

that something definite in the way of evidence may be produced to back up Hennessy's charges, if he has such evidence.

Mr. Hennessy went into consultation with Assistant District-Attorney John Kirkland Clark, who is in charge of the investigation brought about by the accusations made by William Sulzer's former right hand man.

A new charge made by Hennessy is that ever since Charles F. Murphy has been leader of Tammany Hall he has been assessing candidates for the Supreme Court bench.

One of the passages he read to the biggest Fusion audience of the campaign was this credited to Stilwell: "I will give you an affidavit. I will go the limit. I will prevent them (the Senators) from voting against the Governor. And I will send Murphy to jail."

In effect the excerpts read by Mr. Hennessy were that Stilwell would be in a position to intimidate six or seven Senators and prevent their voting against Sulzer in the Court of Impeachment.

Stilwell is quoted as having declared he would rather stay in prison for twenty-five years than go back there for a day after telling all he knew.

Stilwell is quoted as having declared he would rather stay in prison for twenty-five years than go back there for a day after telling all he knew.

Stilwell is quoted as having declared he would rather stay in prison for twenty-five years than go back there for a day after telling all he knew.

Stilwell is quoted as having declared he would rather stay in prison for twenty-five years than go back there for a day after telling all he knew.

Stilwell is quoted as having declared he would rather stay in prison for twenty-five years than go back there for a day after telling all he knew.

Stilwell is quoted as having declared he would rather stay in prison for twenty-five years than go back there for a day after telling all he knew.

Stilwell is quoted as having declared he would rather stay in prison for twenty-five years than go back there for a day after telling all he knew.

Stilwell is quoted as having declared he would rather stay in prison for twenty-five years than go back there for a day after telling all he knew.

Stilwell is quoted as having declared he would rather stay in prison for twenty-five years than go back there for a day after telling all he knew.

Stilwell is quoted as having declared he would rather stay in prison for twenty-five years than go back there for a day after telling all he knew.

Stilwell is quoted as having declared he would rather stay in prison for twenty-five years than go back there for a day after telling all he knew.

CONFAB AT "DEL'S" TO PICK A MAYOR DETAILED BY METZ

Congressman Who is a Candidate for Comptroller Gives Inside Story.

CHIEF WANTED GAYNOR.

Metz Says McCall Was at the Meeting for Only a Short Time.

What he alleged to be the inside facts about the dinner given at Delmonico's on the night of Aug. 21 when Mayor Gaynor's resignation was discussed were given out this afternoon by Congressman Herman A. Metz, the Democratic candidate for Comptroller.

Metz says McCall was at the meeting for only a short time.

Metz says McCall was at the meeting for only a short time.

Metz says McCall was at the meeting for only a short time.

Metz says McCall was at the meeting for only a short time.

Metz says McCall was at the meeting for only a short time.

Metz says McCall was at the meeting for only a short time.

Metz says McCall was at the meeting for only a short time.

Metz says McCall was at the meeting for only a short time.

Metz says McCall was at the meeting for only a short time.

Metz says McCall was at the meeting for only a short time.

Metz says McCall was at the meeting for only a short time.

Metz says McCall was at the meeting for only a short time.

Metz says McCall was at the meeting for only a short time.

WARDEN OF SING SING WHO RESIGNED TO BE FREE TO TALK.

WARDEN J.M. CLANCY

AIR FULL OF CHARGES AND DENIALS IN HOT FINISH OF CAMPAIGN.

Hennessy goes to the District-Attorney with a second batch of information looking to the indictment of Tammany grafters.

Hennessy quotes from a confession he alleged he got from Stilwell a threat that he (Stilwell) would put Murphy in jail.

Stilwell says Hennessy lies in quoting him as having uttered certain statements attributed to him.

Warden Clancy of Sing Sing resigns to be free to refute Hennessy's statements about the Stilwell confession.

Hennessy mentions the name of Warden Fallon of the Tombs as the man who was the referee in the dispute between Judge McCall and Inspector McLaughlin in reference to a campaign contribution.

McCall again makes a bitter attack on the World for its exposure of his record on the bench.

Mitchell says if elected he will give no preference to any political party.

