JAMES M'MAHON DIES AT LONG ISLAND HOME
Ex-President of Savings Bank Was a Director in Many Big Concerns.

James McMahon, former President of the Emigrant Industrial Savings Bank and for many years an active financier and business man, died today at his country home in Scitowen, L. I. He was eighty-two years old and had been ill for several months. A widow and three children survive him.

Mr. McMahon was born in Franklin County, N. Y., in 1837, and came to this city when seventeen years old. He embarked in the transportation business, made money and went into banking. From 1885 to 1909 he was President of the Emigrant Industrial Savings Bank, during all its residence in this city. Mr. McMahon made his home in Brooklyn, where of recent years he maintained a magnificent house at No. 87 Melanough street. He was a friend of many years standing of the late Mayor Gaynor and assisted in the fight that downed John Y. McKane. Mr. McMahon was instrumental in procuring the nomination of Mayor Gaynor for the office to which he was elected four years ago.

Four years ago Mr. McMahon resigned from the presidency of the Emigrant Savings Bank and retired to his third time. Until he became ill last fall he was actively engaged in looking after his business enterprises. He was a director of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, the National Surety Company, the Produce Exchange Bank, the People's Trust Company of Brooklyn, and minor institutions. He was also prominently connected with Catholic charitable organizations.

Felix P. Tumulty of Jersey City, secretary to Mayor Mark M. Fagan and brother of Joseph P. Tumulty, Secretary to President Wilson, announced yesterday that he married last Monday Miss Lena Altz of No. 24 Summit avenue, Jersey City. The ceremony was performed in St. John's Roman Catholic Church, the Rev. John M. Moran, a chaplain of the bridegroom at St. Peter's College, officiating.

The couple are now in Washington, the guests of the President's secretary and family.

SEE OVERNIGHT RESULTS OF POSLAM'S WORK

You have heard of the effectiveness of Poslam. Test it for the rapidity of its action by selecting a small part of a surface where the skin is extensively broken out. Apply Poslam on this place at night and note the difference in the morning. Surprising results are seen, for Poslam's soothing action in eczema, wet, psoriasis, barbers' itch, piles, etc., begins with first application, when all itching is stopped, and continues unremittently until its work is done. It "takes hold" at once and you can observe progress day by day. The eradication of pimples, rashes and minor troubles is but a matter of the briefest treatment with Poslam.

POSAM SOAP improves and beautifies the skin and hair, prevents roughness, purifies the scalp. All druggists sell Poslam (price 50 cents) and Poslam Soap (price 25 cents). For free samples write to the Emergency Laboratories, 24 West 24th Street, New York City.

Was There Ever a Gift Like FURS?

What is there quite so expressive of all that Christmas means? Their stunning and beautiful style pays a graceful compliment to the recipient's correct ideas of smartness, their wonderful utility speaks of thoughtfulness for the wearer's comfort, their fine quality as furs bespeaks the fine quality of the esteem that inspires the giver; and their prices—moderate enough for fine furs—remove them so far from anything inexpensive and trivial that they almost breathe the language of the highest regard.

Certainly there never was such a wonderful opportunity to buy guaranteed Furs—he finest in quality and the smartest in style—at such modest prices.

Club Plan Payments May Be Arranged.

New Fur Coats

The newest models are about three-quarter length, cut away in the front, some with a suggestion of draping. They are full and loose, with medium to large open sleeves. The straight semi-fitted styles are as much in vogue as ever, most of them being rounded at the bottom. Lengths for Women are from 38 to 54 inches, and for Misses 36 to 50 inches. The most fashionable furs for coats are the beautiful Hudson Seal (sea dyed Muskrat), Alaska Seal and Near Seal, Persian Lamb, Mole skin, Caracul and the ever popular Russian Pony skin.

New Fur Sets

Skunk Sets are among the most wanted for next season and of these we will show a very large selection. A notable fact is that the foreign markets are demanding American skunkskins in larger quantities, which, it is predicted, will double their value before long. However, our purchases were made just before this tendency became so marked, so that our prices remain as low as ever, while market prices are soaring.

Lynx Furs can now be bought for about the same prices as a good Alaska Fox. They have heretofore been twice as costly. This fur is a strong feature of the Sale, as Lynx Furs are very silky and beautiful.
