PERKINS MAY HEAD POLICE; DOESN'T DENY RUMOR AFTER TWO-HOUR TALK WITH MAYOR

"Can't Discuss the Matter," He Declares on Leaving the City Hall.

WOULD AID GOETHALS.

Compares New York Force to London's, Where Chiefs
Have Long Tenure.

After having been in conference with Mayor Mitchel from 10.15 this morning until 12.45 o'clock this afternoon, part of which time City Chamberlain Hirsner was also present, George W. Perkins was asked if he would accept the Police Commissionership of New York.

"Now that Col. Goethals seems to be eliminated, would you accept the Commissionership if the Mayor were to offer it to you?" Mr. Perkins was asked.

"I don't want to discuss that matter one way or the other," he replied with some hesitation. "It is a very important position, and I have been sincerely helping the Mayor secure the services of Col. Goethals.

"It appears to be the general impression that the police commissionership of New York is nothing more or less than a morgue—that it means the death of every man's career. I am of the opinion that if such is the case it would not be a very difficult matter to change the conditions which prevail here.

COMPARES LONDON POLICE WITH FORCE IN NEW YORK.

"Now take the police department of London, as compared with New York, for example. In London there have been four heads of the department in eighty-five years. How many have we had here, I wonder? It is admitted by those who claim to know what they are talking about that the London police department is the best in the world.

"Just what I think of the police management in New York is best evidenced by this query: Is it fair for a Mayor to have the power to remove a Police Commissioner just because, for instance, he wears a red tie on St. Patrick's Day, and that same Commissioner cannot remove a patrolman or a lieutenant under him?"

"No, you cannot expect a good man to accept the Police Com-missionership of New York unless there is a change in the conditions I have described to you.
The conditions are discouraging to a good man and he simply will not stand for them."

"What were you doing in Albany yesterday?" Mr. Perkins was asked.
"I was up there trying to straighten things out," he replied. "I saw the Governor and had a talk with him. You know what the situation up there is. I needn't go into details about it."

DODGES DIRECT ANSWER ON GOETHALS BILL.

"Do you think the bill introduced by the Mayor to bring Col. Goethals have a chance?" was asked.

"I don't know. We are trying very hard.

"You went to Florida a few days ago. Did the Mayor recall you from there to save his bill?" was asked.

"Not exactly," was the reply. "I had several matters up here to attend to. No, I didn't go expressly in the Mayor's interests."

Mr. Perkins said he hadn't seen Col. Goethals, that he had no message from Col. Goethals for the Mayor and that so far as he was aware the Mayor had not heard from the builder of the Panama Canal.

FALLING DERRICK HURTS FOUR AT EQUITABLE SITE

Two Fatally Injured as Great Steel Boom Crashes to Guard Rail.

LUNCH CROWD FLEES.

Police Reserves From Three Stations Called Out to Maintain Order.

Four men were injured, two fatally; Broadway surface traffic was tied up and the First Department and the reserves of three stations were called out this afternoon when a great steel derrick on the new Equitable Building, at No. 129 Broadway, crashed free of the stay ropes and thundered to the wood overhead structure above Broadway.

The injured are:
Eugene Fox, No. 548 Monroe street, Brooklyn, right leg broken.
James Gordon, No. 314 West Fifty-fifth street, both legs broken.

Charles Watkins, Marquette avenue, Bronxville, collar bone broken.
Frank Maganin, carpenter's helper, injuries to head.

Father Dineen of St. Peter's Church administered the last rites to Fox and Gordon, who were so seriously hurt they will die. Father McEvan, Fire Department chaplain, one of the heroes of the Equitable fire, assisted Father Dineen. The injured were taken to the Hudson street hospital.

A great splinter of wood was hurled across Broadway and knocked a young woman unconscious. She was revived, but refused to give her name or go to a hospital.

The boom and mast of the derrick, great steel pieces, struck the overhead structure above the sidewalk but did not go through it. The men who were injured were in a workmen's shanty on this structure. Fire trucks No. 10 sent up a ladder and cleared the debris, digging out Ma-ginnis, who was fastened down by broken planking.

A vast crowd gathered soon after the crash, and it required the reserves of the Oak, Elizabeth and the Greenwich streets stations to hold them in check. The block was roped off and the trolley system held up for an hour.

At the time of the falling of the derrick Broadway was crowded with men and women of the skyscrapers taking their lunch hour stroll. Only head structure was built prevented the killing of a number of pedestrians.

POLICE BILLS COME BEFORE ASSEMBLY ON NEXT TUESDAY.

ALBANY, March 20.—Consideration of the New York police bills was made a special order of business for Tuesday in the Assembly to-day.
Assemblyman Hoff, sponsor for the bill, moved its advancement from its present order of second reading to the order of final passage.

This was objected to by Democratic Leader Smith, who explained that he did not wish to give the bill the precedence which even permission to advance it would mean.

Mr. Smith added that he had no objection to the consideration of the bill on Tuesday in special order on both second and third readings and that was agreed to.

