

MORE TYPHUS FOUND,
DUE TO BALKAN WAR

Horrible Sanitary Conditions Cause Disease That is Being Brought to America.

Two immigrants, one suffering from typhus and the other suspected of being afflicted with the disease, were taken from the steamer of the Austro-American liner Kaiser Franz Josef I, when she arrived at Quarantine from Trieste to-day. The patients were hurried to Swinburn Island, and 128 steerage passengers who had been exposed were taken to the detention station on Hoffman's Island.

In view of the fact that two cases of typhus had been found aboard the steamer, from Trieste, on Saturday, and 148 passengers from that vessel had been detained, Dr. O'Connell, the health officer, paid particular attention to the Franz Josef.

The immigrants who have recently arrived here suffering from typhus or betraying symptoms of typhus came from the Balkans. Undoubtedly the horrible sanitary conditions due to the late war have bred the germs of this malignant affliction.

BURGLARS DEFY ALARM AND CRACK STORE SAFE,
CLEANING UP $1,500

Door Wired, but They Avoid Giving the Signal by Cutting Through the Wood.

L. Wertheimer, who has a dry goods store in the two-story business building at the southwest corner of Amsterdam avenue and One Hundred and Sixty-second street, discovered when he opened his place of business to-day that cracksmen had invaded the premises, blown his safe and stolen $1,500 in cash and a number of valuable papers, including several bonds. The robbery was committed some time between 11 o'clock Saturday night and 8 o'clock this morning.

The burglars entered through a rear basement window by sawing through one-inch bars. Then they went through a door protected by a burglar alarm. In order to avoid setting off the burglar alarm the thieves didn't attempt to open the door, but sawed a hole in it large enough to permit them to get through.

The safe is in a partitioned office in the rear of the store, the distance of the length of the building from the street. There is a fixed police post on the corner.

The door of the safe was blown off with nitro glycerine. In order to deaden the report the thieves smothered the safe in cotton flannel, blankets and cloth taken from the stock. No one in the vicinity felt the shock of the explosion and no suspicious characters have been seen around the neighborhood. The corner is one of the busiest on Washington Heights.

PISTOL IN GIRL'S MUFF.

As a sequel to a dance hall row on the Bowery at Coney Island, Anna Smoot, a young woman who says she lives at No. 246 Sixtieth street, Brooklyn, to-day was held without bail in the Coney Island Police Court by Magistrate McGuire on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. Her escort was Phillip Linda, a coal merchant. She told Linda that two Italians had insulted her and Linda chased them with a revolver into the West End Depot. When Patrolman Sweeney came running up the girl says Linda handed her the pistol. At 10:27 a. m. it was found in her muff. No charge was made against Linda.

WOMAN ONLY THOUGHT
SHE'D BEEN WAYLAD AND HELD PRISONER

The Margaret Kennedy Who Told Strange Tale in Hospital is Recognized.

Margaret Kennedy, the young woman who told the police a strange story of having been kidnapped on a side street off Broadway Saturday night and being kept a prisoner by a woman and several men until late yesterday afternoon, was identified late this afternoon by her employer, James A. Taylor, a florist of Brooklyn avenue, Brooklyn, as a girl he had hired as Martha Myers on Jan. 3 to attend his wife. She left his home Saturday afternoon, he said, saying that she felt ill and meant to consult a physician.

The physicians who attended Miss Kennedy at Bellevue after she had been restored to consciousness at Flower Hospital said that nothing in her physical condition bore out the story she had told of being ill treated. She was in such bad shape that the doctors thought she might have had hallucinations or hysteria, or in her weakness might have fabricated the story to account for her unexplained absence from duty.

Miss Kennedy said that she came to Brooklyn from Utica, but the police of that city have been unable to verify the names and addresses of which she gave as references in that city.

She was found at Forty-second street and Broadway yesterday, screaming and swooning in turns, by a city fireman, who turned her over to the police.

"KING MUST SEE US OR WE'LL KNOW WHY," IS MILITANT'S WARNING

Next Deputation to Buckingham Palace Will Be Prepared for Emergencies, They Say.

LONDON, Jan. 19.—"The King has got to see us or we shall know the reason why," Mrs. Deere-Fox told a meeting of militant suffragettes in London this evening. It was at a meeting called to reopen the campaign for equal suffrage after the recent lull and the women were full of fight.

Mrs. Deere-Fox said the suffragettes had not anticipated that His Majesty would refuse to see a deputation of women on Jan. 7, but if he had been advised by his ministers not to see the delegation he could not shield himself that way.

