

REBELS DRIVE BACK MEXICAN FEDERALS

Notable Crowd Sees President's Daughter Married

FINAL EDITION.

The World.

FINAL EDITION.

Fair to-night; Wednesday cloudy and warmer.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

"Circulation Books Open to All."

Fair to-night; Wednesday cloudy and warmer.

PRICE ONE CENT.

Copyright, 1913, by The Evening World Publishing Co. (The New York World).

NEW YORK, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1913.

22 PAGES

PRICE ONE CENT.

WORD "OBEY" OMITTED AS JESSIE WILSON IS WED AT WHITE HOUSE

Brilliant Throng Fills East Room—Sayres Will Spend Their honeymoon in Europe, but Keep Their Route Secret.

(Special to The Evening World.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—Miss Jessie Woodrow Wilson was married in the East Room of the White House at half-past 4 o'clock this afternoon to Francis Bowes Sayre. The second of the three daughters of the President, the thirteenth bride of the White House, had perfect Indian summer weather for her nuptials. The service was according to the simple ritual of the Book of Common Service of the Presbyterian Church—which omits the word "obey" from the pledge exacted of the bride. The coincidence that Miss Wilson has declared her allegiance to the movement for Votes for Women (thereby differing from other members of her family) occasioned some quiet amusement.

The setting of the wedding, despite the desire of the bride and groom for all possible simplicity, was colored by the high official position of the guests and by the grandeur of the architecture of the room of the White House and the multiplicity of decorations necessary. Brilliant uniforms of diplomats and of officers of the Army and Navy made a display in spite of the sincerest efforts of those who made the arrangements to follow the wishes of Miss Wilson and Mr. Sayre.

Springs began early rolling up to the White House portico and there was a distinct touch of holiday atmosphere everywhere. In the interior of the White House—a floral power in itself—everything was quiet and in readiness for the ceremony at 4:30 o'clock. At the Executive Office.

Guests came early to pay their respects to President Wilson.

INTIMATE FRIENDS VISIT THE PRESIDENT TO-DAY.
Col. E. M. House of New York, an intimate friend, Cleveland H. Dodge, a Princeton classmate of the President, and John A. Wilson, a cousin, were among the first to arrive. The President had but one business engagement—a Cabinet meeting.

Mrs. Wilson visited the Executive Office with guests, showed them the President's office and the Cabinet Room and walked through the south grounds. Charles W. McAlpin, Secretary of Princeton University; Andrew C. Imbrie, Edward Howe, Prof. Samuel and Robert and a group of long-time residents of Princeton were early callers. Mr. Sayre and his best man, Dr. Grenfell, took a long walk in the morning. Miss Mary Tompkins, the nine-year-old daughter of Secretary and Mrs. Tamm, was the youngest guest at the wedding.

After a long automobile ride, members of the social party met at the White House shortly after noon. The last floor place to be placed in the East Room was a huge mountain of white chrysanthemums, sent by the Minister from Ecuador. It represented the highest mountain in Ecuador and was enclosed in a box.

(Continued on Third Page)

JESSIE WILSON WEDS FRANCIS SAYRE IN ORANGE, TEX., TO-DAY.
ORANGE, Tex., Nov. 25.—By a strange coincidence, Miss Jessie Wilson and Francis Sayre residents of this town, were married to-day at the same time the President's daughter was married. The bride is a farmer's daughter and the groom a merchant.

Charity Wagon Kills Boy.
Joseph Zehr, five years old, of No. 225 Second street, was run over and killed in front of No. 10 Avenue C to-day by a Charities Department wagon driven by William Hendrickson of the New York City Farm Colony at Castleton Corners, S. I. The child, according to the police, ran out from the curb directly in front of the wagon.

World Wants Work Wonders.

ALDERMEN DEMAND FLAT 5-CENT RATE FROM PHONE TRUST

Call on Public Service Commissioners to Issue the Necessary Orders.

