OIL TAIN IS ON TAFT ALSO, SAYS FORAKER

Ohio Senator in His Reply to Roosevelt and Hearst Savagely Assails the Republican Nominee and Accuses President of Bias.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 25.—Senator Foraker has prepared a statement, the text of which will be made public to-night, replying to the recent charges made by William R. Hearst and President Roosevelt. He bitterly assails Hearst, Taft and the President, charging Taft with consorting with Standard Oil magnates and declaring that President Roosevelt's action indicates a guilty conscience. In the opening paragraph, Mr. Foraker declares that the President showed his bias by accepting as true all the charges against him, Foraker. He denies that he acted improperly in accepting employment from the Standard Oil Company, says there was no secret about it, and produces letters to prove that after the Government began its attack upon the Standard Oil he declined to accept a retainer from them. Senator Foraker charges that Mr. Hearst has other letters in addition to those which he gave out, and that these other letters, if made public, would have showed how harmless was his connection with the Standard Oil people.

FIVE MEMBERS OF A. O. BROWN & CO. ARE ARRESTED

Woman Charges Larceny Against Six Partners in Failed Brokers' Firm.

Five of the six members of the bankrupt firm of A. O. Brown & Co., Stock Exchange brokers, were placed under arrest this afternoon as they were leaving the Federal Building. They are charged with grand larceny by Mrs. Helen Abernethy, of No. 26 East Seventeenth street, who charged that the firm has refused to deliver $1,800 worth of stocks bought for her account and has refused also to return her money. The men under arrest are: A. O. Brown, Edward F. Buchanan, Samuel C. Brown, W. Rhea Whitman and Lewis Ginter Young. There is a warrant out for G. Lee Stout, the sixth member of the firm, in connection with the Abernethy transaction but Mr. Stout is ill in his home in Bloomfield, N. J. The warrants were sworn out on Sept. 22, before Magistrate Finn in Central Street Court. Mrs. Abernethy, in having the members of the firm arrested, acted upon the advice of the law firm of House, Grossman & Verhaus, which, as attorney for Lee V. Strauss, the theatrical programme publisher, had a Federal receiver appointed for A. O. Brown & Co. following the failure on Aug. 25. Photographed at Headquarters. Following the police custom, the detectives who arrested the five brokers took them to headquarters, had them photographed for the Rogues' Gallery and measured for the Bertillon records. This proceeding was carried out, despite the frantic protests of Edward Lauterbach, counsel for the bankrupts. Mr. Lauterbach made more noise around Police Headquarters than has been heard there since Commissioner Bingham delivered his "nine gods of war" address. The arrests followed a hearing in the Commissioner's office and the United States Commissioner Alexander in the Federal building. Central Office Lieutenants O'Farrell, Kesselmark, Reardon and Sumner were in the corridor outside the Commissioner's office and spotted the five men for whom they had warrants. They looked around until the hearing was over and then crowded into the elevator with the five brokers. "There's a lot of weight in this elevator," remarked Broker Buchanan, with a laugh. The detectives waited until the men had reached Park Row and were being taken to the City Hall, and took a Fourth avenue car to Headquarters. Mr. Lauterbach, who had learned of the arrests, followed about half an hour later and found his clients in the police photograph gallery. After seeking unsuccessfully to prevent the making of Rogues' Gallery pictures of the five men, he was permitted to see as soon as they were arrested. Magistrate Finn said he had no authority to order the negatives destroyed, although he had destroyed them.

LAYERS IN PANIC AS ELDER'S MEN BEGIN A RAID

Well-Known Race Track Figures Suddenly Arrested at Gravesend.

BY VINCENT TREANOR.

