

BRADY ESTATE PAYS
$1,050,000 TO BRITISH
IN DEATH DUTIES

Property Held Abroad by Financier Valued for Probate
at $6,577,640.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—The British Treasury to-day received an unexpected windfall from the estate of the late Anthony Nicholas Brady of Albany, N. Y., who died in London in July and whose property in the United Kingdom has been valued for probate at $6,577,640. Death duties amounting to $1,050,000 will be paid over to David Lloyd George, Chancellor of the Exchequer. The death duties on property in the British Isles, whether belonging to natives or foreigners, are progressive, ranging upward from 1 per cent. on estates of the value of between $500 and $1,000; 2 per cent. between $1,000 and $5,000; 3 per cent. between $5,000 and $10,000; up to 15 per cent. on estates of $10,000, 000 and over. There are also legacy and succession duties, varying in percentage.

Disease Cure of Drunkenness.
MILAN, Italy, Sept. 25.—A discussion on the various methods of curing habitual drunkards occupied the entire morning session of the International Congress on Alcoholism to-day, the delegates endeavoring to discover the best scientific and practical remedy.

SAVE YOUR HAIR! IF FALLING OUT OR DANDRUFF—25 CENT DANDERINE

Ladies! Men! Here's the quickest, surest dandruff cure known.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrivel, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—anytime—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

It Makes Little Difference What You Need—A World "Want" Will Go and Get It.

Saks Suits at $15 for Young Men & Youths

The best—we repeat, the best!
any way you care to figure!

A little sweeping? Well, may be, but excusable in view of the fact that it's so. Never mind what you usually pay, nor what you want to pay, see a Saks suit at $15 and figure it out for yourself. At this price we will show you the cleverest models ever tailored, in chevots, pencil stripes, and blue serges. The coats cut on close-fitting lines, with high cut vests, and lean tapering trousers. Ages 14 to 20. Sizes 30 to 36.

Tomorrow, Saturday, we have arranged for the simultaneous offering of

Women's Suits, Coats and Dresses all at the popular price of $29.50

Embracing the newest fabrics and colorings, and models of such a distinctive and exclusive character as on the face of them would cost you from $40 to $50 in the generality of good shops.

Tailored Suits
$29.50

A number of very new models, made in such wanted cloths as broadcloth, poplin, chevot, whipcord, Bedford stripes and matelasse. Loose wrap-like jackets and demi-tailored coats, some elaborately trimmed with plush and fancy embroidery, and others with collar and cuffs of fur. New skirts which drape either to the front or to the side. A very representative selection of the season's best suit modes.

Coats & Wraps
$29.50

In this collection there are wool velour coats and plush coats, either plain or fur-trimmed; coats of velour de laine, Duveltyne, Bedford cord, rough chevot, Ural cloth and sponge. A number of the newest models, but practically all of them with big, loose kimono sleeves, and buttoning in the vicinity of the heart. Some of these coats are most effectively trimmed. In a liberal range of the new Fall colors, and black.

Street Frocks
$29.50

Dresses for street and afternoon wear. The materials embrace crepe de chine, crepe meteor and charmeuse. The models have the freedom and unrestraint of the new coat styles, the kimono sleeves in particular. Designed on easy, soft-hanging lines, the yokes quite low and trimmed with laces, nets and frills; the skirts draped. Black, navy, Copenhagen, taupe, pruned brown and green.

All Black Silk
Velvet Hats
at $10

For Saturday especially

A number of the more exclusive of new shapes, all black, surmounted with the new cockade, Hussar style, the high peacock feather or an ostrich plume, in the modish colors. Third Floor.

Made of high grade worsted, with shawl collar. Assorted in cardinal, navy blue, golden brown and Oxford. Ages 8 to 16 years. Extraordinarily good values.

$10 Ostrich Trimmed
Hats at $6.95

Were so popular last Saturday that we have duplicated the offering for tomorrow!

However, we have improved the variety by the inclusion of many newer shapes, so that in this respect tomorrow's offering will be better than its predecessor.

These hats are made of fine quality plush in black and the more desirable Fall colorings. And they are trimmed with shaded ostrich fancies or soft plumes, with a raciness and verve in the manner of their trimming which has all the charm and savoir faire of Paris handiwork.

The name of Saks on these
Men's Suits and Fall
Overcoats at $25
is the most significant thing in connection with this announcement!

Personally, we do not quote this figure of $25 as a discovery in price, but there is something akin to discovery for you in the purchasing power of that price at Saks'.

It affords you a perfectly spectacular range of fabrics and colorings and models, such a range, in fact, as probably no other specialty clothing shop ever attempted to assemble.

And it assures you an excellence of tailoring and of style, which for forty years has survived the cataclysmic clamor of competition, with the complacency of a cork afloat!

The fact is, we can give you a suit or a Fall overcoat for $25, which it is not in the cards to duplicate at this price or improve upon at a higher one.

SUITS AT $25
Rough chevots, cassimeres and worsteds, in a great variety of colorings, with emphasis on browns. The new close-fitting English models that lean on a close-fitting reputation.

OVERCOATS AT $25
Knitted coats, silk lined coats, black and Oxford coats, fancy coats and cravenetted coats, in a host of models from the conservative to the radical, tailored in customary Saks style.