Twelve tickets are in the field in the Bronx, and the leaders each are shouting victory.

Measurements of the distance of the park site from the railroad and trolley lines and have computed the railroad fare it will cost the people of different parts of Manhattan, Brooklyn and Queens to reach the spot.

The anticipated exposure which Mr. Mitchell has been anxiously awaiting will be forthcoming to-night, said First Commissioner Joseph Johnson, the manager of Judge McCall's campaign.

Mitchell claims his election by 150,000 plurality.

John Purroy Mitchell to-day asserted that he would be elected the next Mayor of New York by a plurality of between 100,000 and 150,000.

"I am confident that I and the entire Fusion ticket will be elected by that plurality," said Mr. Mitchell. "Tammany Hall is doomed, and I intend to continue the fight against it until I purge it and make it clean."

There is nothing in my whole life that I am ashamed to have revealed to the public," said Mr. Mitchell.

MRS. EATON'S CASE NEARS THE JURY; LAWYERS SUM UP

Counsel for Prisoner Tells the Jury She Is a Victim of Circumstances.

SHE EXPECTS FREEDOM.

Prosecutor Talks of His "Distasteful Task"—Judge's Charge This Evening.

PLYMOUTH, Mass., Oct. 29.—The closing argument in behalf of Mrs. Jennie May Eaton, charged with the murder of her husband, Rear-Admiral Joseph Giles Eaton, was made to-day by William A. Morse.

It was thought he would conclude early enough to enable Chief Justice Aiken to charge the jury and give the case into their hands by to-night.

Mrs. Eaton sat quietly with hands folded during Lawyer Morse's argument. She had entered the court room slowly, with head up, watched by all eyes.

Mrs. Eaton confidently expected acquittal. It was plain she had the sympathy of most of those in the courtroom.

Morse turned to his client and exhorted her courage in listening day after day to accusations made against her.

Attorney Morse told the jurors that even if they might believe Mrs. Eaton guilty, they had no right to convict her unless the evidence in the case was conclusive, and he added:

"There is no evidence upon which you can find that this woman committed the act charged, or that she is so insane as to be guilty of crime and not be responsible for it."

He reviewed the incidents of Mrs. Eaton's life, as related by the defendant on the witness stand, and declared that because she was the victim of circumstances she was forced to face a murder charge.

Admiral Eaton was intemperate and possessed a mind that was vile, but he had a polished exterior, Attorney Morse said. His wife had been faithful, and the letters written by her and offered as exhibits had been prompted by pity for her miserable husband.

The prosecution, the attorney said, had been unable to find a motive for the crime, and so had suggested several from which the jury might choose.

When Attorney Morse closed his argument District-Attorney Barker arose and shook his hand warmly.

District-Attorney Barker began his argument for the prosecution by complimenting Morse on his able address.

"He has appealed to you on sympathy, I shall present my case on the evidence," he said to the jurors. Mr. Barker launched forth in a brilliant speech explaining the "distasteful affair he had been called upon to conduct."

"I pray God I shall never again be called upon for such an ordeal," he said.

Bull Moose says a deal is on to defeat Sulzer.

Jilted Man Who Died for Love; Girl Who Thought Him Too Poor

ALEX FLEICHER AND ROSIE FEUCHMAN.

are going to impeach Sulzer and remove him from office, and then the chief says I'll be pardoned."

"He said that he had talked with big Tammany men lately and knew whereof he spoke. They had encouraged Stilwell not to squeal and everything would be all right."

The statements credited to Stilwell by Miller are to the assurance from Murphy that he would be pardoned and his decision not to squeal is practically identical with those contained in the letter made public yesterday as having been directed to Sulzer by Stilwell from Sing Sing prison.

WARDEN CLANCY SAYS HE'LL STICK TO RESIGNATION

Belmont, Ryan and Shonts Not Defendants in Stockholders' Suit.

The litigation by which stockholders in the defunct Central Park, North and East River Railway Company, otherwise the "Belt Line," sought to compel an accounting for the alleged mismanagement and wrecking of the concern, was to-day dealt a death blow by Supreme Court Justice Page when he handed down an opinion eliminating August Belmont, Thomas F. Ryan, Theodore Shonts and their associates as defendants.