"He has got to see us," the speaker added, "or we shall know why. The next deputation will go to Buckingham Palace, prepared for all emergencies."

Mary Ansell, a convicted suffragette out of jail on "cat-and-mouse" license, was rearrested to-day as she was entering Knightsbridge Hall to attend the meeting. Scotland Yard detectives were at every entrance on the lookout for wanted militants.

EDINBURGH, Scotland, Jan. 19.—A suffragette to-day made Thomas McKinnon Wood, the Secretary for Scotland, look like a miller by throwing a bag of flour at him while he was addressing a meeting connected with the inauguration of the Edinburgh High School. He was in the middle of his speech when the woman shrieking something about torture, leaped onto the platform and dashed a paper bag full of flour into the Scottish Secretary's face. The bag burst and the flour spread all over his clothing.

TENAFLY MAY SLUMBER; NO CHIMES AT NIGHT.

The Lyle chimas at Tenafly, N. J., erected by Mrs. Julia G. Lyle, the young widow of the octogenarian millionaire, John W. Lyle, may ring the curfew hereafter, but not later than 7 o'clock. Mrs. Lyle's melodious tribute to the memory of her husband must sound only between the hours of 8 o'clock A. M. and 7 o'clock P. M.

There is a stipulation entered into to-day by counsel for Mrs. Lyle and counsel for residents of Tenafly who have been driven into nervous prostration by the sounding of the Lyle bells every fifteen minutes, twenty-four hours a day. Vice-Chancellor Lewis, sitting in Jersey City, suggested a compromise and entertained it.

Mrs. Lyle also agrees to cut the programs of chimed hymns down to three or four renditions a day. Formerly they were given every half hour. Tenafly will now be able to sleep.

Started 'Em All Sneezing.

An epidemic of sneezing was started this morning in the Third avenue corridor of Proctor's Theatre at the avenue and Fifty-eighth street. The corridor was crowded with men, with children taking advantage of the absent early vaudeville rate and there were more kerchiefs and handkerchiefs than ever heard outside of a pepper factory. It was all stopped when Tony Roslanders was arrested for disturbing the peace. Magistrate Egan in the Yorkville Police Court fined the young man $4 for being too sneezing.

THAW'S COUNSEL CALL CONFERENCE ON CASE

Worried Over Activity of New York Officials, They Summon Shurtleff to Concord.

CONCORD, N. H., Jan. 19.—That Harry K. Thaw and counsel are worried over the recent activity of New York officials, including Gov. Glynn and Attorney-General Carmody, was confirmed to-day by the calling of Merrill T. Shurtleff to Concord for a conference with Thaw and his New Hampshire attorneys.

It was understood the attorneys will plan to meet the action of New York officials in their briefs to be filed with the Federal Court Jan. 26. The Mattotowan fugitive and his legal staff were confident of release on bail until New York officials suddenly became active and Glynn and Carmody issued statements regarding the delay in proceedings.

PAID $10,000 TO LEARN HOW TO BE CAR PORTERS

Colored Men Who Responded to C. A. Lomas's Circulars Cause His Arrest.

Twenty negroes stood in United States Commissioner John A. Shields' office this morning and saw their visions of gold lace, brass buttons and blue uniforms swept away with the sudden sinking of the "American Service School," conducted by C. A. Lomas and financed by themselves. Circulars had been sent broadcast by Lomas, calling for energetic young men willing to spend thirty days in preparing to become Pullman car porters. Some of the negroes who responded told Commissioner Shields it took little persuasion from Lomas to obtain from them sums varying from $5 to $50 for instruction by mail. Post Office Inspector Howard B. Mayhew testified applicants sent something like $10,000 to Lomas. Lomas was held under $1,500 bond for the Grand Jury, and as he left the commissioner's office a long sigh went up from the witnesses.

"But dat ain't gittin' mah ten bones back," said one.

WATERS
PIANOS

Founded 1846

If you buy a Waters Piano or a Waters-Autola player-piano you can be positively assured of getting a superb, up-to-date instrument with a good tone; also of getting it at a reasonable and very moderate price.

The tone of the Waters Pianos is of great depth and richness, with a sweet, musical, singing quality, but it is also a very durable tone that will wear well under all conditions and will stand up to pitch.

The very moderate prices of the Waters Pianos and Waters-Autola player-pianos always represent good values that are in the interest of wise economy and not at the sacrifice of quality.

Most liberal terms of payment are offered, with no charge for interest or extras.

Old pianos taken in part payment for new ones.
