McGraw Doesn't Think Indoor Fields Would Do For Big League Teams

Players Need Outdoor Work in Order to Get into First-Class Condition.

BY BOZEMAN BULGER.

WHILE the Giants were preparing for their departure to the tropics...

"It may be all right for the colleges," said the Giant manager...

Notwithstanding the fact that the big league clubs will not use the indoor diamond...

These diamonds are to be used instead of the old-fashioned cages. They require considerably more room...

In the mild temperature of a covered inclosure Murphy says that the grass can be made to grow as luxuriantly as it does out of doors in the spring...

For while the originators of this unique idea believed that it would eventually be adopted by the big league clubs...

"The main thing in training," said McGraw, when approached on the subject, "is the physical condition of the man and not the mere practice in handling ground balls or running."

WALL STREET.

ROYAL STEAMER SAFE. Medina, Carrying King George and Party, Not Stranded.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—The Admiralty received a wireless message early today from the steamer Medina, upon which King George and Queen Mary with their party are on their way to India for the Indian Durbar. In reply to inquiries concerning a report that the steamer had grounded somewhere in the Mediterranean, officials of the Admiralty said that if any such rumor was really current, it certainly was untrue.

BOY IS FATALLY HURT. John Started Out to Get Job Couldn't Find One.

John Fagen, fourteen years old, of No. 414 East Twenty-fourth street, thought he was too big to go to school and yesterday secured his working papers. He spent this forenoon looking for work and on his way home at noon met several of his former schoolmates from the East Twenty-fourth street school.

A game of tag was proposed and John was "it." He pursued one of his companions into the empty flat house at No. 318 East Twenty-fourth street and to the third floor. The pursued boy ran out onto a fire escape and John, following, missed his footing and fell into the basement. He was attended by Dr. Norris and removed to Bellevue Hospital. He has a fractured skull and the surgeons say he will die.

husbands and lovers to inflict on her the torture which created a storm of indignation throughout the State. At the opening of court to-day County Attorney McCanness stated he had more than 300 affidavits to offer to the court to prove that there was no reason why a fair trial should not be given all the accused men in this county. Lincoln Center to-day harbored larger crowds than ever on a market or street fair day. The "tar party" and the criticism it has brought upon the county and even upon the State is more than ever the principal topic of discussion.