The suit was filed a year ago. It alleged that Belmont, Ryan, Herbert H. Vreeland and other leading spirits in the Metropolitan Street Railways and the New York Railways by the use of dummy directors absolutely controlled the Central Park line, operating from Fifty-ninth street to the Battery, and permitted the property of the concern to go to waste, neglecting as well to renew or repay the bonds and mortgages of the concern, this alleged negligence finally resulting in the filing of a suit to foreclose in the United States Court.

Justice Page holds that the complaint is fatally defective in that it improperly joined causes of action against certain defendants.

Riley praises Clancy's resignation.

ALBANY, Oct. 29.—Warden Clancy may be retained as the head of Sing Sing Prison. His resignation had not been received by John B. Riley, Superintendent of the State Prison Department, to-day, and there was a persistent rumor that it would not be accepted.

"I regret that Mr. Clancy has tendered his resignation as Warden of Sing Sing Prison," he said. "I infer from his statement in the papers that he does so for political reasons. Such considerations weigh no weight with me."

"Mr. Clancy was not applying for political reasons. He was highly recommended by prominent men as being honest and capable and also as having had special experience in an important official position which would be most valuable in connection with his work as agent and warden."

After one hour the banner was drawn in. In about half an hour it was displayed again. In the mean time some of the intellectual giants foresaw to remove the name of the President of the United States from its position on the banner between the names of Col. Roosevelt and Samuel Koenig.

GIRL AND WORKMAN VICTIMS OF TRAINS 10 MINUTES APART

Long Island Railroad at Bushwick Junction Scene of Double Tragedy.

Two persons were killed on the tracks ten minutes apart, at the Bushwick Junction station of the Long Island Railroad in Queens to-day. The victims were Emilia Gaugenmaier, eighteen years old, of No. 27 Grove street, Ridgewood, and Serpis Cherofo, a laborer employed by the railroad and living at No. 105 Chichester avenue, Jamaica.

Cherofo was the first to meet his death. He was at work on the track when a construction train backed down on him. The train was moving slowly, but Cherofo could not get out of the way and was crushed beneath a loaded car.

The accident was reported by telephone to Coroner Schaeffer, who ordered that the body should not be disturbed until his arrival. Scarcely an accident created considerable excitement and many persons crowded on the right of way of the railroad company.

Just ten minutes after Cherofo was run over a locomotive bound west passed the Bushwick Junction station. The engineer, John Kenny, slowed down while passing through the crowd and then put on speed after he had passed about 300 feet along the track.

As he rounded a curve he saw on the track ahead of him Miss Gaugenmaier and her father, who were taking a shortcut to a nearby cemetery to visit the grave of the girl's mother.

Kenny sounded his whistle and slapped on the airbrakes. Gaugenmaier leaped from the track, but the girl was caught under the wheels of the locomotive.

CHURCH APPEALS TO WILSON

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 29.—The National Council of Congregational Churches to-day in a resolution appealed to President Wilson and members of Congress to call a halt in the "swelling expenditures for the paraphernalia of war."

The resolution, however, was not adopted without opposition.

State Job for New York Man.

ALBANY, Oct. 29.—Announcement of the appointment of Charles L. Chute of New York as Secretary of the State Probation Commission at a salary of $2,500 was made to-day by Homer Polke, President of the commission. Mr. Chute succeeds Arthur W. Towne, resigned.

State Labor Commissioner James L. Ryan today announced the appointment of Victor T. Holland, a Syracuse newspaperman, as his secretary at a salary of $3,000.

STILWELL LETTER WASN'T DOCTORED, COL. AMORY DECLARES

"I Saw Him Write Part of It," Says Friend of Convicted Senator.

Under copyright the New York Evening Mail this afternoon publishes what purports to be a detailed statement of the negotiations for a confession of Tammany legislative corruption, made on behalf of William Sulzer with ex-Senator Stilwell. The statement is by Col. William N. Amory, was carried by the Mail as a letter to the editor, but Col. Amory declares that he saw Stilwell write a part of the application for pardon in which he informed the governor that I have been ordered by the agents of the dominant political power (Tammany) my early release.

