CANNON WINS BUT HIS CZAR RULE BROKEN

Re-elected Speaker, Then Sees Old House Rules Swept Away by Insurgents. MEMBERS IN AN UPROAR. Champ Clark Leads Hostile Force to Victory That Curbs Speaker's Power.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—"Uncle Joe" Cannon was re-elected Speaker of the House to-day by a vote of 204 to 176, but the victory of the veteran was nullified later by a crushing defeat administered to the regulars by the insurgents that means new rules for the House and takes from the power of the Speaker.

The regulars went down to defeat in their effort to stave off the movement to amend the rules. By the narrow margin of four votes the Republican "insurgents," aided by the Democrats, were enabled to vote down a resolution presented by Mr. Dalzell (Penn.), making the rules of the Sixtieth Congress applicable to the present Congress.

Every member was on the qui vive. It was known that the result would be determined either way by the small-lot majorities. For a brief period the regulars were victorious when they adopted a motion for the previous question on the resolution, the call resulting was 194 yeas, 188 nays and they displayed their enthusiasm by wildly shouting and pounding their desks. Great was their chagrin, however, when Speaker Cannon announced that the resolution had been lost, 189 to 192.

Immediately afterward, Mr. Clark offered a resolution applying to the Sixty-first Congress the rules of the last Congress, but providing for material amendment and also for a Committee on Rules of fifteen instead of five. A motion for the previous question resulted—yeas, 179, yeas, 204, and the previous question was refused.

The fight on the rules of the House was begun in short order when Mr. Dalzell (Pennsylvania) rose to offer the usual resolution providing that the rules of the previous Congress should govern the present. "And on that motion I move the previous question," he said quickly. It had been understood for weeks that this motion, designed to shut off debate, would be the signal for the long threatened fight on the rules.

Mr. Clark (Missouri) demanded the yeas and nays before Mr. Dalzell had regained his seat, while Mr. Fitzgerald (New York), under the guise of making a parliamentary inquiry of the Chair, asked to have the rules explained. The Speaker promptly held the question out of order and refused to recognize Mr. Fitzgerald further. The Democrats, led by Mr. Clark, forced a roll call on Mr. Dalzell's motion. The resolution was defeated 193 to 182, thus accomplishing the success of the insurgents.

CLUBS DRIVE BACK HAT STRIKERS IN ATTACK ON NON-UNION RECRUITS

Deputy Sheriffs Make First Use of Weapons Against Mob Menacing Strike-Breakers in Orange Labor Troubles.—One Assailant Is Arrested.

Joseph Bocanero, a striker, tried to induce a strikebreaker not to enter the hat factory of Connett & Co., on South Jefferson street, Orange, N. J., to-day. When he found his arguments unavailing, he and a mob of strikers gathered around him and demanded to know who had authorized the detectives to use clubs. Mayor Seymour told the excited men that the detectives had been sworn in as deputies by Sheriff Harrigan, of Essex County, who had given them authority to carry clubs. He succeeded in quieting the strikers, who dispersed.

LIEUTENANT BEERY DISMISSED BY COMMISSIONER BINGHAM

Detective Who Let "Pirate" Bailey Escape Him in Honduras, Pays Extreme Penalty for His Lapse of Vigilance.—Capt. Burns Is Retired.

Police Lieutenant Peter W. Beery, attached to District-Attorney Jerome's staff, was dismissed from the force by Police Commissioner Bingham this afternoon. The dismissal came as the result of his trial on the charge that he allowed Francis E. Bailey, of the famed pirate ship Goldsboro, to escape in the harbor of Puerto Cortez, Honduras, on July 1 last, but in police circles to-day the dismissal was regarded as a slap by Gen. Bingham at Mr. Jerome, as Beery has been in favor with the District-Attorney.

Lieut. Beery was sent to Honduras to bring back three prisoners after the Goldsboro had been captured there. He got two men, but the third escaped and the detective was placed on trial before Deputy Commissioner Hanson as soon as he returned to this city. Hanson scored Beery at the trial, but as the decision had hung fire ever since, it was thought the case would be forgotten. It was said in Beery's defense that it was unfair to send one man to bring back three prisoners from a foreign port.

