

TYPHOID EPIDEMIC SPREADING AS TEN MORE CASES APPEAR

Health Commissioner Has Traced Alleged Cause to Dairy in Sherburne.

MONTH'S TOTAL IS 185.

Department Is Keeping Close Watch on Certain Known "Carriers" of Disease.

Ten more cases of typhoid fever were reported to the Health Department today in the infected zone lying east of Third Avenue and extending from Third street to Fortieth. This brings the total of typhoid cases now under the observation of the Health Board since Sept. 1 up to 185. The mortality has not yet been tabulated, as it was said that the death lists reach the maximum in the third week of the disease.

Health Commissioner Lederle said today that he was satisfied that the backbone of the epidemic had been broken, since he had traced the alleged cause of the fever outbreak to a dairy situated at Sherburne, N. Y., and the milk supply from this dairy, he said, had been excluded from the city since Sept. 2 last, two days after the first of the cases in East Twenty-first street was reported to the health officials.

ARE WATCHING "TYPHOID CARRIERS" TO CHECK DISEASE.

The greatest vigilance is being exercised in the typhoid belt, according to the Health Commissioner. The spread of the disease having been traced to the milk, and the supply having been shut off, the real menace now is from "typhoid carriers." This class of germ spreaders is found among the food handlers, and especially in bakeries. All the bakers on the east side are kept under close watch by the inspectors from the Board of Health.

The fact that a number of "Typhoid Marys," innocents of harmful intent, are menacing the health of the residents of the East Side was admitted today at the office of the Board of Health. The original "Typhoid Mary" won a lot of publicity several years ago when she found herself under the eye of the Health officials. She was a cook at Riverside on North River Island, and it was determined that although immune from the disease herself she had the unhappy faculty of communicating the disease to others.

She went to court to fight against the embargo which the health authorities placed on her, and it was only after she had consented to abandon her job as a cook that she was left free to go her way unobserved and unmolested.

Commissioner Lederle said that his work was not done by any means when he eliminated the cause of the outbreak on the east side. He declared this his investigators were up to the task of examining the handlers of foodstuffs. For years he had been educating the public to the dangers of the disease, and it was also a part of his task to educate the persons who are responsible for the appropriations of public funds, so that the needed wherewithal might be forthcoming to offset the menace of the disease.

"I will say that this department is now in better shape than ever in its history to combat with the disease and any epidemics," declared the Commissioner.

According to department statistics, a sudden increase in the number of typhoid fever cases reported from Manhattan and the Bronx toward the end of August, 1909, led to an investigation, and the results showed that a certain milk supply was responsible. Accordingly the suspected supply was excluded from the city. The outbreak of four years ago this month was similar to the epidemic on the east side.

WAS CASE OF "WALKING TYPHOID" SINCE 1863.

Most of the cases four years ago were charged to milk infection. Investigators traced the milk in question to Camden, N. Y. The Health officials say that a former manager

Princess Who Killed Herself For Love Is Mourned by Many

Sophia of Saxe-Weimar, Favorite With Rich and Poor for Her Happy Disposition, Leaves Wide Circle Who Grieve Over Her Tragic Death.

Her Marriage With Baron Hans von Bleichroeder, Rich Banker, Opposed by Father and Relatives, She Gave Way to Despair and Shot Herself.

HEIDELBERG, Sept. 18.—Arrangements were made today for a private funeral for Princess Sophia of Saxe-Weimar, who yesterday shot and killed herself because her marriage to the man she loved was opposed by her father and other relatives. The Princess was popular because of her happy disposition and deep sorrow is felt among all classes over her tragic end.

The engagement of Princess Sophia to Hans von Bleichroeder, eldest son of the senior member of a powerful banking firm of Berlin, was announced some months ago, and immediately denied when the reigning Grand Duke, Prince William Ernest, definitely prohibited the union unless the Princess should renounce all her titles and dignities. Added to the opposition of the Grand Duke was that of her father, Prince William of Saxe-Weimar-Eisenach.

In spite of the opposition of her family the Princess has been seen with von Bleichroeder constantly, and it is understood that the young man started yesterday from Berlin for Heidelberg, where he recently took his doctor's degree.

It is believed that the Princess's father inclined to allow the marriage, but, owing to his dependence upon the reigning Prince, he could not take a definite stand in the matter.

There is reason to believe that Grand Duke William's chief objection to the match was due to the fact that the senior Bleichroeder refused to abandon of the creamery was ill of typhoid fever at the time the inspection was made, but apparently was not the cause of infection but a victim. Inquiry showed that local physicians in Camden, owing to the prevalence of the disease treated it as "Camden fever" and did not believe it was typhoid.

The medical history of the dairymen's family was investigated and it was found that he had been infected with typhoid back in 1883, and in subsequent years his daughter, his son-in-law and several hired men became ill of typhoid fever, one as late as 1909. The authorities say that this dairyman has been a "bacillus carrier" or what the town knows best as "Typhoid Mary" for nearly fifty years. He died in 1911 of "heart disease."

The health officials were quick to shut off the milk supply from this man's dairy, but so many persons had been infected that outbreaks assumed enormous proportions.

