

ASKS $1,000 A WEEK ALIMONY TO PUNISH WEALTHY HUSBAND

Wife of Alpin W. Cameron, Son of Multi-Millionaire, Begins Separation Suit.

HE LIKES BROADWAY.

Couldn't Reach Jersey Home Nights and Did Not Return in Town, She Declares.

Broadway's night firmament with its twinkling stars and rare auroras and the fact that a careful suburban service neglected to install through trains from the Big Lane's leading lobster palaces direct to Ridgewood, N. J., at all hours of the night were given as causes to-day of Mrs. Margaret Stone Cameron's suit for separation from her husband, Alpin W. Cameron, some of the multi-millionaire head of A. L. Cameron & Co. of Philadelphia.

Although Mrs. Cameron, who is the daughter of Frank W. Stone of Cleveland, O., director and official in many railroads, does not need maintenance, her action, begun before Justice Page in the Supreme Court of New York, involves payment of heavy alimony. Mrs. Cameron is now residing at the Hotel Savoy with her mother, Mrs. P. W. Stone. An award of alimony, if granted, will be of a punitive character, for Mrs. Cameron's father is a millionaire. Until two months ago the Camerons occupied one of the finest homes at Ridgewood, a Jersey settlement of wealthy New Yorkers who seek the quiet of the country. Mrs. Cameron, who is a strikingly beautiful woman, tall and dark-haired, entertained lavishly there. That element of New York society which spent the time between the city and country was frequently represented in the house parties and weekends for which the Camerons were noted.

SOCIETY HADN'T HEARD OF THE PARTING. Society heard no breath of the disagreement of the young couple until to-day, when it was noticed that an action entitled "Cameron vs. Cameron" heads the motion calendar in Justice Page's part of the Supreme Court. Friends of the couple, it was stated, had no idea that a parting had taken place and that Mrs. Cameron was living with her mother.

Mrs. Cameron it was learned, has mentioned to friends that her husband seemed to relish Broadway more than the Fifth Avenue society, and to enjoy himself in the company of friends in cafes and restaurants more than he enjoyed being with his family. The young society woman makes no grave charges. It was stated, that Cameron practically deserted his home. When friction arose two months ago.

And His Stomach Is All Right

Thousands with Poor Teeth Have Good Digestion by Using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets After Meals.

Whether or not we eat too much, is a matter for individual judgment. Benjamin Franklin tried the experiment of living on bread and raisins. But he discovered that the question wasn't what he ate nor the quantity thereof, but one of digestion and assimilation. The normal person eats heartily, and with keen enjoyment. That is because his mind doesn't anticipate stomach trouble. And if he does have an attack of sour stomach or indigestion he knows that the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give quick relief.

A Gentleman of the "Old School" Who Keeps Up with the Times.

Many people have poor teeth, weak gums, sore teeth, and other bothersome troubles that prevent a vigorous mastication of food. And instead of eating soft, mushy food that piles on the appetite, they go in for those savory dishes, the very odor of which starts the saliva, and makes the stomach fairly reel with anticipation.

It may be safely said that it should not be a question of diet or kind of food, or teeth, or anything else, but of the influence in deranging the stomach. It is simply a matter of supplying the stomach and digestive organs with those known assistants such as pepsin and hydrochloric acid, both of which have a direct and powerful action upon the contents of the stomach.

One grain of a single ingredient in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest 2,000 grains of food. This saves your stomach and gives it the rest it needs. All muscles require occasional rest. If they are ever overtaxed, the stomach is no exception to the rule.

Try a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and you will wonder how you ever got along without them. They are sold at 50 cents by all druggists everywhere.