GREAT CROWD CHEERS WESTON AT START OF 4,300-MILE WALK

Postmaster Morgan Starts Aged Pedestrian on Long Tramp Across the Continent to Celebrate Seventy-first Birthday—Will Reach San Francisco in 100 Days.

Edward Payson Weston, the famous pedestrian, to-day started from the New York Post-Office Building on a 4,300 mile walk across the continent. Postmaster Morgan gave the word at the start and a great crowd cheered Weston as he started up Broadway. Weston is taking the walk to celebrate his seventy-first year. He expects to cover the distance in one hundred days. "I am in the best of condition," he said, "and will surely reach San Francisco within the 100 days scheduled. I was never in such spirits as I am to-day."

"FENCING GIRL" CAUSES DELAY IN BATONYI SUITS

Beatrice Dreyfus, Known as Brevaine, and Thrice Divorced, an Absent Witness REFUSES TO COME HERE.

"Come to Chicago for Testimony," Former Member of Anna Held's Co. Says.

The action of Frances Work Burke-Roche-Batonyi for an absolute divorce from Aurel Batonyi was scheduled for trial to-day before Justice Platzeck and a jury in the Supreme Court, Batonyi's counter-suit for a separation to follow in case Mrs. Batonyi should fail to convince the jury of the truth of her charges against him that he had been involved with three women named in her complaint.

But when the case was called, ex-Judge W. M. K. Olcott, associated with J. Frank Work, cousin and counsel for Mrs. Batonyi, asked for an adjournment because of the absence of "the most important witness to be examined in behalf of Mrs. Batonyi, Beatrice Dreyfus." Morris Cukor and Frank Moss, appearing for Batonyi, said that, while they would not question the word of Judge Olcott, they thought his request ought to be accompanied by affidavits.

Will Ask for Commission. Judge Olcott said in reply that the affidavits would be forthcoming as soon as they could be sworn to. "I received from Chicago on Saturday," said he, "a letter signed Beatrice Dreyfus, which is the name used by one of the co-respondents named by Mrs. Batonyi, and in which she says she has been called on business to Chicago which will detain her there for several weeks, and that she cannot testify on this trial, and that if we want her testimony we must come to Chicago to get it."

Then J. Henry Work presented an affidavit setting forth that he hoped to prove by Beatrice Dreyfus, the missing witness, that Aurel Batonyi was her companion in a midnight ride in a taxicab from Broadway and Forty-seventh street to St. Nicholas avenue and One Hundred and Ninety-fifth street and back again the night of March 4 and 5 last, the trip beginning at about 8 o'clock and ending at 1.

Mr. Work said further in his affidavit that he had set investigators to work afterward, confronting her with the report of the investigators. Beatrice Brevaine Dreyfus admitted that it was true. He said he had called her "Lucille Brabant" in Mrs. Batonyi's complaint because he did not know her right name.

On the assent of Messrs. Cukor and Moss, Justice Platzeck granted an adjournment long enough for a commission to take the testimony of Mrs. Dreyfus in Chicago and report, which means that the case will not come up again until April. The introduction of the name of Beatrice Dreyfus into the case was a sensation. She is known to all America as "Beatrice Brevaine, the Fencing Girl," and later as one of the most fascinating of the dancing girls in Anna Held's "French Maids" company.

ARMY FORCE HALTS INVADERS AT WEST POINT

WEST POINT, N. Y., March 15.—Several hundred laborers who were employed on the Government reservation at West Point were held up by army officers when they attempted to cross the borders of the reservation here to-day. Recently an order was issued that all laborers excepting mechanics should take a back road on the reservation in going to and returning from work, complaints having been made that the crowds obstructed the sidewalks near the buildings and blew tobacco smoke in the faces of women and men.

Defiant Laborers Who Insisted on Crossing Reservation Forced Back.

The laborers then returned to Highland Falls and held an outdoor mass meeting, after which they declared that they would not return to work while the order to which they objected remained in force.

16 DROWNED IN COLLISION OF STEAMER AND SHIP.

LOWESTOFT, England, March 15.—The smack Iris came in her to-day with nine more men from the crew of the German ship Margretha, which sank about twenty miles west of the Maas Lightship yesterday after collision with the Norwegian steamer Mascot. The men suffered greatly from exposure in an open boat before they were picked up.

Captain and Members of Margretha's Crew Missing After Crash—Others Rescued.

