

BRYAN FIRES BACK AT ROCKEFELLER AND CARNEGIE

Oil Magnate for Taft, He Says, Because the Candidate Is for Him.

RINGS IN ROOSEVELT.

President's Pretense Fails and Republicans Unmasked by Their Master.

TOLEDO, O., Oct. 29.—William J. Bryan, on the concluding day of his campaigning in Ohio, devoted his attention to John D. Rockefeller and Andrew Carnegie, both of whom are quoted in the morning papers as supporting Mr. Taft.

The Democratic candidate on the occasion of his first speech in the State at Napoleon today utterly denounced both Mr. Rockefeller and Mr. Carnegie. The former, he said, was favoring Mr. Taft because Mr. Taft was in sympathy with the trusts, and as to Mr. Carnegie, he declared that it was the Steel Trust that went to the White House and got permission from the President to absorb a rival, "and the Steel Trust is today supporting Mr. Taft as it helped to secure his nomination."

Because Taft is for Him. The statements were repeated in this city today, where in the baseball park Mr. Bryan spoke to a great gathering.

"The morning papers publish a statement from Mr. Rockefeller giving reasons for supporting Mr. Taft. He says: 'If for no other reasons, I support Mr. Taft because on comparing him personally with Mr. Bryan, his chief opponent, I find the balance of fitness and temperament entirely on his side. The election of Mr. Taft will, I believe, make for law and order and stability of business. He is not a man, I judge, to adventure with rash experiments or to

"He is for Mr. Taft because Mr. Taft is for him. He is for Mr. Taft because Mr. Taft is sympathetic with the trusts. Mr. Taft has been making speeches for many weeks and he has not yet dwelt upon the iniquities of the trusts or pointed out the injustice done to the American people by them. No wonder Mr. Rockefeller is for Mr. Taft."

"Again, Mr. Rockefeller says Mr. Taft's election will make for law and order. This is false. Mr. Rockefeller's corporation is the most notorious law breaker in the United States, and he is for Mr. Taft because he does not want the law enforced. If he thought that Mr. Taft would enforce the law against the Standard Oil Company and favored the enactment of more stringent laws against the Standard Oil Company as I do he would be for Mr. Taft."

"Mr. Rockefeller also says that Mr. Taft's election will make for stability of business. What kind of business? Stability in the trust business is what he means. He thinks that Mr. Taft's election will enable the trusts to get a tighter grasp upon the American people and put their extortion upon a more permanent foundation. "He says that Mr. Taft is not a man inclined to rash experiments. He might have omitted the word 'rash,' for Mr. Taft is not in favor of any kind of experiment in the way of remedial legislation. He does not propose remedies. He simply glories in the past and wants to leave conditions as they are.

"The Democrats have reason to be grateful to Mr. Rockefeller for tearing the mask off the Republican campaign and revealing the duplicitous character of it. Instead of openly attacking the side of monopoly the Republican organization has kept up a pretense of reform, and Mr. Taft is not a man inclined to rash experiments. He might have omitted the word 'rash,' for Mr. Taft is not in favor of any kind of experiment in the way of remedial legislation. He does not propose remedies. He simply glories in the past and wants to leave conditions as they are.

"The Republican party cannot serve two masters. Its real master has now stepped forth and asserted his claim to the party's services."

"We have had another favor granted us this morning. Mr. Carnegie has come out for Mr. Taft. Mr. Carnegie holds the largest block of steel bonds of any man in the United States. And he comes out with Mr. Rockefeller. And it was that Steel Trust that went to the White House and got permission from the President to absorb a rival, and the Steel Trust is today supporting Mr. Taft as it helped to secure his nomination."

BANKER HUGH KELLY, PHILANTHROPIST, DEAD.

Sugar Manufacturer and West Indian Ship-Owner Expires After a Short Illness.

Hugh Kelly, banker, sugar manufacturer and philanthropist, died at his residence in this city today, aged 87 years. He had been ill three weeks.

Mr. Kelly was born in Chicago and entered the mercantile trade in 1871. Later he became a shareholder in the Standard Oil Company, and in 1882 he was elected president of the company. He was a member of the United Fruit Company, and in 1892 he was elected president of the company. He was a member of the United Fruit Company, and in 1892 he was elected president of the company.

You Can't Fool 'Em All the Time; The Evening Fudge Strikes a Snag

An Evening Fudge cartoon for the feeble-minded in politics. One of many similar appeals. After weeks of this sort of campaigning John D. Rockefeller springs this little letter indorsing Taft:

"It seems to me at this time, when the question is put directly to any American citizen which candidate he will support by his vote for the Presidency, he should be manly enough to answer it just as directly. I therefore say that I expect to cast my vote for William H. Taft."

"If for no other reason, I support Mr. Taft because, on comparing him personally with Mr. Bryan, his chief opponent, I find the balance of fitness and temperament entirely on his side. The election of Mr. Taft will, I believe, make for law and order and stability of business. He is not a man, I judge, to adventure with rash experiments or to

ROCKEFELLER IN DEAL WITH TAFT, DECLARES MACK

Believes That $29,000,000 Fine Will Be 'Fixed Up' if Bryan Is Defeated.

HELD OFF FOR BARGAIN.

National Chairman Says John D.'s Statement Will Swing 100,000 Votes.

Charges were made by National Chairman Mack today that the declaration of John D. Rockefeller for Taft for President was the result of the deal between the Republican National Committee and the Standard Oil interests, whereby National Chairman Hitchcock received large campaign contributions and Mr. Rockefeller the promises. Mr. Mack said that undoubtedly the $29,000,000 fine of the Standard Oil Company would be fixed up in the event of Mr. Taft's election as a part of the bargain. The Democratic National Chairman said:

"Held Back for a Bargain. 'The Standard Oil Company has landed where everybody knew it would land. Mr. Rockefeller held back for a bargain, and got what he wanted."

