"ALL SURRENDER ARMS!" ORDER OF WILSON, TO END BLOODSHED IN COLORADO

While More Federal Troops Are Rushing to War Zone President in Proclamation Makes Demand on Strikers and Mine Guards.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Complete disarmament of all civilians in the Colorado coal strike districts was ordered to-day by President Wilson. A proclamation was issued by Secretary of War Garrison, by authority and express direction of the President, calling upon every person in the strike zone who has arms or ammunition to turn them in to the United States Army forces in command. The order was crisp with military imperative. It applies principally to the armed strikers and mine guards. It is not construed to apply to the State militia. The proclamation specifies "individuals, firms, associations and corporations." A promise to give receipts for the arms and ammunition was made, but with only the implied pledge for later return.

This drastic step was taken by the President to stop civil war and bloodshed in Colorado following a conference last night with Secretary Garrison, when it was decided to order 1,000 more troops to Colorado.

A time limit will be set for the surrender of arms by civilians and places designated for their receipt by the United States military authorities.

Secretary Garrison's proclamation, addressed to Major Holbrook at Trinidad, is as follows:

"Whereas, under existing circumstances the possession of arms and ammunition by persons not in the military service of the United States tends to provoke disorder and to excite domestic violence and hinders the restoration of normal conditions of peace and good order, I do, by the authority of the President of the United States, call upon and direct all persons not in the military service of the United States who have arms or ammunition in their possession or under their control to deliver them forthwith to the officer at the place herein designated. Receipts will be issued for all arms and ammunition so delivered. The above applies to individuals, firms, associations and corporations."

The officer in command at each place where the troops are stationed is charged to post the proclamation. Secretary Garrison's determination to issue the proclamation for the surrender of arms was reached after mature deliberation upon reports from Major Holbrook at Trinidad. It was pointed out that in directing the surrender of arms to the army commanders at the respective stations the Government assumes all responsibility for the protection of property which individuals, associations, firms and corporations hitherto have been guarding on their own account. Emphasis was laid upon the fact that the sweeping terms of the proclamation calling for "not in military service of the United States" to surrender their arms applies only to

GERMAN WOMAN SLAIN BY MEXICO CITY MOB

Report Says the Victim Was Mistaken for an American.

VERA CRUZ, May 2.—That Mrs. Clara Beckmeyer, a German woman, who, according to rumors, was mistaken for an American, was killed by a mob in the streets of Mexico City on April 27, is the news brought here to-day by refugees from the Federal capital. No confirmation of the incident has been received here.

Under the impression that trains still were running on the Inter-oceanic Railroad, the refugees went to the station of that line instead of to the depot of the Mexican Railway, over which road all other refugees have left the capital, so that the news of the woman's death was not widely known among Americans and was late in reaching Vera Cruz.

Mrs. Beckmeyer was a widow of three months. She wore at her collar a small silk German flag, but the mob regarding this merely as a flimsy device of nationality, is said to have dragged her through the streets and so maltreated her that she died.

REFUGEES, HERE, TELL OF THREATS TO KILL AMERICANS

Men and Women Had to Flee From Death at Hands of Mexican Soldiers.

BROOKLYN MAN HELD.

Railroad Offices Robbed of $150,000 When Federals Lost
Rincon Antonio Headquarters.

The steamship Oregonian of the American-Hawian Line, arrived today from Puerto Mexico, on the Isthmus of Tehuantepec, with thirty-one refugees, including four women and eight children. They are all employees of the Tehuantepec National Railway, which has been seized by the Mexican Federal troops. It was only through the efforts of the British Consul and General Gamboa, the Federal military commander, that the party was able to get safely away from the country. As it was, the men were in grave danger of being shot.

The refugees were headed by William B. Ryan, Vice-President and General Manager of the railway. The party came away in such a hurry that they were unable to bring any of their belongings. The women and children have only the clothes they wore on the hour of their hurried departure. The engineers and others were their working clothes.

Richard T. Cranfield, the general storekeeper of the railway, gave an interesting recital of the events that led up to the hurried flight of the refugees.

"After the seizure of Vera Cruz by the Americans we began to hear wild rumors," said Mr. Cranfield, "of the slaughter of Mexicans. These reports excited the people along the route of the railway and we felt that trouble was brewing. Many of the employees of the railway began to send their wives and children away. Then, on April 21, we received notice from Puerto Mexico, through the United States Consul, that all foreigners, especially Americans, should immediately leave the country.

"We at once began preparations for departure and that night many of the women and children were sent to Puerto Mexico and to Salina Cruz, on the Pacific end of the railway.