"Senator Stilwell is not what is commonly known as a squealer," said Col. Amory. "To my certain knowledge he made no confession."

"Stilwell agreed that if he should receive a pardon from the Governor he would be able to see that among his friends in the Senate there would be enough votes cast for the Governor to prevent his conviction under impeachment."

"On Sunday, Aug. 17, Mr. Undervert (a friend of Stilwell) and I went to Sing Sing and it was on that day that Stilwell delivered me his application for pardon. The application is dated Aug. 16, but it was actually written on Sunday, the 17th, much of it in my presence, and it was signed by Stilwell in my presence. The fact that the signature is in block hand does not mean that both the letter and the signature were not written by Stilwell. He writes his name 'back hand.'"

State Job for New York Man.

ALBANY, Oct. 29.—Announcement of the appointment of Charles L. Chute of New York as Secretary of the State Probation Commission at a salary of $2,500 was made to-day by Homer Polke, President of the commission. Mr. Chute succeeds Arthur W. Towne, resigned.

State Labor Commissioner James L. Ryan today announced the appointment of Victor T. Holland, a Syracuse newspaperman, as his secretary at a salary of $3,000.

THIEVES TRIED TO GET HOLD OF SULZER'S WALLET ON EAST SIDE TOUR.

The following statement was given out this afternoon at the Sulzer headquarters:

"When Mr. Sulzer said 'good night' to his escort at the Broadway Central Hotel at 11 o'clock this morning, he had, according to Police Capt. Everts, spoken to 300,000 people in eleven meetings between 9:30 and the time the candidate for the Assembly returned home. The police captain said:

"This was the greatest demonstration of the kind I have ever held in America. On the third night of the Governor's tour I threw up my hands, but last night I was speechless. Fully 10,000 persons followed the Sulzer car from point to point. The police of New York never had to deal with such a jam of humanity. This Sulzer demonstration is not on anything in my police experience."

"Sulzer follows know that Tammany Hall has sent out a tip to the 'underworld.' Pickpockets swarm in the district and the police are so busy with the crowds that the thieves have it all their own way. Last night a night man who pressed around the Governor in spite of the police tried to get his wallet. On Monday night Rev. Mr. Levenson, rabbi of the Albany Synagogue, who has been speaking with the candidate, was 'touched' for $50, and Emil Kovarik, the faithful aide, lost $10."

"Mr. Sulzer smiled broadly when he was asked about the outlook. 'It seems to me,' he said, 'that Murphysm is doomed. Nobody who saw last night's crowd doubted that bossism is destroyed. The Murphy ticket is beaten by an overwhelming majority. We have won the fight, but we must keep it up until the votes are counted on election night. Tammany is a desperate and will resort to any fraud and any depredation on the ballot box to elect its ticket. Every honest citizen should guard the polls and every voter should see that his ballot is put in the box. Watch the inspectors.'

"Mr. Sulzer's campaign managers have asked the authorities to investigate the authorship of a scurrilous pamphlet that has been circulated anonymously in the Sixth Assembly District, attacking Mr. Sulzer and somebody may go to prison for the outrage. This ought to arouse the indignation of every honest man in the district, remarked the Governor this morning. Mr. Sulzer said:

"Mr. Murphy's stamps are not content with blackguarding me, but they must attack my wife."

ECONOMY LEAGUE QUILTS M'CALL IN ROW OVER $50,000.

Robert Adamson, the manager of the Fusion campaign, gave out a statement to-day to the effect that the City Economy League, which indorsed McCall, has withdrawn its support and has decided not to send out $50,000 appeals to taxpayers who had been prepared.

Mr. Adamson's statement does not make clear whether the City Economy League deserted Judge McCall because the officers of the league think he is already beaten or because they didn't get $50,000.

"In connection with the City Economy League's indorsement of Judge McCall," said Mr. Adamson, "it would be interesting to learn what became of a fund of $50,000 which I am told the league was offered. My information is that the money was not forthcoming. I am told that at the meeting of the Executive Committee at which the indorsement was adopted mention was made of the $50,000 fund. Some of the members objected to taking the money from Tammany Hall, but a member of the committee, according to my information, said it would come from personal friends of Judge McCall. And it didn't come at all."

