500 IN MAN HUNT WITH BLOODHOUNDS TO KILL OUTLAW

"Shoot on Sight," Is Order to Army in Wilds of Connecticut.

DEFIES FROM HIDING.

Sobino, Slayer of Two, Holds His Pursuers and Country-side in Terror.

SOUTH NORWALK, Conn., Sept. 18.—Undaunted by a fruitless night in the woods, 500 official and volunteer vigilantes to-day renewed their search for Tony Sobino, wanted at Wilton for the murder of Harry Mandlin.

Every man was armed and prepared to take no chances. Sobino is recognized as in a desperate mood. He has a rifle and belt full of homemade slugs, and is believed to be lurking somewhere in the wild country to the north, almost trackless and infested with snakes. In the past two months he has shot two men.

Last night's search was made more difficult by the fact that none of the hunters dared carry a lantern. The line, however, was extended to-day from South Norwalk north to beyond Wilton in one direction, and passed were scattered northeast as far as New Canaan.

POSSIBLE TO SHOOT ON SIGHT, TAKE NO CHANCES.

Sobino will be shot on sight, as he has always proved that he has no hesitation at shooting at any man he suspects of being on his trail. Day before yesterday he boldly opened fire on different neighborhoods. Sobino is a good shot and there is apprehension for some of the hundreds who have come from every section of Fairfield County to help in running him down.

The wild and hilly character of the country adds to the difficulty of the search.

The Sheriff is confident, however, that he has found Sobino hidden in the woods near the town of Wilton. He is now being kept in a cage at the station, and there is another party on watch at the cabin in the woods nearby where Sobino took refuge for a while on Sunday night.

In the second hunt were found some leaden slugs like those with which the bandit is armed, and also a mould, such as is used for making bullets.

FIRE HERO FALLS 40 FEET.

Robert Child, a fireman of Hook and Ladder Company No. 20, saw a fire on the roof of No. 80 East One Hundred and Sixty-first street to-day, during the lunch hour. He found the fire was in the chimney and put it out.

Then he saw that sparks had set a fire in a window of No. 80 East One Hundred and Sixty-first street. In trying to reach the window he fell forty feet to the street. Three of his ribs were broken, one perforated lung, and he refused to let ambulance surgeon Bill take him to Lebanon Hospital and went to his home, No. 80 Caldwell avenue.

RECEIVER TURNED DOWN.

Brewery Cannot Pay for Licenses of Its Customers.

Supreme Court Justice Tompkins at White Plains to-day denied the motion of William Holsby, temporary receiver of the Westchester County Brewery of Mount Vernon, for an order allowing him to issue receivers' certificates for $5,000 to pay for the licenses of customers of the brewery and interest on bonds. The receiver asked that the certificates be made as prior lien upon the property, and to this a trust company, which has a mortgage for $25,000 on the brewery, objected.

Judge Tompkins, in his decision, said: "I am satisfied that the lien of the mortgage cannot be disputed or the motion unless the bondholders or some one duly authorized to act for them consent to the making of such an order."

TENNIS AT NEWPORT BY WOMEN IN SWEATERS.

NEWPORT, Sept. 18.—With the temperature down to 65, the society women started their tennis tournament at the Mount Vernon Hotel, wearing tennis costumes and snug heavy white sweaters as they played. The week's tournament started in scratch singles, Mrs. Wilder of New York winning from Mrs. Pouch of New York, 6-4, 6-4.

Miss Dorothy Kane of Newport defeated Miss Adele Bull of Brooklyn and Newport, 6-2, 6-2.

GOES INSANE, LEAPS INTO RIVER.

Henry Badar, a 42-year-old man, two years old, while being transferred from Lebanon Hospital to Bellevue on the Department of Corrections steamerboat, Thomas Brennan, this afternoon, became violently insane and leaped through a window into East River. He was rescued from the water, but died a few minutes later. He had been a patient at Lebanon Hospital several days, suffering from delirium tremens. He lived at No. 262 Egle avenue, Bronx.

CALLS AMERICAN MEN NAMES; NO IDEAL IN THE UNITED STATES.

WILLIAM SPRAGUE, GRANDSON OF WILLIAM SPRAGUE, RHODE ISLAND'S WAR GOVERNOR.

Nothing Worth While Out of Paris Is View of Ex-Gov. Sprague's Granddaughter.

JUST GOT A DIVORCE.

Might Wed Again if She Found Man Up to Her Ideal, but He Isn't Here.

PROVIDENCE, Sept. 18.—It is doubtful if there is a man in all America who has sufficient ability, good looks, refinement and fitness enough to win the hand and heart of Mrs. Frank Ines Sprague Stines, granddaughter of William Sprague, Rhode Island's war Governor.

Mrs. Stines has just finished getting a divorce from Henry William Stines, son of ex-Chief Justice John H. Stines of New York. She got it in Paris and has returned to Narragansett Pier for a short stay. She admits that if such a man as is described above could be found she might allow herself to entertain thoughts of marriage.

