed the fact that he had a bullet wound in his left side and another through the left chest. He said that he had travelled from Campgan, N. J., to Greenwood Lake, where he was forced to give up being unable to proceed further. This information reached Goshen and at noon Sheriff A. L. Decker, under Sheriff F. T. Hook and Chauffeur Straub, started in an auto for Greenwood Lake. While it was stated in the message received at Goshen that Monroe was seriously injured, it was also said that he might leave the place where he was stopping. It is expected that he will be taken to Goshen jail this afternoon. It is stated by a physician that his injuries would probably prove fatal. Monroe has been hunted by armed men and deputy sheriffs since the day of the attack. He was surrounded, once and fired on, but managed to elude his pursuers. The wounds he has were evidently inflicted at that time.

KENTUCKY PROFESSOR A SUICIDE IN CHICAGO.

Despatches from Chicago to-day announced the suicide in a downtown hotel in that city of J. M. Krewer, a professor of languages in the University School of Louisville, Ky., who had been studying at the Columbia University Summer School in this city until it closed on Aug. 14. While in this city Prof. Krewer lived with the Spencer family, at No. 302 West One Hundred and Twenty-first street. The family is now away in the country. This was the only address found in the suicide's pockets, which also held $2,000. At the Columbia Summer School the language teacher gave the address No. 123 First street, Louisville, Ky., as his home. He was thirty-five years old and a Harvard graduate. He had taken the degrees A. B., A. M. and Ph. D. The University School of Louisville the young man taught in a very exclusive school for boys. What motive the man had for killing himself is a mystery.

NEW YORK LAWYER DISAPPEARS ON BUSINESS TRIP

Private Detectives in Chicago Hunting for F. D. S. Bethune, of This City. CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—The aid of a private detective agency was sought today by relatives of Faneuil D. S. Bethune, a New York lawyer, who disappeared from Buffalo last Sunday or Monday. Mr. Bethune, connected with the New York firm of Weismore & Jenner, with offices at No. 31 Pine street, left New York Saturday to visit Buffalo on legal business. He talked with Mrs. Bethune at her home in New York over the long distance telephone the following day. Mrs. Bethune believed him to be on the verge of nervous prostration, and in company with her brother, Dr. S. T. Poole, went to Buffalo. The only trace there was a statement that a man resembling Mr. Bethune had taken a train for the West. Mrs. Bethune promptly followed, and arrived in Chicago yesterday. She herself is ill as a result of anxiety over her husband. At the offices of Weismore & Jenner it was stated this afternoon that Mr. Bethune left for Buffalo Saturday. He was in the city until today, despite all the result of hard work and told some of his associates that he might hide himself somewhere for a month to get some rest. It is believed here that Mrs. Bethune is unduly alarmed. Mr. Bethune is thirty-one years old. His home is at No. 11 West Tenth street. The couple have no children.

30 BURIED IN MINE BY AN EXPLOSION

Victims Trapped by Crash While Working in Colliery in Oklahoma. MALESTER, Okla., Aug. 26.—An explosion occurred in Coal Mine No. 1 at Halley, Okla., near here, this afternoon. Thirty miners are said to have been entombed. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 26.—A telephone message from McAllister this afternoon confirms the first report of the mine disaster at Halleyville, and it is stated there is no hope of rescuing the twenty-five or thirty miners who are entombed. All of the men are foreigners. The mine, which is one of the largest in the southwest, is burning fiercely, the result, it is believed, of a barrel of oil catching fire. The mine is owned by Dr. D. B. Halley, of McAllister, and is one of the biggest mining properties in the State. Soon after the fall of the entombed men became generally known, crowds of women and children, relatives of the unfortunate men, appeared at the mouth of the shaft. Their grief was pitiable. The officials of the company, aided by the mine bosses and others, set to work to rescue the men still in the mine. It was soon apparent, however, that no one could enter, as volumes of smoke poured from the openings.

BIG FLOODS IN THE SOUTH.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Aug. 26.—Heavy rains in Georgia, South Carolina and North Carolina have caused floods equal to those of 1903 and resulted in a property loss exceeding $25,000. At Camden, S. C., a team with a man and a boy were drowned when a bridge washed away.