It is feared that the captain of the Margretha, together with his wife and child and thirteen members of the ship's crew, have been drowned. Six members of the crew of the German ship have been taken to Rotterdam. The Mascot is now at Rotterdam with a big hole in her bow.

Fine New Turkish Baths now open in the new Pulitzer Building. Only first-class downtown establishment. Modern in every detail. Electric and Turkish baths at all hours. Manicure and massage, also barber shop, open day and night.

MAYOR ASKS $50,000 FOR SECRET ARMY TO FIGHT BLACK HAND

Petrosino's Death Rouses City Officials and Aldermen Are Expected to Grant Sum Once Refused to Bingham for Special Force.

7,000 MEMBERS OF CAMORRA HIDDEN HERE, IT IS SAID.

Protected by Wealthy Countymen, Declares Dr. Asselta—Assassins' Victim Carried List of Three Hundred of Them to Show the Italian Officials.

$1,000 REWARD

THE WORLD will pay a reward of $1,000 for information that will lead to the detection, arrest and conviction of the man or men responsible for the murder of Police Lieutenant Joseph Petrosino, in Palermo, Sicily, on Friday evening, March 12.

The Board of Aldermen will probably pass to-morrow, at Mayor McClellan's request, a bill appropriating $50,000 for a secret service to deal with the Black Hand. The Mayor will also ask the United States Government to co-operate in the task of wiping out the Camorra in this country.

In addition it is probable that the City of New York will offer a special reward for the apprehension of the murderers of Petrosino. The guiding principle of the members of the Italian bands of assassins is cupidity. If there is money enough available it will almost certainly be possible to buy information that will lead to the punishment of the men who killed Petrosino, and the opening up of a movement which will result in the total destruction of the Camorra in this country.

Dr. Rapahel Asselta, of No. 31 Prince street, is authority for the statement that there are between 6,000 and 7,000 Italians in this country combined in blackmailing and assassination schemes. He charges that many respectable Italians in this city are more than indifferent to the operations of the criminals.

According to Dr. Asselta, a prominent Italian banker is shielding a murderer who killed three persons in Italy and hid their bodies in a cellar, and another Italian banker boasts that for $50 he procured the suppression of some papers in the District-Attorney's office, which resulted in an Italian criminal defeating the ends of justice.

Petrosino Carried List. Dr. Asselta says that when Petrosino went to Italy he had a list of 50 Italians now resident in this city who have been convicted of crime in Italy and fled in disguise when on parole. He was about to conclude an arrangement with the Italian Government, the doctor says, whereby these men were to be deported to Italy to serve terms in prison. The Italian prisons are deathtraps and the strongest man cannot survive the confinement with its attendant tortures more than two years. Hence the desire of the Camorra to put Petrosino out of the way.

Commissioner Bingham is preparing a general order which will be a tribute to the ability and faithfulness of Detective Petrosino. Included in this order will be an effort suspending the rules of the department to allow for the collection of a fund for the maintenance of Petrosino's widow and infant daughter.

A National "War." Detectives were sent out to-day to look up the records of all Italians who have left this port for Italy since Feb. 5, when Petrosino sailed. The movement against the Black Hand will have to take a national scope. Chicago, Pittsburg, San Francisco, New Orleans, St. Louis and other large cities having a heavy Italian population are all the theatres of outrages committed under cover of the Black Hand.

Clew Found in Pittsburg. The best-in fact, the only tangible clue upon which the police have to work in seeking the slayers of Petrosino has come to Inspector McCafferty from Pittsburg in response to a telegram he sent to the Chief of Detectives of that city Saturday. It deals with one Pasquarrelli, a noted associate of Italian assassins and blackmailers in the coal regions, who disappeared from his haunts at about the time Petrosino left New York for Italy. The "Foreign Third Section," a secret service branch of the Pennsylvania State Constabulary, is working on the Pasquarrelli clue. Pasquarrelli acted for two years as a "stool pigeon" for the constabulary. Inspector McCafferty's telegram asked the Pittsburg police to ascertain if any member of the Black Hand or any other Black Hand society left Pittsburg or vicinity at such a time as to enable him to reach Palermo just before March 12. The Pittsburg detective force, because of the heavy Italian population in and around the city, has an efficient and complicated system for
