

AGED MOTHER
CROSSES COUNTRY
TO SEE SON'S PLAY

At Sixty-seven, Mrs. Samuel Travels 3,000 Miles to Add to Triumph.

WINS AGAINST FAMILY Literary Efforts of Morris Had Earned Him Little Sympathy.

Mrs. David Samuel, of San Francisco, sixty-seven years old, arrived in this city this morning weary, but aggressively cheery. She is the mother of Morris D. Samuel, author of the play "The Confidant," which Paul H. Leiber is to produce tonight for the first time at the Garden Theatre.

Mrs. Samuel has eight grown children. Five of them are men. Four have prospered in business, but Morris, to the dismay of the family and the grief of his mother, did not incline to business.
He insisted on being literary. Some years ago Morris wrote a comedy in blank verse. It was published, but the returns were not large and the family regarded it as a tragedy.

MOTHER WILL DEVOTE LIFE TO SON VICTIM OF LEPROSY

Massachusetts Woman Arranges to Sell Property and Isolate Herself at Leper Colony.

UPTON, Mass., March 29.—Devotion to her seventeen-year-old son Archibald, who last week was pronounced a leper and removed to the State colony on Zeneke Island, will in a few days carry Mrs. Emma Thomas, of this town, to the isolated settlement to give herself to the care of the young man.

Mrs. Thomas, a widow, to-day began arrangements for selling all of her personal property. As soon as this is completed she will go to Zeneke, the State authorities having granted her permission to make her home there.

REVIVES AN OLD SUIT.

Mrs. Spaulding Seeking Divorce Hires New Lawyer.

On the petition of Mrs. Eva B.
Spaulding Justice O'Gorman in the Supreme Court to-day permitted her to substitute Joseph L. Glover in place of Abraham Hummel, as her attorney in a divorce suit begun in 1902 and sent to Charles A. Jackson as referee. There were several hearings, but for some reason which Mrs. Spaulding does not know there was a halt in July, 1907, and they have never been resumed.
Mrs. Spaulding suspects something wrong and desires to revive the action.

REV. W. CHAMBERLAIN DEAD.

DERBY, Conn., March 29.—Rev. Walter Chamberlain, a retired Methodist Episcopal clergyman, and for nearly sixty years a member of what is now the Newark (N. J.) conference, died at his home here about last midnight.
He was about eighty-seven years old.
A widow and two sons survive.

PASSAIC SEWER
PLANS AS FILED ARE INDEFINITE

War Department Engineers Will Pass Upon Scheme to Use New York Bay.

The plans of the proposed Passaic Valley sewer were received to-day by Maurice B. Dean, special counsel, representing the Attorney-General of New York State, as a result of the conference March 11 on the suit pending in the United States Supreme Court, brought by the State of New Jersey against the State of New York and the Passaic Valley Sewerage Commissioners, in which the United States intervened as a party plaintiff.

"The plans are still indefinite," said Deputy Attorney-General Ezra P. Prentice this morning, "and no maps of the specifications were submitted with them. I have little hope of settling the suit upon the plans submitted, and am preparing the case for trial, in order to ameliorate the intolerable conditions along the river as soon as possible."

It is understood that a copy of the plans will be forwarded to Washington by Hugh Gordon Miller, who was appointed a special United States Deputy Attorney-General to look after the Federal Government's end of the matter, and that this copy will be submitted to engineers of the War Department.

THINKS HE IS CHARLIE ROSS.

Brakeman Declares 'any Facts Lead Him to Belief.

PITTSBURGH, March 29.—William Grant Eyster, of McKee Docks, formerly a coal miner at Shamokin, now a brakeman, says that he believes himself to be Charles Ross, kidnapped from Germany, Pa., thirty-five years ago.
He said he learned early in life that he was not the child of his supposed parents and that many things they did lead him to believe that he was Charlie Ross. He says he tallies in every respect with the description of Charlie, except in his eyes.

Worth Knowing

Best Prescription Obtainable for Backache and Kidneys.

"Six half ounce fluid extract Buchu, half ounce Murax compound, six ounces good, pure gin; shake bottle well each time and take in doses of one to two teaspoonfuls after meals." Any druggist will mix or supply these ingredients. This mixture will quickly relieve backache, rheumatic pains, acidulent and highly colored urination.
These symptoms of kidney trouble must have prompt attention to avoid Bright's disease or diabetes.

cided to permit representatives of the

FLAMES SWEEP
DOCKS AT HAVANA,
SHIPPING ABLAZE

Burning Vessels Run Free Before the Wind—Three Men Missing.

HAVANA, March 29.—A fire that broke out on the Havana docks shortly after 11 o'clock to-day had made such headway by noon that grave fears were felt for the shipping in port. The flames, driven by a heavy southerly gale, threatened to sweep the entire water front of the city.

Several schooners, lighters and launches caught fire and drifted before the wind. Their uncontrolled progress endangered the steamers and other craft anchored in the harbor.
It is rumored that a large German steamer anchored out on the bay already is on fire, but the smoke is so thick that it is impossible to obtain verification of this report.

The flames started on the wharves of the Havana Central Railroad located on the upper side of the harbor.
The fire was under control at 1 o'clock. The loss will be heavy, but the fire was less serious than was at first threatened. The German steamer Holloland, which was lying at the wharf, was badly damaged. Her crew escaped, with the exception of three men, who are reported to have been injured.

INJURED CHILD
DIES ON HOSPITAL
OPERATING TABLE

Teamster, Who Just Missed Crowd of Boys, Didn't See John Studley.

John Studley, seven years old, on his way from school to his home at No.
1433 First avenue, to-day, was run over and killed by a truck loaded with sand at Seventy-sixth street and First avenue. Emil Skrayvanek, of No. 517 East Seventy-sixth street, the driver of the truck, was arrested and in Yorkville Police Court the Magistrate remanded him to the custody of the Coroner.

Skrayvanek is employed as a teamster by the National Morse Company, a contracting concern with a dock at Seventy-ninth street and the East River. He was driving with a load of sand westward through Seventy-sixth street when at the junction of First avenue a crowd of schoolboys scurried across in front of his team.
Shouting a word of warning, Skrayvanek pulled up his horses momentarily. The boys were seemingly all out of the way and he started on again.
Then little Studley, who had not seen the team, dashed across the street and ran directly into one of the horses.
He fell to the ground in such a way that Skrayvanek, in trying to avoid him pulled out just far enough to allow the front wheel to run over his body. The tremendous weight crushed the boy's thoracic bones and flattened most of his internal organs, but he was alive when

CROWD WATCH HER SUFFER.

Half-Clothed Woman Gaped at While Lying on Sidewalk.

Ill and destitute, with barely enough clothing to cover her, Mrs. Freda Seifert, sixty-four years old, of No. 54 Heater street, was picked up on the street to-day and sent to Bellevue Hospital. Policeman Thomas Harpen saw a crowd at Forty-second street and Vanderbilt avenue surrounding the woman, who was lying on the sidewalk and so ill that it was with difficulty she could tell the policeman her name and address.
She wore a thin and tattered black skirt and waist and no stockings or underwear. She could not explain her presence there and begged to be taken some place "where it is warm."