(Special to The Evening World.) GRAVESEND RACE TRACK, Sept. 25.—A wholesale raid was made on the big layers and players at the track to-day. Seven of the biggest operators were arrested on bench warrants and taken to Brooklyn headquarters. Those arrested included Tom Shaw, Sol Lichtenstein, Orlando Jones, Jim Murphy, R. H. Brown and Louis Feitman. The unlooked for activity on the part of the District-Attorney's men threw the crowd into a panic and several of the big operators beat it to the gate and away before any warrants could be served on them. The all-aged handicap, the feature of the day's racing here, was won by Firestone, with Bill Daly's Killcrankie outgaining Dandelion by a head for the place money. This made the third winning of the day for Shilling. He rode Firestone perfectly, rating him in front all the way and winning in easy fashion. Firestone was a hot tip and he proved a good one. The arrest of Shaw is the most important of any since the anti-betting law went into effect. It caused something like a panic among the big operators. Shaw was arrested on a bench warrant and was taken to Police Headquarters. James Murphy, another big operator, was also taken into custody just before the fifth race. Louis Feitman was arrested on a warrant, too. All the big layers and players literally took to the woods at what looked like a wholesale raid on the real big fellows of the game. Just after this race Tom Shaw, the plunger, was quietly taken into custody by a representative of the District-Attorney. This elongated sport, smiling blandly, went out with the officer under the grand stand and knew what had happened. The talent was equally split up in the opening race on Wise Mason and Fashion Plate, and along comes Footpad and beats both of them. Fashion Plate broke very badly and this is not his habit. He made up some ground in the stretch, but was never dangerous. Footpad ran in front all the way. Wise Mason chased him but couldn't catch him. Fashion Plate of course had no trouble getting the show money. Saylor Wing Second Race. Saylor finally won in the second. He has been threatening in his last two races. He followed Mombassa to the stretch turn and then came away, to win in handy fashion. Mombassa stuck it out gamely and went past the judges in front of Okente, which was third all the way. Fanny never was dangerous and Lord Stanhope got one of those fearful Walter Miller rides. Good Thing Wins Third. Killgreen, a real good thing and ridden by Shilling, got away in front in the third race and stayed there. Right at the end the hot favorite, Practical, came with a rush, but couldn't quite get up. Hill Top ran a nice even race throughout and was third, a head in front of Cowan. Practical was probably best, but was in many pockets in the early part and generally interfered with Roseben. Roseben came back to his own in the fifth and gulped home an easy winner in front of Starogowan, who out-gained Saracinesca for the place.

METZ THROWN FROM HORSE AND SEVERELY HURT

Comptroller Was Attending the Funeral of Col. Harry W. Michell.

Comptroller Metz is a captain in the fourteenth Regiment, which turned out to-day to escort the body of its former colonel, Harry W. Michell, who died at Bayport, Long Island, on Tuesday, to Greenwood Cemetery. Passing sixth avenue and Eighteenth street the Comptroller's mount reared and fell. Several soldiers ran to his assistance and dragged him from beneath the horse. Assistant Surgeon J. Richard Kevin rushed the injured Comptroller to the Army in an automobile, where prompt attention was accorded. The ligaments of the right leg were found to be torn, the left knee cap was badly bruised, and, possibly, he fractured his right hip. Mr. Metz also sustained a severe contusion of the back of the head and suffered as well from shock. He was later removed to his home. That the Comptroller will be invalided for several weeks is the opinion of the physicians.

AUTO CRASHES INTO CAR AND HURTS SEVERAL

Its Occupants Also Injured and the Machine Completely Wrecked.

A number of persons were badly shaken and several narrowly escaped serious injury this afternoon when a big automobile owned by David Duffie, a retired millionaire, of West Brighton, S. I., crashed into a trolley car at Richmond road and Beach street, Stapleton. In the automobile were Mr. Duffie, his two daughters, Anna and Maybelle, aged nineteen and seventeen respectively; Frederick Mullen, a lawyer, and former Assemblyman Daniel P. Cornell. They were bruised, but escaped serious injury. There were a dozen passengers on the trolley car, and they were thrown from their seats. Mr. Duffie and party were on their way to West Brighton from Croton They had just turned into Richmond road from Beach street when a north-bound car of the Richmond Light and Railroad Company bore down upon them. The motorman apparently tried to stop the car. He failed, however, and the auto crashed into the front of the car. The big machine was hurled against a telegraph pole near the curb, while the front part of the car was badly damaged. The occupants of the auto clung to their seats. Dr. Vidal, who lives in Beach street, and saw the accident, declared it was little short of a miracle that the persons in the automobile were not more seriously hurt. The automobile, which cost $4,500, was left in the road almost a complete wreck. No arrests were made.

MESSAGES FROM THE DEAD!

