Market Closing—There was a resumption of bullish activity today and, but it was of an ordinary kind, and shorts did not seem to be in a hurry to cover further, as the most vulnerable part of the bear account having already been driven in.

Steel made a net gain of 1 1/4, closing at 62 1/2. Union Pacific also showed a gain of 1 1/2 at 151 1/2 and Reading 1 1/4 general list, which closed at or near the best prices for the day.

Opening—Trading at the start contracted sharply with the stagnation which prevailed yesterday. There was a brisk demand for the important issues, and these stocks made gains ranging from substantial fractions to one point.

Both Union Pacific and Reading advanced 1/4, while gains of one point were made in Canadian Pacific and Amalgamated Copper, with substantial gains in many others.

The recovery in copper metal prices in London had a good effect on the copper issues, and it was considered that the amount of Amalgamated stock in the street was not excessive.

The higher level of prices was maintained in the early afternoon on light business. Steel, at 62 1/4, had gained 1 1/4; Union Pacific 1 1/2, at 151 1/2, and Amalgamated Copper 1 1/4, at 70 1/2.

Trading relaxed into complete dullness in mid-afternoon, but prices maintained their advance of the morning.

The Closing Quotations. The following were the highest, lowest and last price of stocks for the day, with changes as compared with yesterday's closing prices.
