Rich Wine Dealer Must Tell Court Why He Will Not Wring Pets' Necks.

Idore Kopolo's home at No. 321 East One Hundred and Sixty-fifth street, stands back to back with the house of Hugo Strauss, No. 320 Union avenue.

He saw some of these fine feathered fowls at a poultry show and decided to install a small family of them in his large back yard.

Two of the eight were of masculine gender and their lung power was of first grade quality.

More ornate added their parts to the daily hymn. Idore covered his head with the bed clothes, but still he could not drown out the noise of the choristers.
