

WALL STREET

Market Closing.—Traders tried to sell the market down in late afternoon on publication of weekly steel trade reviews which were less optimistic than they have usually been of late, and the filing of suit against the Southern Pacific. Bear pressure did not bring out much stock. New issues sold off easily on account of suit brought by prominent firm of lawyers to enforce payment of a $10,000 note.

Island issues advanced and closed above last night. Total sales, $21,541 shares. Closing was very quiet, and price changes were small; attendance in commission houses was light, and nothing of consequence was expected on an eve of the holiday.

Refusal of Attorney-General to postpone filing of suit against Southern Pacific in response to representation of delegations from California made Southern Pacific relatively weak; it opened down 1/4, and lost a little more on following sales. Union Pacific started unchanged. Steel at a decline of 1/4. Rock and Island showed a drop of 1/4 and preferred advanced 1/4. Announcement that progress is being made with a reorganization plan that would not involve receivership was encouraging, and it was thought that there would not be a recurrence of the selling movement pending definite information regarding the terms of the plan about the middle of next week.

While trading was dull during first half hour the undertone was firm with slight tendency to improve. Western Union and American Telephone recovered over one point from effects of pressure at the close of Tuesday, and Third Avenue was strong, selling up to 45 1/4, a new high.

Stocks were quite firm to end of first hour, and traders showed a disposition to cover shorts, being unwilling to remain short over the holiday. There was a spurt of bullish activity in second hour, but large interests were not inclined to encourage it and at 12 o'clock there was a release into comparative dullness, and prices shaded a little from the best. After settling up to 31, New York Central yielded to pressure and fell back to 30 1/4. Mercantile Marine bonds were strong, gaining 3/4 points to 54. In early afternoon trading was quiet, but stocks were firm, notwithstanding an almost complete absence of speculative interest. Towards 3 o'clock stocks were raised, but outside of a few issues not much stock was sold. New York Central sold down to 28 1/4 and New Haven to 71 1/4, but the general list did not change much.

The Closing Quotations.—The following were the highest, lowest and last price of stocks traded for today and the week as compared with yesterday's closing prices:

Table with columns for stock names, high, low, and last prices. Includes entries for Amalgamated Copper, American Can, American Smelters, Canadian Pacific, Consolidated Gas, Great Northern, Lehigh Valley, New York Central, Northern Pacific, Pennsylvania, Reading, Southern Pacific, Union Pacific, and United States Steel.

Table titled 'Yield of Leading Stocks Based on Present Selling Prices.' Lists various stocks and their yields.

CONSOLIDATED EXCHANGE. The improvement in the market on the Consolidated Stock Exchange was quite marked in the early dealings to-day. Prices recorded good gains compared with Tuesday's closing quotations with commission houses handling a gratifying volume of orders. At the higher levels, however, stocks were supplied, with prices shading from the best, although the undertone continued firm. The bulls on the floor again laid stress upon the technically strong position as evidenced by the ease of money the world over.
