

LOT OF REAL LOVE
IF THIS $5 POWDER
HAS PROMISED EFFECT

Will Win Strangers, Spurn Unwelcome Admirers and Rekindle Waning Affections.

Mrs. Filomena Costa of No. 129 Fremont str., Jersey City, is out on bail awaiting the action of the Grand Jury on charges that she obtained money by selling love powders and telling fortunes.

She was arrested Monday, after Police Captain Cody had received numerous complaints from persons who said they had paid $5 for these powders which failed to bring the desired effects. He sent Miss Margaret Maso to see the so-called sorceress. She had just purchased the powders and the charmer was offering weird incantations before a crude altar when the police closed in. "I cast a spell upon you!" she shrieked. "Your wives won't love you now!"

But the police took her away and Miss Maso told Judge O'Brien that for her $5 she got from Mrs. Costa one powder guaranteed to make a strange man love the woman who sprinkled it on his coat-tail, a second designed to be put into a drink and calculated to drive away a bad husband or an unwelcome admirer, and a third to be sprinkled in food as a sure rekindler of waning love. Mrs. Costa was held in $500 bail, which she furnished.

To-day her husband sat dejectedly on the curb across the street. He said he hadn't the slightest idea where his wife was, and he seemed to hesitate about going into the "altar room" for fear of a curse she may have left lying around for him. The woman ran a delicatessen store under the house, but is said to own a great deal of property nearby.

Boy Crushed Under Elevator.

Rolde George, seventeen years old, who operated the elevator in the Empire City Garage, No. 265 Greenpoint avenue, Williamsburg, stopped the cage at noon to-day and went to the bottom of the shaft to eat a lunch. When the employees of the garage returned at 1 o'clock they found the elevator in the basement, and upon raising it found the crushed remains of the boy.

Protect Your Dog
Let Him Have VERMILAX

Your dog protects your home, but he cannot protect his own health in hot weather. Regularly VERMILAX will keep him in superb condition throughout the summer. It cures up health, appearance and spirit, corrects intestinal trouble and removes worms—causes of 90% of sickness in dogs. Vomiting, frothing at the mouth, etc. switching or dragging on hind quarters are all indications of worms. Give the dog VERMILAX at once and it will remove all worms—and danger—in 24 to 48 hours.

"For Your Dog's Sake" use VERMILAX and "prevent" trouble. By parcel post $1.00, or at Riker, Heermann, other druggists and Pet Shops.