GARDENER FORCED TO GIVE UP FORT

Carrar Moved Family Into Barn When Dr. Grossmann Discharged Him. Dr. Max C. Grossmann stole a march today on former gardener John Carrar, who, with his wife and two daughters, has been occupying the doctor's barn at Watson Mountain, near Plainfield, N. J., for some days past. Carrar was engaged by Dr. Grossmann as gardener with Mrs. Carrar employed as cook, and her daughters acted as maids in the Grossmann house. The doctor became dissatisfied with their services and discharged the whole family, but Carrar announced that neither he nor his wife and daughters would leave until each had received a full month's wages. Carrar and his family moved into the doctor's barn, taking some furniture belonging to them with them, and they have held the fort until today, despite all efforts to dislodge them. Carrar went to the village to-day to make some purchases for the grocer and it was then Dr. Grossmann made his coup. The doctor had engaged the services of four detectives of a Newark agency, and these men had been waiting for an opportunity to act. While Carrar was away to-day the detectives removed all of the furniture from the barn, and when Carrar returned he was astonished to find the place bare. Carrar's first step was to go before Justice Elmer and swear out a warrant for one of the detectives who had taken out his furniture from the barn. The warrant was served and the detective will have a leaving later. Dr. Grossmann and his wife have had charges of assault preferred against them by Carrar, and the case will have come up to-night, but it is understood that the defendants will waive examination and let the matter go to the Grand Jury.

ROCKEFELLER TO THE FUNNY MEN

Millionaire Still Remembers Their Visit to Him and Sends Good Wishes. DENVER, Col., Aug. 26.—The following letter from John D. Rockefeller was read at the convention of American Press Humorists to-day: "Forest Hill, Cleveland, O., Aug. 19, 1908. "Gentlemen—With the pleasant memories of an official call by the American Press Humorists, I send you my best wishes for a successful convention. The echoes at Forest Hill still laugh now and then, over the quips sprinkled through our quiet atmosphere by your members. My own success in appreciating those jokes of yours and in passing them off as my own has made me feel that I am almost entitled to a union card in your order. May you always be able to connect for your witclaim on the union scale. "Speaking seriously, as one should to professional humorists, the rest of the world owes you real gratitude and the best of good wishes, gentlemen. You are the true specialists in dispensing. Charity is born of a good, hearty, honest laugh. It spreads a kinder feeling among mankind. I wish you, collectively and individually, all success. I am sorry that I cannot attend your sessions. I hope to receive you again, some day, at my home. Fraternally yours, "JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER. "The American Humorists, Denver, Col."

MISS MALONEY WILL BE FREE TO-MORROW

Application for Final Judgment Is on the Court Calendar. On the calendar of Part I, Special Term, Supreme Court, before Justice Blitchoff, to-morrow, A. L. Humes, of No. 21 Broad street, has placed an application for a final judgment in the annulment proceedings of the marriage of Helen Maloney against Arthur Herbert Osborne. Daniel C. Cohan, as referee in the case, recommended some time ago that a decree of annulment of marriage be granted. Miss Maloney's father is Martin Maloney, a multi-millionaire of Philadelphia, a noble of the Catholic Church, with residences both in Philadelphia and Spring Lake, N. J. The man in the case is Samuel B. Clarkson, with whom Miss Maloney eloped to Europe the year after her alleged marriage by Justice of the Peace Boyd, at Mamaroneck. It is understood that the marriage of Clarkson and Miss Maloney will occur at once. ACTOR'S SKULL BROKEN BY A FOOTPAD'S BLOW. CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—A man found in an alley this morning with his skull fractured from a blow was identified this afternoon as Frank Bigelow, actor and manager of a theatrical company. His home is said to be in New York, while that of his father, W. S. Bigelow, is at No. 35 Fifth street, Chelsea, Mass. Bigelow's injury, which was probably due to an attack by a robber, is serious.

ALIENISTS SITTING IN PLACE OF COURT

Will Find Whether Mrs. Hitchcock Was Sane When She Slew Husband. Something new in the way of legal procedure was inaugurated this afternoon in the library of the Criminal Courts Building when Mrs. Charles Hitchcock, Allan McLane Hamilton and Henry Robertson, sitting as a commission, took testimony to establish whether or not Mrs. Charlotte Hitchcock was insane on Nov. 20, 1907. This is the first time that a commission in lunacy ever sat, in this city, with a person admittedly sane for a subject to determine whether or not that person was insane on a fixed, previous date. Mrs. Hitchcock, on the date in question, shot and killed her husband as he slept in his bed in their home in the Bronx. She then fired three bullets into her own body, but recovered from the effects of her injury. When her case was called for trial before Judge Foster—she having been indicted for murder—she had no funds for the employment of counsel. Congressman Goldfarb and former Civil Service Commissioner Terry were appointed to conduct her defense. They set up the plea that while she is now in possession of her faculties and has been for months, she was insane when she killed her husband. With the object of avoiding the expense of the trial of a defendant concerning whose guilt a doubt existed, Judge Foster appointed a committee of alienists to settle the question of the woman's sanity at the time of the crime. The first witness called to-day was Dr. Leopold Haas, of No. 98 Union
