NEW GRAFT ARREST; POLICEMAN TELLS OF LICENSE FRAUDS

F. E. Brown, an Employee of the Gas, Electricity and Water Supply Department, Is Taken Into Custody on a Warrant.

Frank E. Brown, chief of the electrical bureau of the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity, was arrested this afternoon at his office in the Park Row Building, on a warrant charging him with extortion, this denouement being one of the latest developments in the investigation of newly discovered graft in the License Bureau.

Brown was taken to the Criminal Courts Building to be arraigned before Magistrate Corrigan, in the Centre Street Court. It was stated that bond in his case would be fixed at $1,000, that being the figure under which Gaetano D'Amato, chief deputy of the License Bureau, has been released on a similar charge.

The first sensation of the day was sprung at the investigation to-day, when a policeman—member of the license squad—went on the stand. He testified under oath that a general fraudulent traffic in licenses was being operated. The policeman was examined under the name of "John Doe," it being the desire of the Commissioners of Accounts to avoid disclosing his identity.

It was later learned that his name is Hill, and that he has been on the force for twelve years.

Another member of the License Squad, Patrolman Patrick J. Reed, was accused of extortion by three witnesses at the afternoon session. He took the stand and denied their story. Hill stated directly that Deputy D'Amato was a party to the system of making excessive charges for licenses.

Named Several Men. The policeman also named an Italian named Tony, who appeared to be on the inside. The witness himself engaged in the sale of licenses, he confessed, saying he received from "Tony" batches of eighteen licenses at a time. The witness also mentioned the name of Lieutenant Bird, saying that he "approached" Bird with the proposition of issuing renewals.

"I always gave Bird $4 for those renewals," said the witness, "and he took the money wrapped in paper. I got the Brandt and Iskovitch licenses and sold them to those men—his from Brandt and his from Iskovitch."

"I also got the licenses for Benny Richler and his brother, Michael Richler. Benny paid me $20. I don't know how much I got, all told. Lieutenant Bird gave me the renewals and I always, in each instance, gave him $4. The witness denied that he had ever dealt directly with D'Amato.

Earlier in the proceeding Iskovitch, the Richlers and Brandt had testified that they had "paid" a policeman for their licenses, which they admitted holding illegally, they not being citizens.

"Did you know Fred Ennucciato, who came to see D'Amato daily and did you know that he sold licenses?"

"Yes, I sold Ennucciato a couple of licenses myself, and once when I arrested him he had four licenses in his pocket."

"Did you know other go-betweens who dealt with D'Amato?"

"Oh, there were half a dozen of them—Ennucciato, Tony and the rest, and a Luigi, a Mansi and other intermediaries who used to talk with D'Amato."

Hill, the "John Doe witness," is about forty years old, with a dark, curly mustache and hair, olive complexion and dark, round eyes.

His demeanor on the stand was self-possessed. He smiled at times when admitting his participation in the graft practices long in vogue in the Bureau.

The Commissioner of Accounts landed Hill last night, when he was confronted by the witnesses Richler, Brandt and Iskovitch. At first he protested his innocence.

Documentary evidence tending to incriminate him was then produced. When promises of clemency were advanced, he broke down and made a clean breast of the whole affair. He named other policemen than Lieut. Bird.

Commissioner Mitchell said to-day: "We had the policeman just where we wanted him. We proved to him that we had the goods on him before he caved in. The law will take its course in him, as in all the other cases. I do not see how his story is going to escape."

RYAN CLIPS WINGS OF BELMONT IN INTERBOROUGH

Secures the Removal of E. W. McWilliams as Treasurer of Company.

JOHN CAMPBELL NAMED.

He Is Deputy City Chamberlain and a Close Friend of Croker.

That Thomas F. Ryan has finally ousted August Belmont from the control of the Interborough Company, as The Evening World exclusively announced several months ago, was declared to be apparent in financial circles to-day when the announcement was made that Deputy City Chamberlain John H. Campbell had been appointed to succeed E. W. McWilliams as treasurer of the company.

The removal of E. P. Bryan as Vice-President of the Interborough was regarded as the first step in the elimination of Mr. Belmont from control of the great corporation that receives and administers the vast earnings of the subway and elevated roads.

Little of Financiers. A battle had been waging for months between the Ryan and Belmont forces that own the majority of the stock in the Interborough. At the time the subway was opened Mr. Belmont was in complete control, but after the Manhattan Elevated Railroad interests were taken over by the Interborough Mr. Ryan and his associates began to wield a powerful influence in the directorate.

