

FATALLY SHOTS HIS COMPANION; FIGHTS ON A ROOF

Stanley Butcher of Williamsburg Makes Desperate Battle to Escape.

VICTIM WON'T EXPLAIN.

Shooter, Held Without Bail, Refuses to Tell About Trouble.

Henry Kalhaus, a belt maker, living at No. 25 Bush street, Williamsburg, was shot to-day by Stanley Butcher, a clerk, living at No. 28 Kent avenue.

The two men had been seated at a table conversing in low tones and had not attracted particular attention until both arose.

Butcher dropped his revolver, ran out the front door and into Kent avenue. On the opposite side of the street were Detective Kennedy and Patrolman McGraw of the Bedford avenue police station.

FUGITIVE RUNS UP TO THE ROOF.

Butcher redoubled his efforts and led the policeman a chase down Kent avenue to South First street.

For several minutes they looked in vain for him, then caught sight of him behind a chimney, two houses away.

He threw off the hold of the policeman, then brought all the strength of his athletic frame to bear on Kennedy.

McGrane brought his flashlight into play. He beat the offender into submission. Then Butcher was taken back to the hotel, where Kalhaus identified him as his assailant and became unconscious.

The wounded man was removed to the Eastern District Hospital. There seemed little hope for his recovery. Butcher was locked up at the Bedford avenue police station and later held in the Manhattan avenue police court on a charge of felonious assault and carrying a revolver without a permit.

U. S. EMBASSY IN PARIS GETS NOTICE TO MOVE.

Building Occupied for Fifteen Years to Be Turned Into Hotel—Ambassador in a Fix.

PARIS, Feb. 12.—The United States Embassy in France is about to be turned into the street. The landlord of the house in which the Embassy offices are situated on the Avenue Kleber and where they have been located for fifteen years has given notice that the place must be vacated on April 15, as he intends to transform the house into a hotel.

The question of finding a suitable location for the Embassy of the United States has become a serious one, as owing to the overcrowding of Paris it is almost impossible to obtain proper quarters for the purpose.

BLACK HAND THREATENS.

Mr. Verano Contractor Warned of Mysterious Vengeance.

MOUNT VERNON, N. Y., Feb. 12.—Frank Norvone, a wealthy contractor to-day asked the police to look for a Black Hand man who sent him a letter threatening him with vengeance if he did not give up a $18,000 contract.

"Beware! If you don't withdraw the cash contract for New Rochelle something will happen to you, your horses and everything else. So you better keep away from here before it is too late."

Under the letter is a skull and crossbones and a black hand.

ELEPHANT ELLA, CRAZY FROM COLD, GOES ON RAMPAGE

Slips on Ice, Falls, and Then Gives Watertown an Awful Scare.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., Feb. 12.—Cracked by the cold, frightened after slipping upon the ice, Ella, performing elephant of the Robinson-Stollman under circus, ran wild through the streets here late yesterday, smashing into business places, causing two runaways, almost trampling women and children under foot and leaving a trail of wreckage behind her course.

Eventually the huge animal smashed the doors to the State armory, waded through the benches which had been erected for a wrestling match and rammed into a glass partition that separated the guns and accoutrements of Company G.

Two thousand men, led by five employees of the circus armed with spiked poles, followed the animal through the streets. Firemen and policemen joined in the chase, though keeping at a safe distance.

In company with four others the elephant had been led blindfold and hooked to the train for loading. The mercury stood at 15 below here to-day and the animals appeared at ease as they picked their way over the ice.

Just at the car Ella slipped and fell. In a flash the entire herd, trumpeting, dashed in every direction, the onlookers running for their lives.

Ella spotted a brewery, into which she went head first, taking the door with her, and then proceeded to scatter the case goods. The employees and office force ran out and through four foot snowdrifts to safety.

From the brewing company's place the animal tore through the streets, causing two bad runaways, and then almost trampled down Mrs. Peter Freeman and daughter. The women fled from the scene.

WOMEN STRIKE BREAKERS.

Lehigh Valley Employs Them and Provides Armed Guard.