If you meet an American," she was asked, "who knew how to treat women, would you marry him?"

"This is the first time I have had the pleasure of greeting you since you became a City Magistrate, and I thought I would take this opportunity of combining business with pleasure."

Since then lawyers have been wondering whether Edward A. Freshman, the prosecuting attorney for the Brooklyn Bar Association, would bring Walter Shaw Brewster, the chairman of the Discipline Committee of the association, before the association or before his own disciplining committee for violating the rules of practice.

"This is the first time I have had the pleasure of greeting you since you became a City Magistrate, and I thought I would take this opportunity of combining business with pleasure."

With Mrs. Stines during her two years in Paris was her granddaughter and his wife. Mrs. Stines's two-year-old daughter Avie also was with her.

But it appears that the rules governing the practice of attorneys and counselors-at-law set forth in very plain language that lawyers must not, under any circumstances, go before any opponent or stranger—in civil or criminal proceedings.

The case in which Mr. Brewster gave the bond came up in the Adams Street Court to-day, but was adjourned for a further hearing.

Edward A. Freshman, the prosecuting attorney of the committee on discipline of the Bar Association, oddly enough, appeared as counsel for the defense.

Not in years has there been so much general excitement throughout the region. The police in the two Norwalks are on edge looking for Sobino, and the constables and peace officers in all the smaller places are going about doubly armed.

There is a special guard at the cabin in the field on the Moriarty farm near Huckleberry Hill, where Sobino camped Saturday night, and there is another party on watch at the cabin in the woods nearby where Sobino took refuge for a while on Sunday night.

WANTS TO PUT BAN ON VULGAR DANCES IN PUBLIC PLACES

Alderman Van Nostrand Offers a Resolution, but It Is Sent to a Committee.

Following the fight made by Prof. Alois Gran and other members of the Dancing Masters' Association for the prohibition of such dances as tend to bring the graceful art into disrepute, Alderman Leonard Van Nostrand to-day presented to the Board of Aldermen a resolution barring a number of suggestive dances from any public places where dances are held for dancing.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Laws and Legislation. From the time when a sometimes all-wise Legislature picked up all of the dancing institutions of the State and arbitrarily placed them in the same category, the Dancing Masters' Association has been in arms. The legislative concern, were the wives and daughters of the community were instructed in dancing just as they learn at other schools to find Nagasaki on the map, found that the law made no distinction between them and the heeey precincts where dances are held.

Alderman Van Nostrand asked in his resolution that the dances of the type named be excluded from all public places.

"These dances," said the Alderman, "are immoral and vulgar and the public, but they endanger the young, many of whom at less than fifteen or sixteen years of age are permitted to indulge in such things. Even in Chicago, where some of the dances originated, they have now been barred by law. The Board of Aldermen ought to bar them from all licensed halls in New York."

When the Board of Aldermen reconvened to-day after the summer vacation a shower of resolutions, all calculated to improve the conditions in Aldermanic districts and "my constituents," were sent to the clerk. Alderman Fuka wanted the Governor to veto the proposed charter if it failed to contain a provision sending it to the people of this city for ratification. His resolution was laid on the table by a vote of thirty to twenty-seven.

Alderman Herbst asked that sea water be brought into the city through pipes so that every one could get a sea bath without patronizing the B. R. T. His resolution was sent to the Committee on Laws and Legislation.

WOMAN SEEKS DEATH UNDER SUBWAY TRAIN.

Motorman Applies Brakes and Stops Car Within Two Feet of Her.

A neatly dressed woman about twenty-five years old attempted suicide at noon to-day by leaping from the platform at the South Ferry subway station in front of an incoming train. Motorman John Dugan saw her jump and applied the emergency brakes, bringing the train to a stop within two feet of the woman.

Special policemen Lorenz Hansen leaped to the track and lifted the woman to the platform. She was moaning and sobbing and fought with all her strength, declaring in German and English: "Let me alone. I want to die."

Hansen took the woman to the Greenwich street police station. She refused to give her name or make any statement. An ambulance was called from the New York Hospital and after making an examination Dr. Orr declared the woman unhurt. She was transferred to the Old Ship station and locked up, charged with attempted suicide. The matron questioned the woman, who then declared that she was Gretchen Lauterbach of No. 12 Garden street, New Rochelle.

She said she had a sister, Mrs. Burkmaier, in New Rochelle. Miss Lauterbach denied that she attempted to commit suicide, insisting that she was the victim of nervous attacks and that she fell onto the tracks. She was held in Centre Street Police Court for examination to-morrow.

MAGON LOSES 12 MEN, MADERO 3 IN BATTLE.

All Killed, Says Report, and It Is Supposed Fight Was One of "No Quarter."

LAREDO, Tex., Sept. 18.—Twenty followers of Ricardo Flores Magon and three Maderistas are reported to have been killed in a battle fought near Camargo, Mexico, last night.