"The deal will be good for over one hundred thousand more votes for Mr. Bryan in the doubtful States, and over a quarter of a million votes in the country."

"What has the deal meant to the Republicans in actual money?" he was asked.

"They will get a good big can," answered Mr. Mack. "I can't specify the exact amount, but you can be assured that when the bargain was struck both sides got what they were after. If elected Mr. Taft will be under great obligations to the Standard Oil Company. He is already under obligations to the Steel Trust and has simply added another partner. The Taft managers got the money and the Standard Oil got the promise."

"What is that promise?" "Well," answered the National Chairman, "the $29,000,000 fine will be fixed up some way, and several other issues also. And the question arises, is Taft going to be with Rockefeller for the next few years or with Roosevelt? The Standard Oil is with Taft and not with Roosevelt."

G. O. P.'s "Can" of Money. Mr. Mack said that he had in his very good authority that the Republican National Committee had secured the State of Indiana, and if necessary would send more. He also declared that more than $2,000,000 had been sent into Ohio, and a similar amount would be put out in New York State.

"I don't think that the Republican party can buy Mr. Taft's election. You can't buy elections any more. The present deal is so arranged that, although people will try and buy the voter, they cannot deliver the goods and the American people are getting on one end of the country to the other. They are not going to allow anybody to buy an election. They can't."

THAT TAFT-CHANLER LEAGUE IS AN ORPHAN

Charles F. Murphy, Speaking for Tammany, Latest to Disown It.

The Taft-Chanler League of Harlem, which has been inserting $50 advertisements in the daily newspapers illustrating how to split the ticket and vote for Taft and against Hughes is a political orphan. It has been repudiated in turn by the Tammany organization of the Thirty-first Assembly District, where it is located; by the Republican organization of the same district; by the Republican National Committee, and the Democratic National Committee. And today it was repudiated by Charles F. Murphy, of Tammany Hall.

"I wouldn't speak of this matter," said Mr. Murphy, "but for the fact that chairman Parsons of the Republican organization has accused Tammany of backing this league, which is plainly working to cut Hughes' throat. I want to say that Tammany Hall has had nothing to do with the organization of the league and knows nothing whatever about its management, or where it gets its money. I may have a further statement to make on the matter later on, when a little investigation which is on foot is completed. In the mean time the orphan Hughes-Chanler league is going right ahead spending thousands and thousands of dollars to buy the support of the party to split their tickets and vote for Chanler. The officers of the league are known as the sources of their supply of cash. All of their profits to be Republicans. The advertising is handled through an agency which pays in currency and will not say where the money comes from."

DEMOCRATIC YEAR, SAYS CHANLER ON HIS LAST LAP

Candidate Makes Prediction After Tour of Strong Republican Counties.

OGDENSBURG, N. Y., Oct. 30.—Lieut.-Gov. Chanler left here early today for Ithaca and Auburn, the candidate being scheduled to speak at a late afternoon meeting at the former place and this evening at the latter. Mr. Chanler plans to end his long campaign in his home county of Dutchess. He will speak at a big rally in Poughkeepsie Saturday night and will spend Sunday at his home in Red Hook township.

Monday Mr. Chanler will receive a number of his neighbors and probably make several short speeches at different points in the county. He will vote at Red Hook on Tuesday and receive the returns at home that night. In his journey through the strong Republican counties of Clinton, Franklin and St. Lawrence yesterday, Mr. Chanler had prolonged consultations with the Democratic leaders. They all assured him that indications pointed this year to the heaviest Democratic vote ever polled in this section and declared that many Republicans of long standing were openly declaring their intention not only to vote for Mr. Chanler but for Mr. Bryan as well.

The Democratic candidate dwelt upon these statements in his speeches and assured his hearers time and again that he had no doubt of his own election and urged upon them to work for the remainder of the candidates upon the State ticket, for the National ticket and for the Democratic Congressional nominees.

"I have been deeply impressed," said Mr. Chanler today, "by the evidences of Democratic unity all over the State, and the assurances I have received of Republican support in the fight to carry the State not only for the State ticket, but for our National standard-bearers as well. This is a Democratic year. Never have the indications up the State been so promising as they are today."

QUEER LOOK ABOUT THIS EXCISE CASE

Brady Fails to Appear as a Witness After Having Caused an Arrest.

MAGISTRATE BUTTS, sitting in Jefferson Market Court, today called a case of alleged violation of the Excise law against Charles McCracken, a bartender for John Rogers, who keeps a saloon at No. 189 Eighth avenue, Rogers is President of the Retail Liquor Dealers' Association in his district. Charles D. Brady, a saloon keeper at No. 214 Ninth avenue, entered Rogers's place last Sunday morning, bought a drink and then called in two policemen, who arrested McCracken on Brady's complaint. The case was adjourned until today.

But Brady failed to appear. The policeman who made the arrest told Magistrate Butts that he tried several times yesterday to find Brady at the latter's place of business, and at his home, No. 53 West Thirty-fourth street, but could get no trace of him.

"I understand," said the Magistrate, "that Brady was arrested two or three weeks ago for violating the Excise law and that there is something in this case about the collection of assessments by Rogers for police protection. Inasmuch as there is no one here to press the complaint against the prisoner I order his discharge, but I am going to send the case to the District-Attorney with the recommendation that he look into it."
