

WAS MISERABLE COULDN'T STAND Testifies She Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lockawana, N. Y.—"After my first child was born I felt very miserable and could not stand on my feet. My sister-in-law wished me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and my nerves became firm, appetite good, sleep elastic, and I lost that weak, tired feeling. That was six years ago and I have had three fine healthy children since. For female troubles I always take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it works like a charm. I do all my own work."

W. L. DOUGLAS '3 1/2' & '4' SHOES

Gillette Safety Razor Five Million Men use the Gillette. The blades are fine. Get a Gillette today.

THE IMPORTED WORCESTERSHIRE HOLBROOK'S SAUCE

Little's February Sale A Masterpiece of Economy. When we say economy we mean wisdom as associated with use of money. To be economical is certainly to be wise, and the use of wisdom on the part of any one desiring to purchase furniture could not be used to better advantage...

TWO AUTO ROWDIES APOLOGIZE TO WOMEN FOR THROWING KISSES Charles T. Davis Speeded His Own Machine and Arrested Men at Coney.

The two young men who were chased by Charles T. Davis along Ocean Boulevard and charged by him with having insulted his wife and sister-in-law, were before Magistrate Hyland in the Coney Island police court this morning. Mr. Davis stated to the court that the men had apologized and that he did not wish to press the charges of disorderly conduct against them. The charges were dismissed.

Mr. Davis was driving on Ocean Boulevard, accompanied by Mrs. Davis, their five-year-old son and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cole of Morristown, N. J. A car containing five young men overtook them, and as it went by the passengers in the rear seat saluted Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Cole with: "Ah, there, dearie! O you sweetness!" Mr. Davis charges. He says the youths then threw kisses at his wife and their guest and gave imitation of frenzied embraces.

BENJAMIN F. FUNK DIES SUDDENLY IN GYMNASIUM Heart Disease Took Him as It Did His Brother—Going to Exercise When Stricken.

Benjamin F. Funk, vice-president of the publishing house of Funk & Wagnalls Co., died suddenly a little after 1 o'clock this afternoon in the gymnasium of the Montgomery Irving Physical Culture Institute, on the fifteenth floor of the Fifth Avenue Building, 115th avenue and Twenty-third street. Mr. Funk, with three friends, was about to take some light exercise when he fell to the floor.

Tetrazzini and Ruffo Heard At Hippodrome Audience Overflows and Fills the Stage—Both Artists, Singing Well, Applauded Vociferously.

TETRAZZINI and Titta Ruffo drew to the Hippodrome last night an audience that exhausted the capacity of the big auditorium. Not only was every seat taken, but the stage, save for space enough for the singers and Nahan Franko's orchestra, was occupied to the limit. Both artists were acclaimed tumultuously. In the applause of the gathered thousands, universal and insistent, both artists must have found satisfaction, but to one, denied admittance to the Metropolitan Opera House stage, the occasion must have been gratifying to an exceptional degree. Titta Ruffo fairly divided the honors with the great prima donna who was his associate.

Luise Tetrazzini to-day is unrivaled as an exponent of the decaying art of bel canto. With Sembrich retired and Nellie Melba become a leader singer, she is the undisputed heir of the generations of coloratura sopranos that illuminate the pages of musical history. Her voice is as fresh as when Mr. Hammerstein first gave us the pleasure of hearing it, and her art is greater, and no matter how far some of us may have gone along the road in pursuit of a more dramatic form of expression, the sheer beauty of her voice and the marvellous control of it that she has coupled ardent admiration. Her most effective number, perhaps, was the poeissa from "Mignon," but in the Mad Scene from "Hamlet" and in the songs she added she was irresistible.

Mr. Strinsky presented a Beethoven-Wagner programme at the concert of the Philomonic Society in Carnegie Hall yesterday afternoon. Julia Culp was the soloist. She sang with lovely art Beethoven's "Adeleide" and two songs from "Egmont." Beethoven's eighth symphony and his "Fidelio" overture and Wagner's prelude and glorification from "Parsifal," the funeral march from "Goetterdaemmerung," the "Briegfried Idyll," and the "Tannhauser" overture were the orchestral numbers, all worthily played.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Fitch.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Fitch.

Macy's The Mid-Winter FURNITURE SALE Opens To-day It is one of the most important Macy events of the entire year, viewed from any standpoint. Note particularly that there are— Savings of One-Fifth to One-Half; Furniture for Every Use in the Home

Die Meistersinger at the Metropolitan Opera House on Saturday afternoon drew a crowded house. The cast included Johanna Gadski, Karl Jarn, Carl Braun, Otto Gorits and Albert Reiss, in a fine performance. Mr. Toscanini conducted. In the evening there was a large audience to hear the double bill of "Cavalleria" and "Pagliacci." Dinah Gilly was ill, so Roschiglian took his place as Alfio in the latter opera. Emmy Destinn was Stantussa and Lucrezia Bori was Nedda. Mr. Polacco conducted both operas.

Edward Wassermann Dead. Edward Wassermann, clubman, art collector, amateur pianist and for twenty-five years well known in the financial district as a member of the firm of Wassermann Bros., bankers and brokers, is dead at his home, No. 23 West Fifty-sixth street. He was in his fifty-fifth year and had been ill more than three months. He was a native of San Francisco, an alumnus of Heidelberg University and was married in 1887 to Miss Emma Sellman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Sellman.

Edward Wassermann Dead. Edward Wassermann, clubman, art collector, amateur pianist and for twenty-five years well known in the financial district as a member of the firm of Wassermann Bros., bankers and brokers, is dead at his home, No. 23 West Fifty-sixth street. He was in his fifty-fifth year and had been ill more than three months. He was a native of San Francisco, an alumnus of Heidelberg University and was married in 1887 to Miss Emma Sellman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Sellman.

Edward Wassermann Dead. Edward Wassermann, clubman, art collector, amateur pianist and for twenty-five years well known in the financial district as a member of the firm of Wassermann Bros., bankers and brokers, is dead at his home, No. 23 West Fifty-sixth street. He was in his fifty-fifth year and had been ill more than three months. He was a native of San Francisco, an alumnus of Heidelberg University and was married in 1887 to Miss Emma Sellman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Sellman.

BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU TAKE FOR COLDS The danger in using patent medicines is from the stimulants and dangerous drugs which many of them depend on for their temporary effect. Because it is free from alcohol, narcotics and dangerous drugs, Father John's Medicine has had 30 years of success as a tonic and body-builder, for healing throat ailments and in the treatment of coughs and colds. Father John's Medicine is a doctor's prescription—pure and wholesome. Guaranteed.

O'NEILL-ADAMS CO. New York's Shopping Center Sixth Avenue, 20th to 22d Street In Case of Bad Weather To-day (Monday) ALL SALES ADVERTISED FOR MONDAY'S SELLING Excepting the Morning Specials WILL CONTINUE On Sale Tuesday Women's $19.75 to $35.00 Suits and Coats To close $14.75