When Theodore P. Shonts was made president of the Interborough he was generally regarded as neutral with a slight leaning toward Ryan. Since he has been executive officer of the road it is said that this leaning has developed into a decided friendship for Mr. Ryan and an antagonism to the Belmont control. Just how far Mr. Belmont could be shoved to one side was a matter of divided opinion until it became known that E. P. Bryan had always been regarded as Belmont's man.

Campbell Gives Up City Job. The new treasurer, Mr. Campbell, will succeed Mr. McWilliams before Nov. 1. He has been resigning from his position as deputy city chamberlain since Oct. 15. The salary he receives as Deputy Chamberlain is $7,500. As treasurer of the Interborough he will get $10,000.

Mr. Campbell has been a Deputy Chamberlain since 1888, when Richard Croker was Chamberlain. He had been with Mr. Croker when the Tammany leader was Fire Commissioner, and went with Croker from the Fire Department to the Chamberlain's office. He has served continuously since then under many different administrations.

The fact that Mr. Campbell was so intimately associated with Mr. Croker is a sure indication of his allegiance to the Ryan forces in the Interborough. Richard Croker is heavily interested in Interborough, and his old associates in Tammany who were interested with him have all joined T. F. Ryan in his battle with Belmont for control.

IF IT DISAPPEARS IT'S ECZEMA. Sometimes it is hard to determine whether a skin affection is a sign of a blood disorder or simply a form of eczema. Even physicians are often puzzled in their diagnosis. The best way for any one afflicted is to go to Riker's, Hegen's or any good druggist who handles pure drugs, and obtain about 25 cents worth of poslam. Apply this, and if the itching stops at once and the trouble is cured in a few days it may be set down as having been eczema, as this is the way poslam acts in the worst cases of eczema, and in curing acne, herpes, blotches, tetter, piles, salt rheum, rash, barber's and other forms of itchy, scaly scalp and all surface skin affections.

These who can wait a few days can secure poslam free of expense by writing to the Emergency Laboratories, No. 22 West Twenty-fifth St., New York, who will send by mail a supply sufficient to cure a small eczema surface or clear a complexion over night and remove pimples in twenty-four hours.

Lord Stanhope Takes Fifth. The unfashionable jockey, Crowley, won the fifth race on the card sharply. He came from third place at the turn for home and outgained both Samuel H. Harris and Graham in the drive through the stretch. It was close for the place, the jockey hanging up Grams' number ahead of that of Samuel H. Harris. Golconda was shut out on the rail just as he was making his bid when McClain and McKeever put it on Miss Lida never had a chance after the break.

SIXTH RACE—Constellation 1, Garland 2, Rose Beaumont 3.

By VINCENT TREANOR.

AQUEDUCT RACE TRACK, Oct. 2.—Bill Daly furnished the favorite, the first he has had since Bennings, in Killiecrankie, in the fourth race, and she was beaten. Had she won it would have made racing history. Beaucoup came to life very suddenly and won the race very handsily, with Killiecrankie second. Miss Crawford was third, for the reason that there were no other starters. Her turn will come "some other" day.

District Attorney Darrin, of Queens County, was at the track again this afternoon. He just nosed around on his own hook, sat in the grandstand and mixed with the crowd on the lawn. It was definitely announced that there would be no warrants served on anybody to-day.

Delirium All the Way.

Delirium, Gilbert and all, won the opening event, coming strong in the stretch and overrunning Schlesing and Live Wire, the early pacemakers. Woodlawn was away badly, and consequently never in it. Schlesing, who was popular when he first appeared in these parts, although getting the worst of the made up ground gradually, and in the stretch, when Saracinesca, the pacemaker, looked all over a winner came on and overran him easily. Saracinesca tired from his early efforts, and in the last few strides was beaten for the place money by Rockstone.

Only Three in Handicap.

The Babylon Stakes, the two-year-old feature of today's card, was won by Lord Stanhope, Statesman and Wise Mason, Lady Selina and Statesman. The latter, in very tight, was very much preferred in the oval market, and he sustained the confidence of the wise set by winning in a mild drive from Lady Selina, in the wise Mason beaten off. Wise Mason was giving away the proverbial ton of weight, and simply beat up Statesman to the task. Statesman outfooted him all the way after shutting him off at the turn. Lady Selina ran third to the stretch, where McCarter saved ground by taking the rail. It was a drive between Lord Stanhope and McCarter put it on McCarter.