No mention is made in the despatches of the wounded. It is noted that the scene of the fight was between the towns of Mier and Camargo on the Rio Grande.

It is reported in Laredo that the town of Reynosa, near Camargo, has been captured by the Magonistas.

KINDLING WOOD TRUST ATTACKED IN U. S. COURT

$1,500,000 Standard Company and Others Hauled Up for Conspiracy in Prices.

A new blow at monopoly, struck by the United States Government in this city to-day when suit for an injunction to restrain the Standard Wood Company and other corporations and individuals forming what is known as the kindling wood trust from doing business under existing contracts, was filed in the Circuit Court by United States District Attorney Henry A. Wise. This trust is held by the Government authorities to be particularly oppressive because its product is eventually purchased at retail almost entirely by the poorer people.

To-day's proceedings were brought under the Sherman Anti-Trust law. The corporations against which action has been brought include the Standard Wood Company of New York, Shrader Wood Company of Pennsylvania and New York, Conway Wood Company of Maine and New York, Long Island Wood Company of Brooklyn, Empire Wood Company of West Virginia and New Jersey, Keystone Wood Company of Pennsylvania, Pennsylvania Wood Company of Pennsylvania, Greens Manufacturing Company of New York.

OFFICERS OF COMPANIES ALSO MADE DEFENDANTS.

The individuals who are mentioned as defendants are Joseph W. Blaisdell, President of the Standard Wood Company and Vice-President of the Shrader Wood Company; Philo C. Blaisdell, Walter F. Blaisdell, Charles O. Blaisdell, Joseph F. Blaisdell, Andrew D. Whyte and George T. Whyte, Directors of the Standard Wood Company; Lillian P. Page of Maine; Joseph Fischer of New York; Paul H. Knowlton of Maine; W. L. Barclay of Pennsylvania; J. A. Greer of New York; David J. Greer of New York; Malcolm Garabedian, Michael H. Johnson, Thomas Halesian, Jacob Adams, Jacob Avakin and Peter Oigmgian of Massachusetts.

The kindling wood industry centres in the New England States, New York, Pennsylvania and West Virginia. The product is slabs, edging and waste from the manufacture of timber and boards, and the plants are located near large sawmills.

STANDARD COMPANY CAPITALIZED AT $1,500,000.

In the petition for the injunction it is set forth that the Standard Wood Company was organized in 1882 with a capital of $1,500,000. Seven companies then engaged in the preparation of kindling wood were combined into the Standard Wood Company.

This company sells more than half the kindling wood consumed in New England, New York, Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

It is charged that the Greene Manufacturing Company, which manufactures the automatic device for pressing, bundling and tying kindling wood, entered into an unlawful contract with the Standard Wood Company in 1902, agreeing not to sell any of its machines without the consent of the Standard Wood Company.

The Standard Wood Company is also charged with entering into illegal contracts with the other defendant companies and individuals for the purpose of controlling the price, both wholesale and retail, of the product, restricting the output to suit its own purposes, and dividing up the market.

"POWDER TRUST" SUED FOR $5,000,000 DAMAGES.

The Buckeye Powder Company Says Its Business Has Been Injured by Trust's Practices.

TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 18.—The Buckeye Powder Company, which formerly manufactured powder at Peoria, Ill., to-day brought suit in the United States Circuit Court here for $5,000,000 against the E. I. Du Pont de Nemours Powder Company and a number of its subsidiary concerns which are familiarly referred to as the "Powder Trust."

The Buckeye Company claims that its business has been injured by the practices of the so-called Powder Trust and places its actual damages at $1,119,967 and asks for $5,000,000 punitive damages. Other damages make up the balance.

HANDS WOULD CRACK OPEN AND BLEED.

Blisters Formed, Skin Scaled Off, and Flesh Burned and Itched Dreadfully. Healed by Less Than One Cake of Cuticura Soap and One Box of Cuticura Ointment.

"About two months ago my hands started to crack open and bleed, the skin would scale off, and the good flesh would burn and itch dreadfully. When my hands first started to get sore, there were small blisters like water blisters which formed. They itched dreadfully, it just seemed as though I could tear the skin all off. I would scratch them and the skin would peel off, and the flesh would be all red and crack open and bleed. It worried me very much, as I had had anything the matter with my skin. I was so afraid I would have to give up my employment."

"I consulted my doctor, and he said he didn't think it would amount to anything. But it kept getting worse. One day I saw a piece in one of the papers about a lady who had used Cuticura Soap and Ointment and was cured. I decided to try them, and my hands were all healed before I had used one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment. I am truly thankful for the good result from the Cuticura treatment, for thanks to them I was cured, and did not have to lose a day from work. I have had no return of the skin trouble." (Signed) Mrs. Mary E. Craig, 2522 Brown Street, Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 12, 1911.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment are for sale everywhere, but those who wish to try them without charge may do so by sending to Foster Drug Chem. Corp., Dept. 6A, Boston, for a liberal sample of each, post-free, together with 25-p. book on the skin and scalp.