An appeal to every enfranchised Republican voter in the city to support Join

TAMMANY MAKES ADVERTISED ATTACK ON MITCHELL TO-NIGHT.

The widely advertised Tammany attack on John Purroy Mitchell is to be made at the McCall meetings to-night. It was said at McCall headquarters to-day that charges of a serious nature are to be made against Mr. Mitchell in connection with the part he played as a member of the Board of Estimate in purchasing certain property for park purposes.

Inasmuch as Judge McCall has persistently referred to the acquisition by the city of a seaside park at Rockaway, and as the Dreamland Park site at Coney Island has not been acquired by the city, it is assumed that the Rockaway Park matter is the one that will be made the subject of the attack. Judge McCall, it was said, would not father the attack on Mr. Mitchell, but would allow it to be made by other speakers.

Tammany investigators have been very busy with the Rockaway Park purchase. They have been looking up Mr. Mitchell's associations with the persons from whom the site was purchased. They have also taken accurate

PERKINS URGES KLINE'S ELECTION AS ALDERMAN AGAIN.

George W. Perkins has sent a letter to Robert Adamson, chairman of the Fusion campaign, in which he says he hopes "that everything is being done that can be done to further the candidacy of Mayor Kline," who is a candidate for Alderman in the Fifty-first district, Brooklyn.

"It seems to me," writes Mr. Perkins, "that in view of the experience Mr. Kline has had in the governmental affairs of the city and the excellent record he has made as Mayor, it would be a great pity to lose his services in connection with the Board of Aldermen. I take it that there is very little doubt of his election, but everything that can be done should be done to remove even the slightest doubt."

Heading Him Off. (From the Houston Post.) "Heaven lies about us in our infancy. 'No door our father. Were you going to tell me something smart that your little boy had said?" "All I have to say to you, sir, is good day!"

MILLER BACKS UP STILWELL STORY.

In a letter written by O. R. Miller, State Superintendent of the New York Civic League, made public to-day, Miller says Stilwell had told him he had "much to tell on other Tammany men," but added: "They are going to impeach them and remove them from office and then reseat them." The letter was addressed to Sulzer and dated Albany, Oct. 28.

"One day the latter part of last June," the letter said, "I called on Judge Stilwell in the Tombs. We discussed various topics. He wanted me to help him. I gave him no encouragement."

"He insisted that he knew much to tell on other Tammany men. Before I left Senator Stilwell said to me: 'Oh! I shall squeal—not yet. They

WARDEN CLANCY SAYS HE'LL STICK TO RESIGNATION

Belmont, Ryan and Shonts Not Defendants in Stockholders' Suit.

The litigation by which stockholders in the defunct Central Park, North and East River Railway Company, otherwise the "Belt Line," sought to compel an accounting for the alleged mismanagement and wrecking of the concern, was to-day dealt a death blow by Supreme Court Justice Page when he handed down an opinion eliminating August Belmont, Thomas F. Ryan, Theodore Shonts and their associates as defendants.

The suit was filed a year ago. It alleged that Belmont, Ryan, Herbert H. Vreeland and other leading spirits in the Metropolitan Street Railways and the New York Railways by the use of dummy directors absolutely controlled the Central Park line, operating from Fifty-ninth street to the Battery, and permitted the property of the concern to go to waste, neglecting as well to renew or repay the bonds and mortgages of the concern, this alleged negligence finally resulting in the filing of a suit to foreclose in the United States Court.

Justice Page holds that the complaint is fatally defective in that it improperly joined causes of action against certain defendants.

Riley praises Clancy's resignation.

ALBANY, Oct. 29.—Warden Clancy may be retained as the head of Sing Sing Prison. His resignation had not been received by John B. Riley, Superintendent of the State Prison Department, to-day, and there was a persistent rumor that it would not be accepted.

"I regret that Mr. Clancy has tendered his resignation as Warden of Sing Sing Prison," he said. "I infer from his statement in the papers that he does so for political reasons. Such considerations weigh no weight with me."