RUSH TROOPS TO ULSTER AS CARSON HOLDS WAR TALK

Orange Leader Greeted by Gun-Shooting Throngs on His Arrival in Belfast—Warships Held in Dublin Bay.

BEELFAST, Ireland, March 20.— Owing to the threatening aspect of affairs in Ulster over the Home Rule bill, army headquarters to-day rushed a detachment of 200 Infantry to Newry from the Carragh and another 300 from Mullingar. The garrison of Londonderry also was reinforced by 300 men from Mullingar, and two warships have arrived in Dublin Bay.

Feeling among the public in Belfast has become much more tense since yesterday's debate in Parliament, and soon after his arrival here this morning Sir Edward Carson issued an appeal to his followers to preserve calm.

Sir Edward Carson, the leader of the Unionists of Ulster, made a dramatic entry into the capital of the province to-day. His purpose in coming he said to consult with the other Ulster Unionist leaders and with the commanders of the Ulster volunteer forces.

The great activity displayed at Unionist headquarters and in the army barracks have caused considerable excitement among the people of Belfast who for days past have been momentarily expecting some decisive move on the part of the Unionist chiefs or on that of the government.

Before landing this morning Sir Edward Carson received on board the steamer on which he had made the passage from England, Sir George Richardson, a retired Lieutenant-General of the British army, who is commander-in-chief of the Ulster Unionist forces, together with his chief officers.

As the party came down the pier they found drawn up as a guard of honor the emergency force of picked men of the Ulster volunteers, who had been summoned to the Unionist headquarters at a late hour last night. A big crowd gave them a noisy welcome, cheering wildly and firing salvoes into the air from their revolvers.

During the night automobiles had been kept busy moving stores and documents from the Unionist headquarters, apparently fearing a raid by the police who had been keeping close watch on every move made by the Unionists.

Precautions of a particularly rigorous character have been taken at the Victoria Military Barracks here, where extra guards have been on duty day and night for several days past.

Urgent instructions have been sent to the military authorities in the south of Ireland to dispatch reinforcements immediately to the garrison stations in Ulster.

The separation suit brought by Ethel Lorraine Belmont against her husband, Raymond Belmont son of August Belmont was called for trial before Justice Greenbaum in the Supreme Court this afternoon. It was brought out on cross-examination that the plaintiff had never been on the stage before or after her marriage to young Belmont although she posed as an actress.

The plaintiff also admitted that she had signed an agreement in 1911 to release Belmont on payment of $20,- 000 but had refused to agree to live on $300 a month.

The cross-examination was embarrassing to the plaintiff. She was forced to admit that she met young Belmont in 1909, when she was an actress at a resort conducted by a Miss Anderson in West Forty-ninth street.

"We talked many times," said the witness on direct examination, "on the question of money. He told me that he wanted to live in the country; that he preferred New Jersey.
He said he had an income of $7,000 a year independent of any money that his father might give him on the side.

"He figured out on a piece of paper one day while we were lunching at the Knickerbocker that he could marry me and allow me $400 a month to run the house. 'We'll raise beag-les,' he told me. 'I'll take what dogs I have in my kennels on Long Island and move them to Jersey and we'll raise beagles,' he told me. He said there was lots of money in beagles and he knew how to raise them. He said he would buy a car and that we would be happy together raising beagles and that when the dog shows were held we could motor over to New York and be together at the dog shows. He said he'd give me one of the best male dogs and hold that a female dog and we would show against each other at the shows."

"Did he go into detail about household affairs?" asked Mr. Money.

"Yes, he talked everything—from pots to pans and vinegar bottles," she replied.

Just before Raymond left her for good, the witness said, he called at her apartment and asked her if she would take $300 a month for life and let him go his own way. Her reply was that you talk like your father would talk and I don't care if August Belmont offers me $1000 a year, I want you.

CONCEALED ASSETS, VERDICT Manufacturers Found Guilty of Fraud in Bankruptcy Case.

Morris Lasker and Henry Babowitz, brothers, manufacturers of firearms at No. 16 Grand street, Henry Babok, Morris Epstein and Lewis Levinson, were all convicted in the United States District Court this afternoon of concealing assets in bankruptcy. Judge Hand suspended sentence on Levinson and announced that he would sentence the others on April 4.

The sum involved in the bankruptcy of the Babowitz Brothers was $4000.
The government has started a prosecution against merchants who have gone into bankruptcy and have hidden their assets from creditors and receivers. These are the first of many cases to be tried.

SAILING TO-DAY.

Sarasota, Balize, 12 M.
Maraca, Trinidad, 12 M.
Celen, Colon, 3 P. M.

by me to determine the closing time for cabaret restaurants and other night life places," announced Mayor Mitchel to-day.

The Mayor said he would formally announce his policy to-day or tomorrow. It will be practically identical with the report submitted to him by his "five" committee, which held a series of hearings and learned the sentiments of those interested.