RESOLUTION IS PASSED.

Ask That Toll Charges Between Various Boroughs Be Abolished at Once.

The Board of Aldermen this afternoon joined in The Evening World's campaign for cheaper telephone rates by unanimously adopting a resolution offered by Alderman Niles R. Becker, as follows:

"Whereas, an effort is being made by civic sections and others of the city to reduce telephone rates to a five-cent basis and to wipe out toll charges between boroughs, and

"Whereas, judging from information obtained by those who are investigating the telephone question, New York City is being compelled to pay higher rates per message than any other city in the country,

"Therefore, be it resolved that the Board of Aldermen of the City of New York, representing every district in the municipality and therefore the most representative body in the city, request the Public Service Commission to use every effort for the reduction of telephone rates to a fair basis—that is to a five-cent message rate between the boroughs and the wiping out of interborough toll charges."

VIOLINIST KILLED BY AN ELEVATOR AT THE CAFE DE PARIS

Hurled Down Four Stories After Playing for the Dancers This Afternoon.

Joseph Cafer was caught by the elevator in the Cafe de Paris Building this afternoon and instantly killed. He was only nineteen years old, but had achieved a reputation as a master of the violin which reached far beyond Yonkers, his home town.

He played in the orchestra at the Fortieswood, for the merrymakers who danced the tango and the turkey trot. His music stirred the feet to action and the hearts to vigorous throbbing. At the Cafe de Paris they have dancing in the afternoon as well as in the evening. In the night one is apt to see gorgeously gowned and bejeweled women admit in the dance.

In the afternoon well dressed men and women drop in for luncheon, for tea and other refreshments. Cafer played in the afternoon as well. He was there this afternoon, playing in the orchestra, the music of his violin inspiring the chatter and gay laughter of the guests, setting their feet to the dance.

From the gay assemblage the violinist started to go downstairs at 2:30 o'clock. The door of the elevator on the fourth landing was open, the cage was on the floor above. As the cage descended Cafer was struck by it on the head and was sent to the bottom of the shaft. Death resulted instantly, but the majority of the merrymakers in the safety knew nothing of the tragedy.

The body was removed to the Thirtieth street police station.

Minnesota Not Injured.
YONKERS, Nov. 25.—The steamskip Minnesota, from Manila to Seattle, which went around Sunday in the Straits of Malacca, was refueled to-day. Apparently the vessel has not been damaged.

White House Bride in Her Wedding Gown

Drawn From Description, by ELEANOR SCHORER.

FRANCIS B. SAYRE

any right here that in the future offenders may expect no mercy." Mrs. Pelouze is the second woman taken before Judge Hunt—who has been sitting in New York but a short time—charged with smuggling. The first was Mrs. Wiborg of Cincinnati, friend of the Tatts.

Mrs. Pelouze is a daughter of Frank Ward, a Detroit lumber merchant, who left a fortune of several millions.

COURT THREATENS TO JAIL WOMEN FOR SMUGGLING

Judge Hunt, in Fining Mrs. Pelouze $1,000, Says "No Mercy" in Future.

The day of fines for society smugglers is passing and an era of prison sentences is dawning for embezzled and jeweled women who scorn the customs regulations. This was the pointed warning contained to-day in caustic remarks by United States Judge Hunt in imposing what he hinted might be the last fine—in cases of this type—upon a woman charged with bringing clothing and jewelry into this country without making proper declarations to the customs officials.