"Mr. Clancy was not applying for political reasons. He was highly recommended by prominent men as being honest and capable and also as having had special experience in an important official position which would be most valuable in connection with his work as agent and warden."

After one hour the banner was drawn in. In about half an hour it was displayed again. In the mean time some of the intellectual giants foresaw to remove the name of the President of the United States from its position on the banner between the names of Col. Roosevelt and Samuel Koenig.

Causes His Sweetheart's Arrest.

John M. Helton, a Syrian, who lives at No. 144 Clinton street, Brooklyn, appeared in the Adams Street Court to-day against his former sweetheart, Miss Victoria Leach, who is seventeen and who lives at No. 209 East Fourteenth street, Manhattan. The ex-warden charged that his fiancee—for so he said Miss Leach had been—had taken $500 worth of jewelry and money from his room when she visited him there recently. The girl pleaded not guilty. She was held in $1,000 bail for further examination.

Special for Wednesday

Special for Thursday

Special for Wednesday

Special for Thursday

Special for Wednesday

Special for Thursday

Advertisement for Garterproof Gotham Gold Stripe Silk Hosiery. Price $1.00, $1.50, $2.00. Guaranteed Garter-Proof—the Gold Stripe makes them so. Black, white, colors, or dyed to sample in 24 hours, quicker if necessary. Gotham Hosiery Shop, 27 West 34th Street, New York.

Advertisement for Brains of Tammany Call Wilson a Boss. Intellectual Giants of Wigwam Also Put the President Between Republicans.

Advertisement for Novelties for Halloween. Tis the hour of Hallow-e'en! Come forth, ye Goblins, Demons, Witches and Black Cats from your realms of mystery and make merry with us for this one night. They're all here! Merry looking Black Cats with green Goblins, Pumpkin Heads, grinning Skulls that almost chill the blood, and oh, yes—even his Satanic Majesty himself, in his official robes of scarlet, is represented in our novelty Jack o' Lanterns, that can be filled with candy.

Advertisement for Special for Wednesday. MAPLE ANNOTATED NUT CREAM. KISSES—a subtle blending of assorted CHOICEST pure Candies, Sugar, richly flavored with Maple and made into Kisses. POUND BOX 10c.

Advertisement for Special for Thursday. CHOCOLATE COVERED ASSORTED CREAMS—a choice collection of Chocolate covered nutcases in splendid assortment of Fruit, Cream and Nut centers. POUND BOX 10c.

Advertisement for Special for Wednesday. ANNOTATED MARD CANDIES—a special variety of our favorite in long-lasting candies, comprising Fruit Tablets, Pillows, Biscuits, Buttercreams and many other high class sweets. POUND BOX 25c.

Advertisement for Special for Thursday. ITALIAN STYLE CREAM CHOCOLATE candy lovers, there is hardly a left hand that doesn't know these good old time honored Cucullini with their centers of richly flavored Van. Cream. POUND BOX 30c.

Advertisement for Loft. 10 STORIES. Park Row, Corland, 125th Street, 23rd Street and Brooklyn Stores open every evening until 10 o'clock. All our stores open Saturday evenings until 11 o'clock.

Advertisement for White Rose Coffee. Everything Tastes Better When the coffee is good. The hostess who serves this coffee will never lack company.

Advertisement for Seeman Bros. New York. Proprietors of White Rose Coffee Tea.

Advertisement for Where There's a Will. Where there's a will there's a way—to get into trouble or out of it, as the dice may fall. Perhaps no other will, since the birth of time, has caused so many weird complications as did "the old Doctor's."

Advertisement for Where There's a Will. "Where There's a Will" is by Mary Roberts Rinehart. Mary Roberts Rinehart is America's greatest woman humorist.

Advertisement for Where There's a Will. She wrote "Seven Days," the story that set two continents in a roar. And "Where There's a Will" is even funnier than "Seven Days."

Advertisement for Where There's a Will. "Where There's a Will" is to run serially in The Evening World, beginning Monday, Nov. 10. Don't forget the date, Monday, Nov. 10. That's the day you will begin laughing.