WILKES-BARRE, Feb. 12.—Women have been pressed into service as strike breakers by the Lehigh Valley Railroad to take the place of car cleaners who joined inspectors and repair men in a sympathy strike with the working force at Packerton.

About fifty women have been given employment and were well guarded while on duty by the armed force which the Lehigh Valley has stationed along the main line.

Frederick Broadbent Swears to Regain Four-year-Old Boy.

Frederick G. Broadbent, manager for the Henry J. McCoy Company, contractor, at No. 65 Dry street, located the corridors of the County Court House to-day waiting for Mrs. Mary Fitzgerald, his mother-in-law, to produce his four-year-old son before Justice Hendrick.

Mrs. Broadbent is suing his wife, Mrs. Florence Broadbent, for a divorce, naming Otto Fry, an official of the Depart-

THREATENS TO ARREST MOTHER-IN-LAW UNLESS SHE PRODUCES HIS SON

Frederick Broadbent Swears to Regain Four-year-Old Boy.

Frederick G. Broadbent, manager for the Henry J. McCoy Company, contractor, at No. 65 Dry street, located the corridors of the County Court House to-day waiting for Mrs. Mary Fitzgerald, his mother-in-law, to produce his four-year-old son before Justice Hendrick.

Mrs. Broadbent is suing his wife, Mrs. Florence Broadbent, for a divorce, naming Otto Fry, an official of the Department of Docks and Fisheries, and Frank Schuchter, a Brooklyn contractor, as the men who took his boy's attention. When the boy walked away after leaving his mother in the divorce action upon Mrs. Broadbent and she had failed to interpose an answer, Mr. Broadbent, through his attorney, William D. Boster, of No. 47 Cedar street, swore out a writ of habeas corpus, directing Mrs. Broadbent and her mother, Mrs. Fitzgerald, to bring the boy before Justice Hendrick last Friday, that the court might decide which parent is entitled to have charge of the little fellow.

The writ was served upon Mrs. Fitzgerald at her home, No. 914 Eighth avenue, Brooklyn, but she failed to appear with the child. Instead her attorney, Sidney Fry, of No. 141 Broadway, called on Mr. Boster.

"Mrs. Fitzgerald misunderstood the meaning of the writ," Mr. Fry explained. "If you will not have her arrested I'll guarantee to have the child before Justice Hendrick at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon."

So Mr. Broadbent directed his mother-in-law to be given an opportunity to produce his son of her own free will, reserving the right to arrest her in case she fails to appear in court with little Francis Eldrie Broadbent at the time appointed.

FOR DANDRUFF, FALLING HAIR OR ITCHY SCALP—25 CENT "DANDERINE"

Save your hair! Danderine destroys dandruff and stops falling hair at once—Grows hair, we prove it.

If you care for heavy hair, that grows with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, you must use Danderine, because nothing else accomplishes so much for the hair.

Just one application of Knowlton's Danderine will double the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, don't hesitate, but get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug or store toilet counter, apply a little directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually why not now? A 25 cent bottle will truly amaze you.

It Makes Little Difference What You Need—A World "Want" Will Go Get It

The John Wanamaker Store

Formerly A. T. Stewart & Co. We Have Purchased the Entire Sterling Silverware Collection of a Retiring Jeweler, which will be Added to Our Annual Silverware Sale Tomorrow at 25 to 40 Per Cent. below Current Prices

THIS jeweler whose entire silverware collection we have just purchased has but one location—New York city.

From now on he will dispense with the silverware end of his business, confining his attention solely to gold jewelry and diamonds.

The sterling silver to be closed out was first offered to us, and accepted immediately because of its desirability.

It includes every article necessary to a complete silverware store, and in particular two well-known patterns in knives, forks, spoons and serving pieces:

The "Chantilly" and The "Plymouth" patterns

These popular patterns at 25 per cent. under current rates offer an unexampled opportunity to families already using these designs who wish to replenish or enlarge their collection.

Some of the articles in "Plymouth" and "Chantilly" patterns will be priced as follows:

Table with 4 columns: Item, Were, Now, and Price. Lists items like Tea Spoons, Dessert Spoons, Dinner Forks, etc.