The defendant, upon her plea of guilty to an indictment charging her with bringing dutiable furs and wearing apparel and jewelry into the country at undervaluation, was fined $1,000. She is Mrs. Helen W. Pelouze, wife of Louis H. Pelouze of No. 25 West Fifty-sixth street. The indictment followed an examination of her baggage when she arrived from Europe recently on La France. In pronouncing sentence Judge Hunt said:

"It has been the custom of the courts to impose a fine aggregating several thousand dollars in cases of this kind," said Judge Hunt. "The offender paid her fine, entered her automobile and motored uptown laughing at the Government and the court. I am convinced that the only way to deter women of wealth from continuing to cheat the Government is to impose prison sentences and I may

WINTER CRUISES.
To Bermuda, the Bahamas, West Indies, South America and the Mediterranean. Round-trip tickets, $100.00. Includes breakfast and dinner. Write for prospectus to THE WORLD TRAVEL BUREAU, 400 Broadway, New York City.

MEXICAN REBEL GUNS SPLIT FEDERAL RANKS IN TWO DAYS' BATTLE

Rival Forces Numbering 17,000 Men in Desperate Fight at Juarez Renewed After Rout of Huerta's Men Last Night.

ROAR OF GUNS HEARD ON THE TEXAS BORDER

More U. S. Troops Rushed to Line to Protect Americans—Federal General Salaza Reported Killed.

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 25.—With the issue of the great battle being fought between the Mexican Rebels and Federals south of Juarez still unsettled this afternoon, all the advantage seemed to be with the rebel forces under Gen. Villa, although the Federals, commanded by Gen. Salaza, fought desperately. Seventeen thousand troops comprising the armies on both sides are engaged in the fight.

At noon to-day the Constitutionalist officers in Juarez reported the Federals had been driven back all along the rebel front and that Gen. Pancho Villa had ordered a general advance of his men against the Federals, declared to be in retreat.

An Associated Press representative stationed at the top of a wireless telegraph tower 300 feet high three miles east of El Paso confirmed the rebel report that the Federals were falling back south of Juarez. He could see the manoeuvres with field glasses.

At that hour fighting was still in progress south of the city, but the battle had ceased at the town of Zaragosa, opposite Yuleta, Tex., twelve miles east of El Paso. The fighting there opened early. Gen. Inez Salazar, the former rebel general, but now a Huerta commander, was leading the Federals. He was several times to-day reported a prisoner, but officials in Juarez declared they knew nothing of his capture.

The fighting was heavy at Zaragosa, the roar of artillery being plainly heard in El Paso all morning. Juan N. Medina, chief of staff to Gen. Villa, this afternoon said the Federals had been driven back as far as thirty miles south of Juarez, except those at Zaragosa. This was the second day's conflict between the armies, said to total about 17,000 men. The Federals opened yesterday afternoon by attempting to flank Villa on the west in an effort to get behind him and attack Juarez from the northwest, but were repulsed. Then an attempt was made on the rebel center, but this also failed.

It was announced to-day that Col. Porfirio Talamantes, one of the rebel colonels, was killed in the battle last night.

Col. Medina late this afternoon said he had received a report that Gen. Salazar had been killed in this morning's fighting at Zaragosa and that his force had been almost annihilated. This report is not confirmed.

BATTLE RESUMED AT DAWN NEAR JUAREZ RACE TRACK.
Simultaneously firing opened at 4:30 o'clock A. M. to-day southeast of the Juarez race track and opposite Yuleta, Tex., about twelve miles east of Juarez. The Federals used cannon in both attacks. The appearance of the rebels near the race track indicates they had worked their way around the rebel outposts during the night.

The heavy fighting at Zaragosa, opposite Yuleta, was taken to contradict the claim that Gen. Salazar's Federal troops had been surrounded and virtually made prisoners last night. This claim had been made by Medina. Early to-day reports from Yuleta were that the fighting was heavy, the roar of the cannon being plainly audible.

These reports stated that Villa had taken four wagonloads of supplies and ammunition across the border at Socorro during the night, together with a considerable supply of forage for his own army.

The sound of battle south of Juarez the centre of Gen. Villa's battle front was heard here early, but the fighting

FIRE MARSHAL AHEARN FAINTS AT HIS DESK

Former Official of New York Department Suffers Severe Attack.

