

AUTOIST BUTLER ON GLIDDEN TOUR KILLED IN GEORGIA

Car of Chairman of American Auto Association Contest Board Was Overturned.

TIFTON, Ga., Oct. 25.—S. M. Butler of New York City was instantly killed near here this morning when the automobile which he was driving in the Glidden tour was overturned. P. J. Walker and his wife, whose addresses are unobtainable, were hurt.

Butler was chairman of the contest board of the American Automobile Association. Walker is the referee of the Glidden tour, now in progress. The accident occurred early this forenoon, three miles from Tifton. The machine was running at a good speed when the steering apparatus went wrong. The automobile plunged forward, turned a somersault and settled on its side. Butler was caught beneath a wheel. The other occupants were thrown to the road. The car was pulled from Butler's body. He was badly cut and crushed.

Mr. Walker has a dislocated shoulder and broken collarbone. Mrs. Walker is suffering more from shock than her broken arm.

Charles F. Keilman of Rochester, N. Y., was in the wrecked car, but he escaped with slight injuries. Referee Walker is President of the California Automobile Association and had been selected as referee for the Glidden tour on its run from New York to Jacksonville.

S. M. Butler of this city, who was killed on the Glidden auto tour in Georgia, according to officials of the American Automobile Association, was formerly secretary of the Automobile Club of America. His entire time, the officials said, was devoted to his work as chairman of the contest board of the A. A. A. Mr. Butler is survived by a wife and two daughters, who live in Brooklyn.

News of the tragedy caused a sensation at the headquarters of the A. A. A. here, and business was practically suspended for the remainder of the day.

T. J. Walker, referee of the Glidden tour, who was hurt in the accident, is president of the California State Automobile Association. Mr. Walker's home is in San Francisco. Officials of the A. A. A. believed that the accident would not halt the tour, especially as the participants are now within a day's run of Jacksonville. Their goal, they said, was entirely in the hands of associate officials on the spot, among them being E. L. Ferguson, the starter. Mr. Ferguson, they thought, would probably act as referee during the remainder of the run.

WALL STREET.

A further contraction of business during the early period of today's stock market restricted price movements to small fractions.

Opening sales were practically unchanged from yesterday's final ranges. In the first fifteen minutes the list crept up a little when Erie, Reading and Union Pacific displayed a little activity on the constructive side, but higher levels were not maintained and stocks began to slip down toward the end of the first hour.

The tendency continued downward with only a few scattering orders being transacted. Complete stagnation prevailed in the afternoon period. A two-point break in the common stock of Republic, Iron and Steel was the only price change worthy of note.

The list finished slightly above the lowest, but with stocks a little under yesterday's close.

FISHER DEAD IN BOAT.

Drifts With Catch Into Taylor's Dock at Fishing.

The fish in the bottom of a rowboat were still alive when William Gaynor of Bayside, L. I., discovered it afloat near Taylor's Dock, Fishing, with a dead man aboard. There was nothing by which the body could be identified. The dead man, who had evidently been stricken with a hemorrhage, was five feet six inches tall, dark complexioned, had brown hair, eyes and stubby mustache, and was dressed in a brown suit and rubber boots.

WAR ON TOBACCO PLAN. Independent Object to Trusts' Method of Dissolution. Declaring that instead of restoring competition the plan of dissolution filed by the American Tobacco Company would result in legalizing monopoly, Louis B. Brandeis today submitted in the United States Circuit Court the answer of the independent tobacco concerns to the plan.

The brief points out that there are five fundamental defects in the plan. The method of dividing the properties of the Trust by distributing the stock pro rata among the common stockholders is objected to.

The brief says that no plan of dividing the Trust into three huge corporations can be effective. The three corporations would together be in a position to crush the independents even more effectively than has been done in the past.

MOTOR BURGLAR POLITELY LEAVES WHEN GIRL WAKES

Begs Her Pardon for Midnight Disturbance in Scholle Summer Home at Greenwich.

GREENWICH, Conn., Oct. 25.—A motor burglar of polished address made a gentlemanly intrusion into the beautiful summer home of A. H. Scholle early today and politely bowed himself out after he had aroused the beautiful Miss Lena Scholle from her slumbers.

According to the family this tremendously modern house breaker sacrificed $3,000 worth of plunder on the altar of politeness and motored away in the darkness with a mere trifle of $200 in silverware.

Miss Scholle is a light sleeper, and before the appearance of the young burglar in her room she had been aroused by the buzzing of an automobile engine. She was doing off again when she heard a light step. Her eyes popped open and she sat up. A tiny lamp was burning beside the young lady's canopy bed, and by its dim rays she made out the tall, handsome figure of a man about thirty. He wore a long motoring jacket and a motor cap with goggles clasped back of the peak.

HE WAS SORRY TO DISTURB LADY'S SLEEP.

For a moment Miss Scholle imagined she was still dreaming. Then she uttered a smothered ejaculation. The young man was just stepping over the threshold of the room. He stopped short and exclaimed in a low voice: "I most humbly beg your pardon."

whereat he bowed low and ceremoniously backed out of the room. Miss Scholle did not awaken until she was too much frightened to sit up and listened, heard the young man tread lightly down the stairs, open the front door and get back into his automobile. The car was speeding out into the country before Miss Scholle jumped out of bed and aroused the family. Sheriff Finnegan was telephoned to and he raced to the house in his auto. He found the burglar had taken all the silverware that had been left in the dining room.

The bill of the family's silver, however, had been packed up preparatory to the family moving to their winter home in Mount Vernon. It was packed in cases, which were in Mrs. Scholle's bedroom. It is thought the burglar was aware of this and got into Miss Scholle's room by mistake.

Whiskey for Colds. Fine Formula for Old Time Remedy Cured Thousands Here Last Winter.

The increased use of whiskey for colds is showing considerable discussion among the medical fraternity. It is an almost irrefutable fact when mixed with certain other ingredients and taken properly. Mix as follows:—Two ounces of whiskey and half an ounce of concentrated pine compound. Put these into half a pint of good whiskey, shake well and take one to two teaspoonfuls after each meal and at bedtime. Smaller doses to children according to age. This treatment often knocks the worst cough or cold in a day. Be sure to get only the genuine (Finnish) concentrated Pine. Each half ounce bottle comes in a sealed tin screw-top case. If the draught does not have it in stock he will quickly get it. Don't experiment with cheap imitative mixtures. It is very risky.—Adv.
