$10,138,000 for Four Republican Campaigns.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt's letters to the late Edward H. Harriman prior to the presidential campaign of 1904 came out at the hearing to-day before the committee of the Senate investigating campaign contributions. The letters were produced by C. C. Tegethoff secretary for many years to Mr. Harriman. Mr. Tegethoff appeared the second witness of the day.

He followed Cornelius N. Bliss, son of late Republican National Treasurer, who showed letters from his father, one of which told that the Republicans had in 1892 to 1904 received $10,138,000 to run presidential campaigns, and that Roosevelt in 1904 got $2,958,000.

Mr. Tegethoff, when called to the stand, held a lap full of papers and correspondence. They were copies, and Senator Clapp asked for originals. He read several.

The first was a receipt from Treasurer James T. Harriman, dated Nov. 2, 1904, for $50,000.

That was Mr. Harriman's contribution to the 1904 campaign, said Tegethoff.

The next was a letter dated Nov. 12, 1904, from Roosevelt to Harriman. "My dear Mr. Harriman," it read, "I do not have received anything that would have given me any more pleasure than your letter. By the way, is there any chance of your being here soon? I would like to have you to dinner."

(Signed) "THEODORE ROOSEVELT."
"NO HURRY AS TO FINANCIAL SITUATION."
Another from Roosevelt to Harriman, dated Oct. 2, 1904, read:

"Will you be in Washington this fall? I so, I would like to have you dine or lunch with me, as there are several things I would like to go over with you."

BOSTON, Sept. 30.—Violence marked the beginning of the twenty-four hour strike demonstration which the Industrial Workers of the World called in four Massachusetts manufacturing cities to-day as a protest against the imprisonment of two of their leaders. Demonstrations ranging from parades to serious riots occurred in Lawrence, Lynn, Haverhill and Quincy, where it is estimated that 15,000 workers were out.

The most serious disturbances occurred at Lawrence this forenoon, where pickets and police clashed hand to hand. Nearly a score of persons were hurt in that city and a dozen arrests were made. Revolvers and knives, sledges hammers, iron bolts and other weapons in the hands of strikers and strike sympathizers were seized by police.

The outbreak coincided with the opening in Salem today of the trial of Joseph J. Eitor and Arturo Giovannitti, two of the leaders of the Industrial Workers, and of Joseph Caruso, a mill operative, in connection with the killing of Anna Lopizzo during one of the riots in last winter's big textile strike in Lawrence. The cotton, woolen, shoe and granite industries chiefly were affected to-day.

Next to Lawrence, the largest number of workers were out in Quincy, where 2,500 granite workers struck. Strikers marched through the quarry district called to the workmen to come out. At two of the sheds the police were dragged out forcibly.

Five hundred strikers marched through the shoe manufacturing district of Lynn, trying, generally with small success, to get the operatives to leave their benches. The police arrested one man waving black and red flags in the crowd. A demonstration occurred in Haverhill. About two hundred and fifty shoe operatives struck there.

LAWRENCE, Mass., Sept. 30.—Rioting marked the beginning of the twenty-four hour general strike of the Industrial Workers of the World as a protest against the imprisonment of Joseph J. Eitor and Arturo Giovannitti, two of the leaders of the organization whose trial on a charge of murder began at Salem to-day. Fifteen persons were injured and a dozen arrests were made.

EVEN MR. LEMON CAN BE A HERO IN OLD VENICE

Strains of "My Old Kentucky Home," chimed by five Kentucky belles and one Kentucky baritone, were wafted from the deck as the President Lincoln sailed into the harbor to-day, and any one with half an ear could have noticed that two of the voices—one soprano and one baritone—were singularly vibrant.

DIX OUT OF THE RACE; MURPHY KEEPS SILENT AS TO FINAL CHOICE

(Special Correspondent of The Evening World.)

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 30.—With the candidacy of Gov. John A. Dix for the re-nomination in a state of complete collapse and beyond resuscitation, the rush of other candidates for the favor of Charles F. Murphy is like a rush of farmhands to supper. But thus far Mr. Murphy has not committed himself to anybody but John A. Dix, and the likelihood that he will openly favor another candidate is extremely remote.

The active candidacies of Attorney-General Carmody and State Engineer John A. Benschel have been blighted by an early frost. This blight grows from the self evident proposition that the convention would not turn down the Governor and then proceed to kick his pallid face by nominating for his position one of the minor members of his administration.

Various up-state combinations are being formed for advancing the names of Martin H. Glynn of Albany, James S. Havens of Rochester and Thomas B. Lockwood of Buffalo. It is not considered likely that Charles F. Murphy will stand for an up-State candidate. He let the up-State people unload John A. Dix on him two years ago.

Justice Dowling. It was put forward by persons close to Senator O'Gorman. However, the name of Mr. Redfield has been put to the powers that be—namely Charles F. Murphy.

Coming right down to cases, as the Bowery delegates say, it is an anti-Dix convention, and the proposition that Charles F. Murphy will risk his leadership of Tammany Hall, to say nothing of his State leadership, by sticking up a lost cause is not entertained by the men who have been loyal to him in his cumulative accession of political power.

ATTITUDE OF WILSON FUL OF DOWLING

The only candidate spoken of from the city who appears to enjoy Tammany favor is Justice Dowling. But, as has been pointed out, Justice Dowling has been put forth as the Wilson-O'Gorman candidate. For Murphy to accept him would not accord with ideas of the practical politicians who are here looking over the situation. State Excise Commissioner Farley, who is close to Murphy, gave out a statement to-day protesting against any interference of Gov. Wilson in New York State affairs.

DIX SAYS LETTERS FROM GOV. WILSON ARE FAVORABLE

ALBANY, Sept. 30.—Gov. Dix to-day issued a statement in reply to the statement of Gov. Wilson of New Jersey, issued last night, in which the Presidential candidate called upon the delegates to the State Democratic Convention at Syracuse to choose as candidate for Governor "a man who is not a member of the kind to be his own master." Gov. Dix's statement follows:

"I agree with Gov. Wilson that it is seldom organizations that are at fault; it is those who attempt to dictate their actions. For aggressiveness and pro-gressiveness in administration during the past two years no State in the Union has a record equal to that of the State of New York."
