

Campaign Sidelights

HERBERT's response to a letter sent out by the Republican National Committee asking the support of the men and their employees, it's the first chance one ardent supporter of the C. O. P. has had to set down up to the throne after working in the vineyard for a quarter of a century and being deluged by that Prosperity which the Good Old Promise has been passing down. The letter is from a Rhode Islander and addressed to Chairman Wilson. It has been pigeonholed under the cover of "What's the Tea?" Here is the gem:

"I have taken the liberty of writing to me I take the liberty of writing to you. I have lived in this town thirty-one years. I have voted the Republican ticket twenty-four years and am still a Republican. What have I had in return for my devotion to my party? NOTHING! If I wanted or asked for a thing, I could not get it. I was put off with an excuse. Mr. So-and-so must have it or he will vote against us. If I could see a Government situation there was some one for that—some one whose name was NO GOOD!"

"I tried for rural mail carrier some years ago, and when the route was established I was presented with a map of another route that no one has yet covered. Last spring I wrote to my Congressman and asked him if I could have some of the seeds they give away for nothing to citizens of the United States. He wrote back and said they were just out of seeds. And still it was only a matter of time before I was again a Republican, but while I have lived here all my life my folks were originally from Missouri."

SOME day when it doesn't rain they're going to take all the workers at the Democratic headquarters up on the roof of the Fifth Avenue Building and take their pictures. The suggestion comes from Gov. Wilson, but the Governor hasn't seen all the people working at headquarters.

HERE'S a story from North Carolina. A letter from the contributor to the fund for the national headquarters yesterday from John Beatty of Fumbos. One dollar of the five, the writer said, was from Robert W. Pennell, not yet nine years old. Little Robbie picked cotton for a week and earned $5. When he heard of the contribution he immediately gave up the dollar, keeping five cents for himself. Mr. Beatty wrote that it did him good to get such a contribution because it came from the heart.

JADAM BEDE and his running and speaking mate, Maynard Harlan, who followed Col. Roosevelt through the West in the capacity of truth teller, led today on an automobile tour through New Jersey. They are scheduled for Trenton this afternoon. The two George Washingtons will skurry through New Jersey for the next three days, and wind up Saturday night at the Academy of Music in Philadelphia. They will take in Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Ohio. Mr. Beatty said this morning they had been telling the truth about Roosevelt so long that they were now going to tell the truth about Taft. If there is one thing Mr. Beatty loves best in the world it is a good joke.

THIS Jack Moore is going after the farmers in the State. A corps of speakers is going out in the countryside in automobiles. Those are every State in the Union. "See America first" was evidently engrained in J. Adam's itinerary. One day he called on President Taft at the White House, taking the whole Beatty family with him. They kept on coming through the door of the President's private office and Mr. Taft arose, exclaiming "What's this?" "Oh, that!" responded Adam. "That's my string of beads."

DARKENS the Hair, Stops Dandruff, Falling Hair and Itching Scalp.

"Pull out one gray hair and a dozen will take its place. It is an old saying which is, to a great extent, true. If no steps are taken to stop the cause. When gray hairs appear it is a sign that Nature needs assistance. It is Nature's call for help. Gray hair, dull, lifeless hair, or hair that is falling out, is not necessarily a sign of advancing age, but there are thousands of elderly people with perfect heads of hair without a single streak of gray.

When gray hairs come, or when the hair seems to be lifeless or dead, some good, reliable hair-restoring treatment should be resorted to at once. Special-the kind of machine the farmers are used to and they will listen with respectful attention to a speaker in one of them. In advance of the automobiles heralds on motorcycles will spread the good news of their coming. And watch the farmer drop the plough and give the hired man the afternoon off. The speaking is going to be brought right to him, or gosh! and the farmer can't get away from it. No farm in Wisconsin will be overlooked.

MR. STAMMOND used to be a boy himself and lived in a little town just like Robbie Pennell. He wanted a bicycle and saved up $3 towards its purchase. Then a good woman named Mattie Phillips, who was taking subscriptions for a new building for the Y. M. C. A. in Chicago, came along. She said the building was going to be of brick and that every boy giving 10 cents would have a brick named after him. Little Jack Hammond's eyes were out and counted up how many bricks $3 would buy. He ran all the way home and broke up his savings bank and carried the roll to Mattie Phillips.

Jack grew up into a big boy and moved into Chicago, where he became a newspaper man. His first visit was to the Y. M. C. A. building, where he looked in vain for the bricks with his name on them. There should have been 600 bricks, but he was either short-sighted or else they had all been put into the foundation.

Every payday Jack went down to the Y. M. C. A. and whispered glad tidings to the memory of Mattie Phillips. It got to be a regular weekly stunt and the boys from the paper looked forward to it. Jack's ambition was to get one of the bricks and throw it through a window. Every payday there grew a new speech. Never did Jack repeat himself and never did he deviate from the original subject. That was three years ago, and Jack hasn't taken a definite stance. Many a dime since has been given to the Y. M. C. A. and he has looked to wear the name of Mattie Phillips.

"BY BILL" EDWARDS the Grand Marshal of the Democratic parade on Nov. 1, has wired for Gov. Marshall to be among those present. Gov. Wilson and Congressman Sulzer are going to review the procession and they want the whole Gov. Gov. Gov. Grand Marshall Bill thinks the other Marshall will share the honor with him.

ACKETT CARHART & CO. FIRM GOES INTO RECEIVER'S HANDS

Even at Regular Prices These Clothes Are Rare Opportunities
On account of the recent receivership they are selling to-day at about One-Half Their Actual Worth

Just suppose you were looking for the most in clothes that New York had to offer.

Suppose you demanded just as much as the man who goes to the highest priced custom tailor.

Let's even suppose that price is no object—that you want the kind of clothes that the best dressed men in New York wear to-day.

You couldn't be better suited anywhere than right here at this creditors' settlement sale.

The clothes here embody the finest fabrics and the most skilled tailoring that money can command.

Originally, all were intended to sell at the full price—and at the full price to represent the finest kind of value.

At the sale price—which is based on the settlement with creditors—your average saving on whatever you select will be

50c on the Dollar

And here's an exceptional special offer. It grew out of the fact that the $13.50 and $17.00 Suits were about exhausted on Saturday. To renew them it was necessary to draw on the higher-priced stocks. So that
