

"MOP" DIRECTORS MEET, BUT FAIL TO ELECT PRESIDENT

George Gould Issues a Statement, Declaring Everything Is Now Harmonious.

The selection of an executive board for the Missouri Pacific Railway this afternoon resulted in a tie vote as between the Gould and the Kuhn-Loeb & Co. Standard Oil interests, with the deciding vote left with the president yet to be elected, and who will be a member of the board. No effort was made to name a new head for the road, and George J. Gould continues in that capacity until such time as a man may be found for the presidency.

It was asserted after the meeting that no man had been agreed upon. Almost every prominent operating railroad official in the country has been under discussion in connection with the position.

Mr. Gould's Statement.
After the meeting George J. Gould made this announcement:
At the meeting of the Missouri Pacific directors held today for organizational purposes, Mr. Gould was elected Chairman of the board, the presidency being left vacant at his request in the hope of filling it in the very near future.

Messrs. Fred T. Gates, George J. Gould, E. D. Adams, H. T. Jeffery, Edwin Gould and Correllion (Gardner) were elected to the Executive Committee, an eight seventh piece left vacant to be filled by the new president when he is elected to the board.

"Mr. Gould invited Messrs. Marston, Warburg and Adams to serve as directors on the Iron Mountain board, and Marston and Henry E. Cooper to serve on the Texas and Pacific board, and Messrs. Marston and Adams on the Denver and Rio Grande board, in order that the interests joining him in the Missouri Pacific should have close relations and be in continuous touch with all of the properties.

"It is hoped by all the interests that the stories and reports of discord between Mr. Gould and those he has invited into the properties will now cease. They are without foundation in fact, and can only serve to Injure the credit of the properties, which it is the united intention of all interested to uphold.

"The Board appointed a special committee, consisting of Messrs. George J. Gould, Fred T. Gates and E. D. Adams, to select, in their discretion, a president for the property, subject, of course, to the approval of the Board.
"The Iron Mountain Directors appointed as Executive Committee Messrs. George J. Gould, Kingston Gould, E. T. Jeffery, E. L. Marston, E. D. Adams, Paul Warburg and H. M. Galaway."

Standard Oil Man in.
The Standard Oil Company placed a representative upon the board of directors of the Cincinnati, New Orleans & Texas Pacific Railroad Company today. E. L. Marston, of Blatt & Co., also allied with the Kuhn, Loeb & Co. Rockefeller interests, became a member of the executive board.

This was announced after a meeting held at noon at No. 100 Broadway. George J. Gould was elected president; L. F. Thorne, Frank J. Gould, O. B. Lunsman, C. E. Satterlee and Kingston Gould were chosen as vice-presidents. Henry E. Cooper of No. 36 Broadway was placed in the directory to take the place of Alvin Kreck. E. L. Marston took the place of J. J. Slossom as a member of the executive board.
The changes made are in line with the recent understanding between the Gould and Rockefeller interests.

LUMSDEN GETS A NEW TRIAL.
Court of Appeals Nullifies Conviction of Snydam's Slayer.

ALBANY, March 21.—The Court of Appeals this afternoon granted a new trial to John C. Lumsden, who was convicted of manslaughter for having shot and killed Harry B. Snydam in New York City Dec. 15, 1908. Lumsden believed Snydam had wronged him in reference to an invention.
The court reverses Lumsden's conviction on the ground that the judge did not give him the benefit of self defense in his charge to the jury.
