

MAYOR McCLELLAN JUST ESCAPED BEING SLIGHTED

Committee in Charge of Bridge Celebration Learns He Hadn't Been Consulted.

HURRIED TO APOLOGIZE

City's Executive Accepted the Explanation and Now There's Smooth Sailing.

After three weeks' exploitation in the newspapers of the fact that citizens of the Borough of Queens intend having a monster celebration on the opening of the new Blackwell's, or Queensboro, Bridge, the committee having the matter in charge to-day learned that there had been a serious oversight.

The Mayor had not been taken into the confidence of the committee, and inasmuch as the celebration is to be of an official character, it was decided that the Mayor might feel slighted if not formally notified.

Crummies Discovered It.

John D. Crummies, a member of the committee, sprung the surprise. "I am astonished that the Mayor has not been notified, and I regard it as a lack of courtesy to say the least, that this committee has failed to confer with or even notify him," said Mr. Crummies to the astonished members.

That settled it. The committee decided there and then to humiliate representatives over to the City Hall to wait with due humility and meekness upon the Mayor.

Judge P. H. Dugro, Delaney C. Nison, William H. Williams Jr., John D. Crummies, E. M. Berghard, George W. Poppe, G. Howland Leavitt, John A. Leach, Bert J. Humphrey, J. H. Quinlan and Senator Harle comprised the committee that called on the Mayor.

There is another battle to be fought by the loyal people of Queens. Irish societies are opposed to the name Queensboro for the new bridge. They have asked the Board of Aldermen to abandon the name because it smacks too much of English.

Mr. Crummies in his address to the Mayor also spoke of the proposed change in the name. He opposed any change. "Blackwell's is offensive as is the name of a penal institution," he said.

Mayor McClellan diplomatically refrained from participating in the controversy. He said that as Mayor of the city was quite willing to cooperate with the celebration committee.

"SPITE" FENCE BLOCKED.

Two policemen of the West Sixty-sixth street station went to the Hotel Marie Antoinette Sixty-sixth street and Broadway, to-day and compelled workmen to stop building a so-called fence which would have separated the hotel from an apartment house adjoining at No. 145 West Sixty-sixth street.

Tenants of the apartment went to see Capt. Reddy, who telephoned Police Headquarters. When he learned that the plans for the fence had been disapproved by the Building Department, and that no permit had been issued, the policemen were at once sent to inform Owner Thompson to call off the workmen.

MRS. FAIRCHILD DEAD.

NEWBURG, N. Y., Sept. 22.—Mrs. C. A. G. Fairchild, recording secretary of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of the State of New York, and president of that organization in Orange County, died at her home in Coldenham, near this city, last evening. Three months ago she was operated upon for appendicitis, and her death was caused by complications that developed later.

For thirty-three years she was an active and earnest worker in the cause of temperance. Her husband survives her.

RELATIVES FEAR THIS WOMAN WAS LURED AWAY.

THE YOUNG WIFE.

YOUNG WIFE IS ODDLY MISSING FROM HOME

Mrs. Fellgraf Disappears, and Relatives Fear She Was Lured Away.

Mrs. Frank Fellgraf, of Hackensack, is strangely missing from her home on Kansas street. The young wife, nineteen years old, left her home Saturday evening intending to pay a bill at a store.

She had $16 in cash in her purse, and wore a diamond ring worth $35 and a gold necklace. She did not reach the store, and this leads her husband and relatives to believe she was lured away and returned.

Mrs. Fellgraf is small and plump. She has blond hair, combed back in pompadour style. She wore low tan button shoes, a tan linen coat, suit and a black hat with blue wings.

The home life of the young couple was happy and Mrs. Fellgraf, known to her husband as she started for the store.

POLICEWOMEN MAY PATROL IN BAYONNE

Mrs. Goldzier Volunteers and Says She Has Two More Recruits.

That a women's police department should be established in Bayonne has long been the conviction of Mrs. Julia Goldzier of No. 23 East Forty-third street, Bayonne, and she has written a letter to the Bayonne Common Council asking permission to address that body on the subject.

