

PHILLIES CRIPPLED BY DOONIN'S INJURY

"Sailor" Smith Expects to Knock Out "Soldier" Rodel in Bout at the Garden To-Night.

Copyright, 1911, by The Press Publishing Co. (The New York World). THROUGH the battle-scarred veterans, Gunboat Smith and George Rodel, meet to-night at Madison Square Garden and if there isn't a two-handed, two-sided, double-barreled bombardment by mortar, sarge gun and pom-pom—why, then all the prophets will be giving alibis in the morning. The rivalry between Gunboat Smith and Rodel is added to by the fact that originally they were identified with two distinctly different brands of warfare. Rodel, at an age when most boys are playing shinny over the vault, was trying to cop British soldiers from certain inaccessible kopjes. During his fighting time he fired a few thousand rounds of ammunition, but although he was silent on that question, no doubt he managed to hit a bulseye once in a while. When the Boer war was over, Rodel, captured with other Boers, picked up the British amusement of fist fighting. Seeing no further chance of pot-shooting Englishmen he went to England and began fighting in the ring. He has a bunch of heavyweights, lost to Bombardeur Wells, and anxious to learn the game where it is played best, came to America. Since then, New York Rodel has shown a really remarkable willingness to fight anybody. He doesn't sidestep or "pick 'em." Other-wise he wouldn't be mingling with Gunboat Smith to-night.

Smith doesn't think much of foot soldiers. He's a marine himself. His father is still in the U. S. Navy, and Gunboat has served out one term of confinement. He didn't get a chance to see gunfighting, like the Boer, but did knock out a number of Doyle's best fighters, and he's a regular New York Rodel. He has shown a really remarkable willingness to fight anybody. He doesn't sidestep or "pick 'em." Other-wise he wouldn't be mingling with Gunboat Smith to-night.

SMITH is favorite to-night. It's impossible to figure a man with his record and his wallop in any other way. He had the best of the former fight with Rodel, although Rodel made a surprisingly good finish. He has clipped a slumber punch over on Bombardeur Wells, Fred McKay, Jim Stewart, Jim Savage and a few others in a couple of rounds or so, and has done it in the most impressive way possible. In fact after seeing one of his K. O. performances it's hard to understand how anyone can stand up to him. He is cool and deliberate until he gets his opening, and then he throws all the bottled-up energy of a month's training into one wallop. He's a regular New York Rodel, he's weathered his attacks, the former two for twenty rounds. This proves that it is possible, although it doesn't look possible. One thing that guaranteed a good contest to-night is that Rodel thinks he can beat Smith and Smith thinks he can beat Rodel. Rodel, a regular New York Rodel, he's weathered his attacks, the former two for twenty rounds. This proves that it is possible, although it doesn't look possible.

BIDDLE AND JOHNSON LOSE TENNIS MATCHES IN ENGLISH TOURNEY

WIMBLEDON, June 27.—The first break in the ranks of the victorious quartet of American players in the English lawn tennis championship tournament occurred this afternoon when the Philadelphia, Craig Biddle, went down before W. Ingram, one of the younger representatives of the British talent. The victory was a surprising one, the score being 6-4, 6-3, 6-3. Ingram was a model of steadiness in placing, while the American's strokes lacked their wonted power. In the next singles match Hope Cries, Captain of the Cambridge University team, beat R. B. Powell, Captain of the Canadian Davis Cup team, by three straight sets, 6-4, 7-5, 6-3. Oscar Kruiser, one of the crack players of the German Davis Cup team, beat A. W. Gore, former English champion, by three sets to one, the score being 2-6, 2-4, 6-2, 6-2. Wallace F. Johnson of Philadelphia quickly followed his compatriot into retirement, being beaten by the English player, H. Watson, by three sets to one, the score being 6-4, 6-3, 6-2, 6-1.

SPECTACULAR RACE IN STEEPLECHASE AT BELMONT TRACK

Leaders, Running Neck and Neck, Fall at the Last Jump.