This is what the Mayor's plan is:
For cabaret restaurants to take out all-night licenses at $25 a week, with the understanding that they close at 2 A. M. and have their lights out by 2.30 A. M. Licenses will be revoked if this closing hour is violated.

Restaurants without entertainment may take out licenses at $25 a week, and may keep open all night, serving both food and drink.

Hotels must close their bars at 1 A.
M., but they may serve food in any regular dining room at any time of the day or night. Hotels may also take out all-night licenses for the purpose of entertaining private parties, and there will be no limitation to the closing time in such cases.

Saloons catering to all-night workers may take out all-night licenses if they can show a legitimate demand for same, but liquor must not be served in back rooms after 1 A. M.

In accordance with the State excise law, all-night licenses cannot be obtained on Saturdays or Sundays.

The Mayor is to remain the final judge on applications for all-night licenses. He may issue or revoke such licenses at will.

The report of the "five" committee, to-day endorsed by the Mayor, is the same as that originally prepared by Arthur Woods, the Mayor's secretary.

POLICE ROUT MOBS OF RIOTERS IN PARIS AT EDITOR'S FUNERAL

Bullets and Clubs in Battle When Sympathizer of Slain Man Denounces Minister Whose Wife Killed Calmette.

SEVERAL ARE WOUNDED;
CROWD IS SCATTERED.

Gendarmes Charge Excited Throngs and Guard Chamber of Deputies From Attack by Crowd.

PARIS, March 20.—The burial of Editor Gaston Calmette, the victim of the bullets of Mme. Caillaux, was followed by disorder and rioting. In which there was revolver shooting, this afternoon. A great crowd had gathered along the line of the funeral procession. They were silent and orderly while the body passed on the way to the grave, but as the mourners returned there were outbreaks of disorder all over the city.

Former Premiers Barthou and Briand and Louis Klotz, former Minister of the Interior, were cheered from the sidewalks returning from the cemetery. A royalist began to denounce Caillaux. The crowd attacked him, kicked him, beat him with canes and fired revolvers at him.
The police charged and rescued him. He was found to have been slightly wounded by a bullet.

A group of royalists marched out from the cemetery seeking a quarrel and screaming against Cal-laux. They were followed by detectives, police and members of the Republican Guard. The marchers were led by Maurice Pujo, editor of the Action Francaise. One of the mob was singled out by those on the sidewalks, who threw missiles at him. He fired a revolver into the crowd. A number of persons were wounded.
The police fought for half an hour clearing the streets.

There were repeated but less an-nicious fights in other parts of the city. A heavy guard was thrown around the Chamber of Deputies because of reports that the mob was to make a concerted attack there.

Among the notable persons at the funeral were Prince Murat, Baron Robert de Rothschild, Maitre Lohier, lawyer for Mme. Caillaux, and Baron Bernhardt. There were twelve hundreds of flowers following the hearse.

There was a hot debate to-day in the Chamber regarding charges that former Premier Monis had a part in hushing up the Rochette get-rich-quick scandal.

The complete reorganization of the Cabinet is being arranged, according to official announcement.

The activities of the Royalists are interpreted by the authorities as being moved by a desire to make trouble. They assail Caillaux on meeting a body of the latter's friends and assault Calmette when in the vicinity of numbers of his mourners. A disturbance is their best present political asset.

AMERICAN CHARGE O'SHAUGHNESSY TO RESIGN OFFICE?

American Representative Says Bad Health May Force Him to Leave Mexico City.

MEXICO CITY, March 20.—Mr.
O'Shaughnessy, American Charge d'Affaires, admitted to-day that he was seriously considering the question of resigning. He says, however, that if he does resign it will be because of his bad state of health. Mr.
O'Shaughnessy's physician is not optimistic regarding his patient's early recovery from his attack of neuritis.

Some wonderment has been aroused here by the knowledge that Mr.
O'Shaughnessy will be accompanied to Vera Cruz to-morrow by Thomas H. Hohler, British Charge d'Affaires here.

Mr. O'Shaughnessy says that if his state of health permits it he will return to the Federal capital on Monday. He denies any knowledge of a conference between John Lind, personal representative of President Wilson, and Jose Lopez Portillo y Rojas, the Mexican Foreign Minister. Senor Portillo was reported to-day to be in Orizaba.

Provisional President Huerta today agreed to permit the American Embassy here to receive arms and ammunition consigned to it by the United States Government for the protection of American citizens in the event of disturbances in the Federal capital. The arms and ammunition, however, have not yet been removed from the Custom House. "Little by little" is the manner in which Huerta proposes to permit their delivery to the embassy.

$392,000 FOR SIEGEL STORE.

Boston Receivers Have That Sum for the Creditors.

BOSTON, March 20.—The receivers of Siegel Company of Boston announced to-day that $392,000 had been realized on the sale of the stock and other assets of the company.

Marie Jansen Is Dead.

MILFORD, Mass., March 20.—Marie Jansen, a comic opera favorite twenty-five years ago, died to-day at the home of her brother-in-law, after a brief illness. She was sixty-five years old and was known for the stage as Hattie Johnson.
