

COURT THREATENS TO FINE FIGHTERS IN ADRIANCE SUIT

Attorney for James P. Berney, Who Sues Millionaire, Appears With Discolored Eye.

When trial of the suit brought by James P. Berney against Benjamin Adriance, a millionaire Brooklyn manufacturer, for $50,000 for the alleged alienation of the affections of the present Mrs. Adriance was resumed today in the Supreme Court Justice Blanchard warned the lawyers and litigants that a repetition of the disgraceful scene of last night, when an assault was made on Berney's lawyer, C. R. Bradbury, would be met with summary punishment.

Mr. Bradbury appeared with a discolored eye, the result of a punch, which he said he had received during a scuffle with Berney's son, James T., who has taken sides with his mother in the present suit. The lawyer swore that Adriance had uttered an oath when court adjourned last night and had told him that he (Adriance) "would get him yet." He stated that the ill feeling which had broken out into violence began last Sunday.

Adriance told the court that lawyer Bradbury had glared at him and called him a "dub".

The testimony was taken after the jury had been excused, and the varied stories of the lawyers and clients were told with the court-room again jammed by the friends of the two families.

SON DEAD, AGED MAN STABS WIFE AND HIMSELF.

Dependent because of the death of his only son, Alphonso Gerolamo, sixty-eight years old, stabbed first his wife and then himself early today in their home, No. 22 West Twenty-sixth street. The old man is dying and his wife is in a serious condition. Both are in New York Hospital.

The other tenants in the house were awakened by a woman's screams coming from the Gerolamo rooms. Policemen Elman and Callahan forced their way through a crowd of hysterical women who were praying in front of the flat from which the shrieks came. The policemen broke into the flat and found Gerolamo stretched on the floor, a gaping wound in his throat. Bending over him and bleeding from wounds on his face and neck was his aged wife. She was praying and sobbing. Near them lay a carving knife, its blade bent almost double.

According to the neighbors, Gerolamo tried to kill himself two years ago by cutting his throat. When his wife, who was married, died several months ago, the old man, according to a neighbor, threatened to kill himself and his wife.

ROBBERS HOLD OFF CROWD AT BANK AS SAFE IS SMASHED

Explode Nitro-Glycerine in Full View of People on Street and Carry Off $4,000.

BOWLING GREEN, O., Nov. 19.—Robbers who used nitro-glycerine to blow the safe in the Munn Brothers bank at Portage, early to-day escaped with $4,000 in cash. The safe was in plain sight of the street.

Four charges were used and when citizens were attracted to the scene, they were warned away by armed lookouts.

STAYS CUMMINS' SENTENCE.

A certificate of reasonable doubt was granted to William J. Cummins, the Tennessee promoter, who got control of the Carnegie Trust Company and steered it to its wreck, by Justice Miller in the Appellate Division to-day.

This acted as a stay of sentence of Cummins, recently reaffirmed by the Appellate Division, to a term in Sing Sing prison, until the Court of Appeals has acted on his final struggle to remain out of jail. He was fined at $5,000, and was furnished by a surety company.

BREAKS A COLD IN A FEW HOURS.

First dose of Pape's Cold Compound relieves all Grippe misery—Contains no Quinine.

After the very first dose of "Pape's Cold Compound," you distinctly feel the cold breaking and all the disagreeable grippe symptoms leaving.

It is a positive fact that a dose of Pape's Cold Compound taken every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken will cure Grippe or break up the most severe cold, either in the head, chest, back, stomach or limbs.

It promptly ends the most miserable headache, dullness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, sore throat, running of the nose, mucous catarrhal discharges, soreness, stiffness and rheumatic twinges.

Take this wonderful Compound with the knowledge that there is nothing else in the world which will cure your cold or end Grippe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects as a 25-cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist can supply—contains no quinine—be sure you get what you ask for—accept no substitute—belong in every home. Tastes nice—acts gently.

TUMBLED INTO CREEK. DRAGGED RESCUER AFTER.

Then Captain and Others Saved Thompson and Adams With Boat-hooks.

Thomas Thompson, twenty-eight, a deckhand on Barge No. 2 of the Rockland and Rockport Lime Company, fell into Newtown Creek while crossing a stringpiece from the dock to the barge, at the foot of Kingsland avenue, Greenpoint, a 2 o'clock this morning.

John Adams of No. 81 India street, dock watchman, heard the splash and held out a broom to Thompson, who clung to it and was lifted almost up to the floor when his strength gave way and he fell back. Adams then tried a stout pole, and this time had Thompson almost landed when both tumbled into the water.

Capt. Murray, of the barge, and Joe and William Parkers, brothers employed on a lighter nearby, heard their cries and went to the rescue with boat-hooks. Adams had piloted Thompson to a projection on the dock and told him to hold on, but Thompson couldn't, and when the rescuers came he was again bobbing about in the water. He had been in about twenty minutes when he and Adams finally were hauled out with the hooks. Thompson was taken to St. Catharine's Hospital.