In other designs there are tea sets, coffee services, platters, dishes, candlesticks, all at 25 to 40 per cent. under market rates.

This purchase of silverware, added to the large list already shown in the February Silverware Sale, offers an unparalleled choice of standard sterling silver at unusual reductions.

Quantities are so great that in addition to the main presentations in the Jewelry Store an overflow section will be found on the Subway floor of the New Building.

Main floor, Old Building, and Subway floor, New Building.

LEATHER GOODS

Sample collections of well-known manufacturer, combined with special opportunities from our own stock—make

$3,500 Leather Goods Offering at 10c to $10, usually 20c to $20

These samples of fine leather goods represent the most interesting pieces that come into our receiving rooms.

There is no end to their variety. One exclaims first over a soft leather writing portfolio completely fitted and priced but $2.50—then over a little alarm clock all encased in leather, and but $3.

And the jewel boxes! Delightful ones of pigskin or morocco, lined with velvet or silk moire. Limousine cases, unbelievably compact; motorists' washing outfits with rubber basin, towels, etc., and all the dozen and one little bill folds, sewing outfits, pads, brush cases, etc.

Everything is Half Its Usual Price

because the articles are a little worn and there is, as a rule, but one of each kind. But they are excellent leathers—pretty blue, scarlet, green and purple morocco, pigskin and seal. No space to mention all the articles, but here is any thing you want in the way of leather goods—it is pretty sure to be here.

Other Special Items

Handbags, $3, usually $2.00 to $3.00. Matt seal, pin seal, long, cross and pebble grain Morocco and pigskin. Brown, red, navy and tan with leather and chain handles.

Opera bags, $1, were $2 to $3. Dainty colorings. Tobacco pouches, 75c, usually $1.00 to $2.00. Convenient shapes in seal, suede, pigskin and calfskin. Some with ball marked silver name plates.

Ever-ready dressing bags, $5 to $15, were $10 to $30. Containing from eight to fifteen fittings in Parisian ivory, nickel or ebony.

Fitted dressing cases, $2 to $5, were $3 to $7.50. Fitted with toilet articles for men or women—compact and complete.

Articles 10c to $1 on the Subway floor, Old Building. Articles $1 to $10 on the Main Aisle, Main floor, Old Building.

The Pierce-Rupert Co. 20 West 23d St. Fifth Avenue. OUR ENTIRE STOCK OF FURS MUST BE SOLD. Fur Sets: Black Fox Sets, Natural Raccoon Sets, Belgian Lynx Sets, Skunk Sets, Pointed Fox Sets. Unrestricted Choice: 24 Russian Pony Coats, 71 Fur Coats, 3 Persian Lamb Coats, 2 Hudson Seal Coats, 12 Coats—Various lengths and furs.

Two Good Furs in the Store on the Subway Floor. Not even the lowest-priced furs come into the Wanamaker Store without careful examination by an expert. They are genuine furs—each one ticketed with its real name. You know what you are buying. Just received are two special lots of Wolf Furs and Black Fox. Southern Store-keepers Purchase in this Special Collection Importers of Silks. Uncommonly Pretty Waists—Linen, Lawn, Madras, Voile—All $1. Continuing the Disposal of Brass & Wrought Iron Fire Place Furnishings.

On Friday—the Wanamaker Once-a-Year Offering of Women's Undervest "Seconds". 10,440 undervests with trifling faults—a tiny oil spot or a carefully mended break. Otherwise the vests are perfectly good and will give excellent service. 5,400 Vests at 12 1/2c, Made to Sell at 25c. 5,040 Vests at 18c (3 for 50c), Made to Sell at 35c.

Useful and Dainty Toilet Helps At Little Prices. One of the most comprehensive offerings of toilet goods we have ever made, including as it does, not only dainty creams, soaps and scents, but also manicure articles, brushes, rubber goods, etc. All of excellent quality. Many of the powders, perfumes, etc., are put up in boxes or bottles which we are closing out, and while this makes a difference in price, qualities and quantities are exactly as usual. Brushes, Toile Preparation, Rubber Goods, Soaps, Perfumes.