Sir Oliver Lodge testifies that weird communications from beyond the grave have actually been received—starting written messages from alleged spirits of the late Frederick W. H. Myers, Edmond Gurney, Dr. Richard Hodgson, and others. Psychological tests are highly interesting, but there is something to make you hold your breath in the description of the supreme test, "Hypnotic Trance," which consists in lying prostrate, and meet the onslaught of a ravenous African lion with naught but a knife to defend one's self. Just a word about "mystical tests." Perhaps the song that of late has met with the greatest approbation at the hands of theatre-goers is "Hiss," the vocal hit in the suit. The words and music of this song, articles about the preceding subjects, rather startling extracts from Marie Corelli's latest novel, "Holy Orders," and a page about "New Life in Old Jerusalem," more than 700 "want-reading" advertisements and scores of other leading features will be given prominent place in next Sunday's World. Don't fail to order a copy of next Sunday's World from your newsdealer in advance. Better attend to it to-night, to make sure.

PULLIAM TELLS STATUS OF TIE WITH CHICAGO

Harry C. Pulliam, President of the National League of Baseball Clubs, made this statement this afternoon: "In view of the great interest and constant inquiries by telegraph and letter to this office regarding the exact status of the New York-Chicago game of Sept. 23, I desire to make this statement: "The umpires in charge of this contest filed their written reports at National League Headquarters on Sept. 24, stating that the New York-Chicago game of Sept. 23 resulted in a tie score. This report of the umpires was accepted in the usual manner without prejudice to the rights of either club. "Under the Constitution of the National League, either club has a right to appeal from the decision of the umpires within five days of the date of the game. The New York Club on this day has notified the office that it will appeal from the decision of the umpires. "In compliance with the provision of Section 22 of the National League Constitution, the protest of New York Club, when received, will be submitted to the Chicago Club and that club has five days in which to file its answer if it so desires. The same procedure will prevail in the event that the Chicago Club protests the decision of the umpires. "When the case is made up a decision on the facts and evidence will be rendered by the President of the League, whose decision is subject to appeal within five days to the Board of Directors, whose decision is final."

DIED IN ASHLAND HOUSE.

Saleman Smith Found Lifeless in Bed in Hotel.

Otto S. Smith, thirty-eight years old, a salesman, was found dead in his bed in the Ashland House to-day. Smith had been a guest for years at the Ashland, and was known to Proprietor Brockway. The body was fully clothed when found by a chambermaid. Dropsy of appendix, it is said, caused death. Smith's relatives, said to be well-to-do, live in Germany.

In the second game the Reds landed on McGinnity for four runs in the second inning. Fifteen thousand fans went better tears.

First Inning.

Kane was hit by a pitched ball. Egan popped out to Herzog. Kane stole second. Lober hit to the left field fence for three bases, scoring Kane. Bescher tripled to right center scoring Lober, but was out trying to stretch it into a home run. Seymour hit Herzog to Bresnahan. Hoblitzel struck out. TWO RUNS.

Second Inning.

Mowrey flied to McCormick. Paskert lined a single into left. Marquard threw out Schlei and Paskert went all the way to third as he had already taken a good start. Spade lined out to Herzog. NO RUNS.

Third Inning.

Kane popped a high foul to Tenney. Egan rolled out to Tenney. Unassisted. Lober walked, but was out stealing second. Bresnahan to Bridwell. NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning.

Marquard was thrown out by Lober. Tenney popped out to Egan. Herzog flied to center and scoring Devore to third on the throw to the plate. Herzog took second, but Needham, who had taken Bresnahan's place, fouled out to Mowrey. ONE RUN.

Fifth Inning.

McCormick made a neat running catch of Paskert's long fly to left. Bridwell and Tenney put out Schlei. Spade made a single to right. Kane bounced a single off Bridwell's glove and Spade took second. Egan lined a clean single over second and Spade scored, while the others advanced to second and third respectively. Kane scored on a passed ball. Lober singled to center and Egan scored. Lober took second on a wild pitch. Lober stole third. Bresnahan hurt his finger in catching a wide curve, and Needham took his place. Bridwell tossed out Bescher. THREE RUNS.

Sixth Inning.

Spade tossed out McCormick. Bridwell cracked a single into right. Devore batted for Marquard, and got his base on balls. Tenney flied out to Paskert. Herzog drove a single into right, scoring Bridwell and sending Devore to third on the throw to the plate. Herzog took second, but Needham, who had taken Bresnahan's place, fouled out to Mowrey.