This history of the outbreak of four years ago tends to show the peril of the present epidemic because of the undoubted presence of typhoid carriers on the east side.

"The magnitude of the problem which New York faces," said Commissioner Lederle, "may be imagined when it is considered that the city draws its daily milk supply of 2,500,000 quarts from 44,000 farms located in six different States, namely, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Vermont and Massachusetts. Some cream is also received from Ohio and Canada. The 'milk shed' covers an area of 80,000 square miles.

"The milk is produced from approximately 30,000 cows, and shipped from 1,100 creameries over eleven different roads, the shortest haul being fifty miles and the longest 45 miles. When it reaches the city it is received at fifteen different terminals and eventually delivered in 5,500 wagons and dispensed at 14,000 stores. It is estimated that about 127,000 persons are engaged daily in handling the city's milk supply, and on the basis of relative frequency of typhoid bacillus carriers in the population of New York City there may be perhaps a hundred such persons included in this army of milk handlers."

ASKS FOR GRAND JURIES.

Whitman Has 120 Cases Needing Attention.

District Attorney Whitman today requested the Justices of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court to order the empanelment of a Grand Jury for the Criminal Branch of the Supreme Court for the October term. Two Grand Juries for the General Session Court will also be empanelled.

Justice Gagegan is scheduled to preside at the October term of the Criminal Branch of the Supreme Court and it is expected he will charge the Grand Juries for that court. Most of the cases to be considered by the Supreme Court Grand Jury, it is stated, will be of a routine nature, cases in which the defendants are now at liberty under bail.

According to the figures posted in the District Attorney's office, there are one hundred and fifty-nine complaints awaiting the action of the Grand Jury, as against one hundred and twenty-three last year.

LITTLEFIELD ADMITS ACCEPTING N. A. M. AID WHILE IN CONGRESS

Former Representative Says His Labor Views Agreed With Those of Organization.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—The House Lobby Committee abandoned work on its report today long enough to hear ex-Congressman Charles E. Littlefield of Maine, who Martin Mulhall, former lobbyist for the National Association of Manufacturers, testified was one of the chief allies of that organization in the House.

Mr. Littlefield testified today that beginning with his entrance to Congress in 1899 until he resigned in 1908, he found "an active, energetic and powerful labor lobby, headed by Samuel Gompers." When Gompers opposed legislation, Mr. Littlefield said, many members of the House found it convenient to side with labor. Mr. Littlefield said he did not intend to criticize members of the House for their position on labor bills.

"But," he explained, "when Gompers and the labor people became active the ball timber was thickly populated and there was plenty of space in the open." Littlefield frankly told the committee that his views on labor legislation coincided with those of the manufacturers and that early in his Congressional career he gladly accepted the aid of the National Association of Manufacturers through Marshall Cushing, then its Washington representative.

"Cushing was doing what he could to counteract the influence of Gompers and the Federation of Labor," said Mr. Littlefield.

"The more I saw of Mulhall," said Littlefield, "the less I liked him. I told the National Association of Manufacturers not to send him to my district again."

Littlefield added that in that campaign he faced the opposition of Samuel Gompers and the American Federation of Labor.

TO DEPORT SICK CONVICT.

Wilson Commutes Sentence on Condition Man Leaves Country.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—On condition that Milos Mandlich, a Hungarian convicted of counterfeiting, leave the United States and never return, President Wilson has commuted the man's twelve-year prison sentence to expire at once. The prisoner pleaded guilty at Cleveland June 20, 1911, to raising $10 notes to $100.

Since his incarceration he has been continuously confined to a prison hospital, and the Government physicians report that he will be a permanent invalid. A warrant for his deportation is said to be ready for service immediately upon his release.

WINDSOR CLUB GAMBLERS GET JAIL SENTENCES

"Manny" Cohen Proprietor to Serve Four Months—Five Others Get Thirty Days.

"Manny" Cohen, proprietor of the famous Windsor Club, at Fulton street and Bedford avenue, Brooklyn, was sentenced to serve four months in the penitentiary today by Supreme Court Justice Jaycox, in Brooklyn. His brother, Abraham, William Ecele, Ellis Marshall, John Reagan and James Brooks, who were arrested with him when "Honest Dan" Costigan and his squad raided the place last May 23, were sentenced to serve thirty days each in the same prison.

"I am sorry," said Justice Jaycox, "that the Legislature has left no discretion to the Judges in cases of this kind. The law compels me to send you to jail, though I think a fine would be sufficient."

Cohen and the others were convicted early this week after four of one hundred men who were found in the place at the raid had testified. Justice Jaycox, after pronouncing sentence, granted a stay until Monday to give counsel for the men opportunity to file an appeal and they were remanded to the Raymond Street Jail.

Offered Bribes Fined $250. Alexander Hoff, of No. 48 Flushing avenue, Jamaica, pleaded guilty today in Special Sessions to attempting to bribe employees of George Borgfeldt & Co., importer of notions, at Sixteenth street and Irving place, to reveal trade secrets. Hoff was fined $250.

