Blue Ribbon Day To-morrow

34 Years Leaders of Fashion

Simpson Crawford Co.

SIXTH AVE. 19th TO 20th STREET

The Blue Ribbon Sale once more asserts itself as the biggest, best, bona-fide special bargain event now being conducted in Greater New York. Everybody knows the character of these sales—and it seems only necessary, with reference to this particular day, to state that we've simply outdone ourselves in assembling reliable, seasonable merchandise, in copious quantities, to offer at prices that bring you worth-while savings. In fact, the prices quoted are from 35% to 66% below regular in EVERY INSTANCE. So be here early to-morrow—we've going to have a big crowd.

MILLIONAIRES' HELP THREATEN STRIKE ON GREENWICH ESTATES

400 Make Demonstration in War Against Peonage Sys- tem They Say Exists.

Four hundred angry laborers marched through the streets of Greenwich, Conn., today, loudly demanding that all other workers join them in a contemplated strike. Within an hour the strike was not officially on, but very few men were at work, and the prospect was that by night a general walkout would be ordered by the district president of the International Laborers' Union.

A strike will greatly interfere with work on the New Haven Railroad and especially in the road's power house. There will also be embarrassed in the working of their estates a large number of wealthy men who have country places in the vicinity. Among these are Percy Rockefeller, William Rockefeller, W. M. Truesdale and O. B. Carrott.

The demand of the laborers is $2 wage for an eight-hour day. The men do not blame their wealthy employers, whom they say are willing to grant their demands, but they say the money that should be their's goes to labor contractors. The men assert that they have to work for from $1.50 to $2.00 for ten hours a day, while the contractors who hire them receive in some cases more than $2.00 each laborer.

There has been no violence, as most of the men went to Timon's Hall after their marching demonstration to decide what steps shall be taken.

SCAFFOLD FALLS; 4 HURT.

Four men were severely injured this afternoon when a scaffold on which they were working in a new apartment house at Elm street and Myrtle avenue, Glendale, collapsed, throwing them thirty-five feet to the ground. Joseph Butt, aged sixty, of Linden street and Fairview avenue, Queens, had his leg broken. Henry Blais, aged seventeen, of No. 469 Fresh Pond road, had a leg and wrist fractured. Dominic Arini, aged thirty-three, of No. 35 Starr street, Brooklyn, sustained internal injuries. They were taken to the German Hospital. Julius Cnesel, aged thirty-one of No. 245 Linden street, received contusions about the head and body. He went to his home.

An "Eyeglass" nose is no longer a necessity to eyeglass wearers.

You can forget you are wearing glasses if they are equipped with the wonderful

Harris Suction Cup

It holds your glasses comfortably on your nose without pinching or slipping, and assures an optically correct position with maximum comfort and security.

Attached to your glasses in nickel for 35 cents, in gold-filled for 75 cents.