"On the morning of the 22d a party of forty rurales of the Seventeenth Regiment rode into Rincon Antonio, the headquarters of the railway, 140 miles inland from Puerto Mexico. These rurales immediately began to round up the employees of the road who were on their way to work. One by one we were arrested and taken to the waiting room of the railway station, where guards were placed over us.

"We were separated from our wives and children and were unable to know what had happened to them. Then we were informed that we were to be marched on foot to Juchitan, a military town seventy-five miles distant. But worst of all, we received the intimation that once outside of Rincon Antonio we were to be shot. That meant 'ley fuga.' In other words, the story would be told that we were shot while trying to escape from our guards.

WOMAN ARRESTED FOR THREAT TO SHOOT JOHN D. ON SIGHT

Woman Anarchist Repeats Talk of Assassination When Caught by Detectives on Her Way to Standard Oil Office.

WILLING TO GIVE HER LIFE FOR BENEFIT OF STRIKERS

"Mourners' Parade" Renewed at 26 Broadway, but Magnate and Son Are Safe at Tarrytown.

Marie Gantz, the Anarchist who has repeatedly said in public and in the outer office of John D. Rockefeller jr. that she would shoot and kill the crown prince of Standard Oil, was arrested just before noon to-day. A warrant had been issued by Magistrate Murphy in Centre Street Court at the instance of Deputy Police Commissioner Rubin. It was issued under the statute forbidding unlawful assembly and especially under the clause cited editorially by The World to-day declaring unlawful a gathering of three or more persons who,

"Being assembled, attempt or threaten any act tending toward a breach of the peace or an injury to person or property, or any unlawful act."

In a gathering of thousands in Battery Park Thursday the woman, who is nicknamed "Sweet Marie," shouted with oaths and coarse epithets: "I will shoot John D. Rockefeller Jr. down like a dog unless he arbitrates this strike!" The nearest persons to her were five policemen who were fighting off hoodlums who were trying to knock her from the pile of lumber which she was using as a rostrum.

"Sweet Marie" was on her way, with a man companion, to No. 36 Broadway when she was arrested. Reporters who were waiting for her promised appearance at the Standard Oil building at noon, intercepted the couple to ask what she intended doing.

REPEATED THREAT TO KILL ROCKEFELLER.
"I'm going up to his office again," she said, referring to Rockefeller, "and I am going to leave the same message for him there that I left the other day, telling him I'll kill him the first chance I get unless he stops the strike in Colorado. Then I am going to hold a meeting in Bowling Green."

Lieut. Vergansky and Detective Henley of Deputy Commissioner Rubin's staff stepped into the group and told the agitator she was "wanted." She looked around cheerfully and asked "What for?" Bergansky showed her the warrant. "Sweet Marie" glanced at it and said "All right." From that moment until Matron McCarthy of the Old City station locked her in a cell the young woman did not utter a single word. She was as meekly sociable as a parlor socialist.

The detectives took her to Wall street and across to the station. Passers by did not recognize her and did not know that there had been an arrest. The reporters were the only followers of her march to prison here. "SWEET MARIE" SENDS A MESSAGE TO PUBLIC.

At the station after giving her age as twenty-five years, her birth as Austrian, her occupation as "sales-lady" and her home as No. 58 East One Hundred and Third street, "Sweet Marie" turned her chubby pink and white countenance to the reporters and, turning her eyes to the ceiling with a Joan of Arc effect, said: "Tell the people I will give my

H. KOLEHMAINEN WINS MARATHON; STROBINO SECOND

Smith Runs Third—Time Over 13 Mile 200 Yard Course Was 1.09 1-5.

For the second time, Hannes Kolehmainen of the Irish-American Athletic Club this afternoon won the Evening World's modified Marathon race of thirteen miles, two hundred yards from Jerome avenue and One Hundred and Eighty-fourth street to the City Hall. His time was 1 hour, 9 minutes and 1-5 second.

The second man was Gaston Strobino of Paterson, N. J., who ran third last year. His time was 1 hour 11 minutes 28 seconds. Harry J. Smith of the Bronx Church House A. C. came in third in 1 hour 12 minutes and 55 1-5 seconds. He ran second last year.

The time made in the race last year was 1 hour and 5 minutes, but the course was 5-8 of a mile longer this year.

The race of to-day was started by Police Commissioner Woods and was the fourth running of the event. Throughout the rout taken by the runners, there were great crowds which were augmented by the suffrage paraders celebrating "Suffrage Day" and holding meetings at various points along the way.
