

BOY OF 14 CAUGHT, CHUM NEAR DEATH, IN FIRST BURGLARY

Lad Confesses Companion Fell From Third Story After Robbing Flat.

A fourteen-year-old boy, frightened and remorseful, confessed to the police of the West Thirty-seventh street station early to-day that it was while committing their first burglary that his chum, Henry Bohlinger, sixteen, of No. 42 West Thirty-eighth street, fell to the rear yard of No. 42 West Thirty-eighth street and was badly hurt last night.

Bohlinger was found unconscious with internal injuries and a compound fracture of the left arm. During a lucid moment, the police say, he admitted that he and Michael Seigler, fourteen, of No. 41 West Thirty-eighth street, were robbing the apartment of Frank Green, on the fifth floor of No. 42, when he fell.

Detective Mahoney was sent to the Seigler home and was admitted by a motherly woman who said, when she heard his story, that there must be some mistake.

TEMPTED BY BOYS' STORIES OF EASY MONEY.

"I am the widow of a lawyer," she said. "My boy Michael is nothing but a schoolboy and is in bed long ago. He goes to school regularly and is a good boy. He has been raised well."

The detective insisted on seeing Michael, and says that when they entered the room the boy ducked under the covers and begged, his mother not to "let them take him away."

As soon as he reached the station, according to the police, he confessed. "I was with Bohlinger," they quote him as saying. "Other boys in the neighborhood seemed to have plenty of money to go to picture shows and Coney Island and I wanted to be like them. Some of them said stealing was easy."

"Henry—that's Bohlinger—said we might try it. I didn't want to, but he said, 'Why, everybody's equal. We have as much right to things as the person who has them. Come on, it'll be all right.'"

"Last night we decided to rob the Green flat, knowing the family had left home. We went up to the third floor, crawled through a toilet window in the hallway and climbed a fire escape to a back window, which was open."

POLICE DIG UP 48 WORTH OF GOODS.

"We took some safety razors and a lot of stuff like that. Henry sent me into a backyard to bury it under some boards. He said he would go back into the flat and arrange things so nobody could tell any one had been in. When I had finished planting the stuff and got back I heard an ambulance get out front, and when I got there saw them putting my partner inside. Then I got scared and ran home."

The police say they found about 48 worth of goods hidden while Seigler was turned over to the Children's Society. Bohlinger is still unconscious in the New York Hospital, but may recover.

He has been unable to tell how he came to fall, but undoubtedly dropped at least three stories. That he was not killed instantly probably was due to a cushion. He evidently struck it in the descent, as it was found broken. The police thought at first it had been used by the thieves in entering the flat, but Seigler denied that they used a rope.

BOMB BURST IN PATERSON, BUT NOBODY IS INJURED.

Silk Mill Owners Fail to Get Strikers to Return and "Talk it Over."

A bomb, or a high explosive in some other form, was exploded in the yard at the rear of the home of Frederick A. Singer, a boss carpenter, of No. 12 May street, Paterson, N. J., last night. It was evidently intended for some of the strike breakers of the silk strikers. The explosion shattered all the windows in Wajstinger's home, but injured no one.

Failure marked the attempt of the silk manufacturers to get the strikers to return to work yesterday under a promise to consider their grievances afterward. Both sides are preparing for a long and bitter struggle.

The strikers reiterated their position with respect to the conditions under which they will return. They are still steadfast in their demands for the eight-hour day, an increase in wages and the abolition of the three and four loom system. The committee defended the outside agitators.

"The strike became a fact," the statement read, "before 5 per cent. of the workers saw or heard Haywood, Miss Flynn or Quinn."

New American Envoy Pleased With Cordial Reception by British Ruler and Queen.

LONDON, May 29.—Walter Hines Page, the newly appointed United States Ambassador to the Court of St. James, was received to-day in audience by King George, to whom he presented his letters of credence. Sir Edward Grey, the British Foreign Secretary, presented the new Ambassador to His Majesty, who in turn introduced him to Queen Mary. The King's reception of Mr. Page was most cordial.

Then the Ambassador went through the formality of presenting to Their Majesties the members of the Embassy staff, most of whom had attended many courts and levees in company with the late Whitelaw Reid.

With the members of his staff Ambassador Page, who, like his secretaries, wore ordinary evening dress, which American diplomats always assume at levees, was driven, together with the naval and military attaches in uniform, from the hotel where the Ambassador is staying for the present to Buckingham Palace in royal carriages with the coachmen and footmen in the scarlet liveries of the British court.

The string of royal carriages passing through Mayfair to Buckingham Palace attracted considerable attention. Sir Arthur H. J. Walsh, the King's master of ceremonies, accompanied the Ambassador from and to his hotel.

Speaking of the audience afterward, Ambassador Page said: "It was one of the most pleasing experiences of my life. His Majesty the King and Her Majesty the Queen spoke frankly, cordially and kindly on a number of subjects. They asked after President Wilson and his family and also after my own family."

King George expressed great pleasure at meeting another American Ambassador.

After the royal audience Ambassador Page called on Paul Cambon, the French Ambassador and Dean of the Diplomatic Corps in Great Britain. Within the next few days he will pay his respects to the other Ambassadors.

MISS ELKINS IN AUTO CRASH.

Senator's Widow and Daughter Escape Injury in Collision.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—As the result of a collision between their automobile and a street car, both Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins, widow of the late Senator from West Virginia, and her daughter, Miss Katherine, are suffering from shock. Neither was seriously hurt, and the car dragged the light motor in which the two women were driving for several yards, but it was not overturned.

DON'T SCOLD AN IRRITABLE CHILD.

If Tongue Is Coated, Stomach Sour, Breath Fervid, Give "Syrup of Figs" to Clean the Bowels.

Your child isn't naturally cross, irritable and peevish. Mother! Examine the tongue; if coated, it means the little one's stomach is disordered, liver inactive and its thirty feet of bowels clogged with foul, decaying waste.

Delicious "Syrup of Figs" that this is the ideal laxative and physic for children. Nothing else regulates the little one's tender stomach, liver and bowels so effectually, besides they dearly love its delightful lip taste.

For constipated bowels, sluggish liver, biliousness, or sour, disordered stomach, feverishness, diarrhoea, sore throat, bad breath, or to break a cold, give one-half to a teaspoonful of "Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile, undigested food and constipated matter will gently move on and out of the system without griping or nausea and you will surely have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not dragging your children. Being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatic matter will gently move on and out of the system without griping or nausea and you will surely have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package.

Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious tasting, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.