(Special to The Evening World.) BELMONT PARK TERMINAL, N. Y., June 27.—The crowd was considerably bigger at the Terminal this afternoon than it was for the first day of the United Hunts meet. The grand stand was well filled and nearly all the chairs on the lawn were occupied. Others viewed the races from the infield. FIRST RACE. Green Steeplechase; four-year-olds and upward; about two miles. Ben Cabell, 194 (Corbett), 20 to 1, 2 to 1 and out, first; Native Maid, 157 (Mr. Pars), 20 to 1, 2 to 1 and out, second; Windrow, 154 (Mr. Lewis), even and out, third. Time not taken. Maltbiss fell. The Green Steeplechase, the opening event of the day, was a spectacular race. Windrow and Maltbiss gave like to lead the last circuit of the field, far in advance of the other two starters. They had a nip and tuck battle of it coming to the last jump, when both took it almost simultaneously, only to go down side by side. This let the two long shots up to run one-two. Ben Cabell getting the winner's share of the purse by a half length from Native Maid. Windrow was remounted and got third money. SECOND RACE. Nassau Welter Plate; three-year-olds and upward; about five furlongs.—Deduction, 159 (Mr. Wright), 2 to 1, 2 to 1 and out, first; Plutoerat, 159 (Mr. Stevenson), 20 to 1, 5 to 1 and 2 to 1, second; Elmer, 157 (Mr. E. Tucker), 3 to 1, even and 2 to 5, third. No time taken. Vera Kessler, Travel Light, Forman, Flying Yankee, Doriski, Mollie Gtison also ran. After a twenty-minute delay at the post, during which there were three false breaks, Deduction got away flying with the favorite, Flying Yankee, last in the strung-out field. Deduction never relinquished the lead, and at the end was only galloping. Winner ran prominently from the start, but was beaten out of place money in the final sixteenth by the fast closing Plutoerat. Flying Yankee was running over his field when it was too late. The field was reduced by six scratches, among them August Belmont's Merry Task. THIRD RACE. Sportsmen's Steeplechase Dinner Stakes; four-year-olds and upward; about three miles.—Hook Abbey, 152 (Mr. Wright), 5 to 1, first; O'Bear, 149 (Mr. Alpers), 1 to 2, second. No time taken. Only two starters. The Sportsmen's Steeplechase Dinner Stakes was a joke. In the first place there were only two starters, O'Bear and Hook Abbey, and the O'Bear ran out of the course at the first jump. By the time he was taken back Tommy Wright on Rock Abbey was a quarter of a mile

WISCONSIN SENATE PASSES BILL LEGALIZING BOXING

MADISON, Wis., June 27.—Boxing clubs, operated under State law, are scheduled for Wisconsin. By a vote of 18 to 10 the Heddling bill, legalizing the round bouts in a manner similar to the way they are regulated in New York, was passed by the Senate last night and may come up for concurrence in the House to-day. The only amendment was the insertion of a clause prohibiting the sale of liquor in the building where the bouts are held.

in front. O'Bear never had a chance to catch him. FOURTH RACE. The Montauk Selling Plate; three-year-olds and upward; selling; about one mile.—Footlight, 115 (Wells), 1 to 3 and out, first; Hemppek, 115 (Ford), 1 to 2 and out, second; Matlock, 111 (McFadden), 20 to 1, 4 to 1 and out, third. No time taken. Johnny and New Star also ran. The Montauk Selling Plate was scratched down to five starters, with Hemppek a hot choice and Footlight ridden by Wolfe, an equally hot second choice. Footlights got away winging and was never caught. Hemppek, away badly, soon ran up into second place, but could never get Footlights, who won by five lengths. Captain Matlock beat Johnny for third money. FIFTH RACE. Hempstead Selling Handicap Steeplechase; four-year-olds and upward; about two miles.—El Hart, 142 (Heider), 4 to 1 and out, first; Simon Dale, 140 (Clare), 20 to 5 and out, second; O'Conner, 140 (Mr. Josephthal), 5 to 1 and out, third. No time taken. Only three starters. Three went in the Hempstead Selling Handicap and the favorite, El Hart, won from Simon Dale in the drive on the flat. It was a two-horse race all the way, first one leading and then the other.