Mrs. Goldzier thinks that a women's police department is needed in every city of the country. She believes men are too severe with children offenders, who, she says, instead of being arrested, should be dealt with and reformed to do better.

Women on the force, she says, could dress the injuries of children hurt at play and could help children across the street and prevent them from being run over.

CHOLERA SPREADS TO RUSSIAN MILITARY SCHOOL.

Epidemic Claims New Victims, but the Number of Deaths Decreases.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 22.—In spite of the statement of the doctors that the cholera epidemic had reached its climax the report for the twenty-four hours ending at noon to-day shows 436 cases and 138 deaths. This is an increase of nineteen cases and a decrease of eighteen deaths as compared to Tuesday's statistics.

COUNT SPEAKS FOR SINGER.

Count Enrico Venemiglia, who saw Rosina Tradler, a beautiful singer, fall off a fifty-ninth street car at Fifty-ninth street, will be examined before trial in accordance with an order of Justice Gerard in the Supreme Court to-day. Miss Tradler, who sues for $1,000, blames the company for the accident. The company says she broke her arm and lost her voice.

FAIR DETECTIVE WEDS HER CLIENT

Miss Stehle Secured Evidence That Gave Frank Driver a Divorce.

Frank Driver, of No. 205 Melrose street, Brooklyn, secured a license to-day to marry Emma Stehle, of No. 421 Suydam street. Driver secured a divorce from his wife, Amelia, on Sept. 17, on evidence mainly furnished by Miss Stehle, who had acted as a detective in his interest.

There was quite a remarkable story in Driver's complaint. He set forth that he was married in 1902 to a woman weighing 110 pounds. She deserted him, he said, after three months, and he could find no trace of her.

For over five years he believed her dead. One day he saw a strikingly handsome, plump woman entering a department store on Broadway, Williamsburg. There was something reminiscent about her, and he followed her into the store.

She had some familiar mannerisms, but she weighed about 100 pounds. He made bold to accost her, and ask her if she was not his missing wife.

"No," she replied indignantly, "you are insulting. I never saw you before. I am a married woman."

Driver retreated, but still suspected that the plump beauty was his wife. Following out the design, she went with Driver to the department store and set a watch. They waited for several days before the plump beauty appeared. Miss Stehle trailed her, and after days of work succeeded in establishing her as the missing Mrs. Driver and securing evidence upon which Driver hastened to apply for a divorce.

An intermediary decree was granted in March and the divorce became absolute six days ago. Mr. Driver and Miss Stehle will be married next Sunday.

NOTABLES ON GERMAN LINER.

Miss Royston Tells of Her Good Fortune

Miss Eva Royston, a Prominent Young Lady of Dayton, Tenn., Who Was So Run Down from Indigestion and Stomach Trouble That She Could Not Eat Anything, Feels So Overjoyed to Think That She Is Now in Robust Health That She Wants to Tell Everybody About It.

MISS EVA ROYSTON.

Miss Royston says that she was all run down, had indigestion and stomach trouble so badly that she could not eat or retain anything on her stomach, but now she is happy to state that these troubles are things of the past. To-day she can eat anything and it agrees with her. She is robust and strong and is anxious to tell anybody who is sick and needs a tonic about her wonderful recovery. She says nothing seemed to help her until she took Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as prescribed by her doctor and it worked like magic.

These who read this are at liberty to write this young lady, who says she will take pleasure in answering any questions and telling how she was restored to health.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a malt essence, which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

If you wish to keep young, strong and vigorous and have on your cheeks the glow of perfect health, take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey regularly, according to directions. It tones and strengthens the heart action and purifies the entire system. It is recognized as the world's leading medicine everywhere.

CAUTION—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It is the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey and is sold in sealed bottles only; never in bulk. Price $1.00. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chieftain" on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Write the Consulting Physician, Dr. J. C. Duffy, M. D., Rochester, N. Y., for a copy of illustrated medical booklet and free advice.
