

GAVE "BURGLARS" JAM AND COFFEE AFTER CAPTURE

They Were Young Explorers From Jersey Seeking Indians to Slay.

HALLWAY THEIR BED.

Lambert Surprised Them With Trusty Revolver and They Surrendered.

Albert Lambert of No. 532 Forty-ninth street, Brooklyn, who is a sound sleeper, awoke with a start about 1 o'clock this morning.

"Hst, Albert!" she whispered, "there's burglars in the house!"

"Nothing doing," mumbled Albert as he rolled over and went to sleep.

"Ouch!" said her husband. "I'm certain there's burglars in the house," Mrs. Lambert said, as she sat up in bed.

Albert heard and, being a brave husband, he slipped out of bed, girded on his bathrobe and prepared for the worst.

"Be careful, Albert; they might shoot," whispered Mrs. Lambert. Lambert trembled at the thought, but prepared to meet his fate.

He awoke the boys and took them upstairs where, after Mrs. Lambert had filled them full of bread, jam and hot coffee, he gained from them the information that they were Michael Daly, aged eleven, of No. 107 Seventh street, Harrison, N. J., and Andrew Simpson, aged thirteen, of No. 74 Davis avenue, Kearney, N. J., runaways, explorers and soldiers of fortune.

Only in an experienced globe trotter, he has traveled on numerous other occasions, even unto Hackensack, Union Hill and Hoboken.

Women Do the Courting and Pick Out Husbands Now, Says This Novelist

Thompson Buchanan, Author of "A Woman's Way" and a Bachelor, Declares She Compliments a Man in Marrying Him.

Women of To-Day Love with Their Minds and Study Men and Their Ways Before Making Their Final Choice.

With the present-day arrangements, any man should consider himself highly complimented if a woman consents to marry him.

Mr. Thompson Buchanan seemed in earnest when he said this, for he flocked the ashes from the tip of his cigarette and uncrossed his knees in a very decided manner.

Mr. Buchanan, author of "A Woman's Way," "Judith Triumphant," "Castle Comedy" and other pleasing looks, to be a contented bachelor in his apartment at No. 135 Waverley place.

"You see," he continued, "a triflingly serious, it would seem that the way the world is run today it is producing a lot of loveless women.

"Be careful, Albert; they might shoot," whispered Mrs. Lambert. Lambert trembled at the thought, but prepared to meet his fate.

Home Treatment for Tuberculosis

Many people have cured themselves of Tuberculosis by using Ekinan's Alternative. This is not a new medicine. It has been used for many years.

ACCUSED BY DETECTIVE OF ATTEMPTING ROBBERY.

Brenneis Says Mitchell Tried to Pick Pocket of Clergyman in the Subway.

Frank Mitchell, of No. 215 West Fortieth street, against whom the police say there is a record of seven convictions for petty thieving and pocket-picking was taken before Magistrate Herbert in O'Byrville court today by Detective Brenneis of the staff of District Attorney Whitman.

Brenneis said that he was sitting behind Mitchell in a north-bound subway express at Grand Central station last evening when he saw Mitchell lift the coat tail of one of two clerymen standing near him and grope into his hip pocket.

Mitchell was held in $500 bail for a later hearing. He said that there were friends with him on the train who could clear him.

Milk Wagon in Runaway. A horse drawing one of the Jordan milk company's wagons and driven by Benjamin Silverstein of No. 141 Brook avenue, the Bronx, ran away today on West one Hundred and Seventy-seventh street.

Mitchell was held in $500 bail for a later hearing. He said that there were friends with him on the train who could clear him.

STERN BROTHERS call attention to an elaborate showing of Imported Mourning Hats, Bonnets and Toques for Fall and Winter Wear

Such authorities as Marcelle Alexandre, Mangin-Maurice, Marie Michel and Rives have designed especially for Stern Brothers this collection of the season's approved models, of Uncut Velvet, Peau de Soie, Grenadine and Crepe.

This showing consists of dress, semi-dress and smart street hats for widows, young women and misses, and in all designs in which colored hats are made.

Among the smartest creations is the Directoire Poke of uncut velvet, with trimmings of handsome black novelty band and black ribbon; the Toque and Muil effect of peau de soie with French grenadine shirings; the Turban, with new side roll effects; also Taffeta Hats, with silk fringe, and hats with plume effects of ribbon and chiffon.