Officials of Borgfeldt & Co. alleged that Hoff, who was in the employ of foreign competition, approached several of their employees on July 14 last and tried to induce them by promises of money to steal a list of the firm's customers.

SIXTY EMPLOYERS GRANT DEMANDS OF LADIES' TAILORS

Majority of Shops Said to Concede Justice of Strikers' Grievances.

An early and satisfactory settlement of the ladies' tailors and dressmakers' strike was the forecast today when, at 10 o'clock, it was announced at the settlement headquarters in the Union Square Hotel that already more than sixty manufacturers have signed agreements with the union granting the demands of the workers. This means that before tonight, if the present rate of applications for settlement is maintained, 1,500 of the 4,000 workers who obeyed the order to quit will be receiving working cards permitting them to return to their tasks.

The officials of the Ladies' Tailors and Dressmakers' Union, Local No. 38, which is conducting the strike, are elated over the success of the demonstration so far and predict a complete victory for the workers all over the city. Apparently the majority of employers concede the justice of the demands made by their employees and are losing no time in making peace with the workers. Another consideration, however, may be the fact that this is the height of the very busiest season in the trade and delay in settling would be fatal to most of the employers.

EMPLOYERS GIVE BOND TO STICK TO CONTRACT.

Whatever prompts the employers, the fact remains that the workers return to their benches to receive in every class of work a wage increase of from 4 to 10 per cent, a forty-eight-hour week instead of fifty hours, and control of sanitary and safety conditions under strict supervision of the union. They are also granted concessions in regard to holidays and overtime. All of these stipulations are bound by substantial promissory notes, subject to forfeiture in any action of the agreement is violated.

The strike has been one of the most orderly, considering the number of workers that walked out, held in New York in recent years. Since the order to quit went forth two days ago there has not been one arrest, although pickets are on duty at all of the affected shops. One or two slight clashes have occurred between pickets and the bosses, but nothing serious came of them.

The day will close with admission in free. No cards required.

BLOWS UP HIS HOME WITH DYNAMITE; TWO DEAD, 2 DYING

Insane Mason Wakes Family at 2 A. M. "to Die Together," He Says.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Sept. 18.—In a fit of insanity Mack Hurst, fifty years old, a stone mason, blew up his home with dynamite about 3 o'clock this morning, killing himself and one daughter, fatally wounding two other daughters and demolishing the house. Mrs. Hurst, who escaped injury, how she says, she doesn't know, says her husband awoke the family at 2 o'clock and told them to gather in his bedroom. After they had all entered he closed and locked the door and said: "We will all die together."

Then he picked up a stick of dynamite, which was lying on the floor near him, and threw it under the bed. There was a deafening roar and Mrs. Hurst remembered nothing more until she came to consciousness at the home of a neighbor an hour later. The noise of the explosion awoke the whole city. Police and firemen hastened to the scene and at once began a search of the ruins. The bodies of Hurst and his dead daughter were found in a mass of debris at the rear. The other two daughters were in another part of the ruins. Both were unconscious and it was some time before they were revived. Neither was able to tell anything of the occurrence. The explosion wrecked the house and every pane of glass for a block around was broken and other minor damage done to houses in the vicinity. Hurst had not been working for some time, had been acting strangely of late, and an insular body had declared him insane. It was not thought, however, that his act under was a violent kind and no preparations for his custody had been made.

PRETTY BROOKLYN GIRL TAKES POISON TABLET

Attempted Suicide, Police Say—Mother Thinks Daughter Swallowed Bichloride by Mistake.

Mary Gaffney, sixteen years old, of No. 2 Willow street, Brooklyn, was taken to the Brooklyn Hospital early today suffering from bichloride of mercury poisoning. The police say the girl took the tablets with suicidal intent. The girl, a pretty brunette, lives with her mother, who is janitress of the big fat-shed at that address. She was unconscious when an ambulance was called, and no statement could be obtained from her. Her mother declares the girl appeared to be happy, and that she knows of no reason she should have tried to kill herself. She says the girl must have taken the poison through mistake.

KILLING OF MADERO NOT 'PUNISHABLE CRIME'

Military Court at Mexico City Announces Decision on Deaths of Late President and Son.

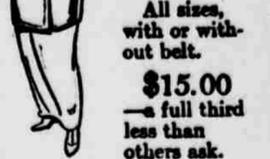

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 18.—The deaths of the late President Francisco I. Madero and Vice-President Jose Maria Pino Suarez, were not brought about by a punishable crime, according to a decision pronounced by the Military Court here today.

The investigation lasted six months. It was started by the military commandant of the Federal district immediately after the conclusion of the ten days' battle in the streets of Mexico City last February which resulted in Provisional President Huerta coming into power.

The result of the commander's inquiry was forwarded to the permanent military tribunal, which continued the examination of witnesses. Among those called to give evidence by the court was Major Francisco Cardenas, who commanded the escort which conveyed President Madero and Vice-President Pino Suarez from the National Palace to the penitentiary. Two subordinate officers of rural guards and a number of residents in the vicinity of the jail also were examined.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and lustrant, re-move every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at all drug stores, known as "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of mugg. While wispy, gray, faded hair is not singular, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Weyth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and lustrant.