ALBANY, Nov. 25.—State Fire Marshal Thomas J. Ahearn was found unconscious on the floor of his office by employees to-day. He was believed to be suffering from heart trouble. Before a physician arrived Ahearn partly regained consciousness. He complained of pains in his left shoulder and chest. Recently he had suffered severely from rheumatism in the left shoulder. He was removed to a hotel and arrangements were made to take him to the home of a sister in New York this afternoon.

Ahearn's brother, John F., recently suffered a similar attack.

MEXICAN OFFICER SHOT TO DEATH WHILE ALL IN TOWN WATCH.
DOUGLARS, Ark., Nov. 25.—Standing against an adobe wall copped by the bullets which have ended scores of other lives, Lieut. Jose Castro of the Agua Prieta garrison was shot to death to-day in view of the entire population of the Mexican border town. Castro paid the penalty imposed by a court-martial for having slain Maximiliano Montalvo, a former wealthy Mexican landholder but reduced by the fortunes of war to the necessity of driving a hack. He was killed in a dispute over the fare he charged Castro. Capt. Gil Samaniego, with a force of about one hundred men who have been guarding Ojitas Pass, left to-day to reinforce Villa at Juarez. Constitutionalist recruiting agents were busy recruiting 1,000 new men to send to the rebel army at Chihuahua.

CUPID'S THANKSGIVING RUSH.
Many Philadelphians to Wed on the Holiday.
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 25.—Marriage licenses are being issued to-day in record-breaking fashion in Philadelphia to happy couples who want to be married Thanksgiving Day. It is expected the total will reach 100 by to-morrow night.

STOVER IN HOTEL IN SAN FRANCISCO; APPEARS DAZED
Missing Park Commissioner Said to Be Located in the St. Francis Hotel.
(Special to The Evening World.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 25.—Park Commissioner Charles B. Stover, who has been missing from New York City for nearly six weeks, is in San Francisco. He is registered at the St. Francis Hotel. He is accompanied by ex-Alderman J. H. Francis of Chicago. Francis is traveling on the Pacific coast locating investments for English capitalists. He arrived at the St. Francis with his secretary and valet, and is looking carefully after Mr. Stover, who appears dazed. They have engaged a suite of rooms at the St. Francis, but it is believed they are preparing to leave for Los Angeles in a few days.
(By Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 25.—Charles B. Stover, Park Commissioner of New York City, who has been missing for more than five weeks, registered here to-day at the St. Francis Hotel in company with J. H. Francis of Chicago. He was recognized by a friend, who verified his signature at the desk but did not speak to him. Francis and Stover both left the hotel before any inquiries could be addressed to them in person. Mr. Stover told the hotel clerk he was going out to look after his baggage, but did not tell by what train he had arrived. He did not return to the hotel during the morning and could not be found by newspaper men.

MAYOR KLINE VEToes NEW HACK ORDINANCE
Refuses to Give Drivers Right to Leave Seats and Solicit Fares.
Mayor Kline to-day returned to the Board of Aldermen with his veto an ordinance amendment adopted at the last meeting, which in effect gave hack drivers the privilege of leaving their seats and soliciting fares on the sidewalk.
Alderman John McGeart, who introduced the vetoed amendment, explained that he would not fight to have the measure passed over the Mayor's disapproval.
Mayor Kline supplemented his veto with a decision from Supreme Court Justice Seabury.
NEW TRIAL FOR MISS BIGGAR.
Judgment for Alleging Affections Had Been Made Against Appellant.
ALBANY, Nov. 25.—The Court of Appeals to-day granted a new trial in the case of Miss Laura Biggar, against whom Mrs. Agnes May Hendrick of Bayonne, N. J., once obtained a judgment for $6,572.91 for the alleged alienation of her husband's affections.
This judgment later was reduced to $3,187.30 and then the case went to the Court of Appeals. The opinion was written by Judge Hancock and concurred in by the entire court.

FOR RACING SEE PAGE 2.